From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners, Visitors, Guests and Friends,

Our yearly Christmas celebration of the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ brings before us the mystery of the Incarnation, God's-Word-Made-Flesh. The Masses of Christmas invite us to reflect upon the redeeming love of God that draws near to us, not with overwhelming might that intimidates us, nor with terror-inducing power that makes us cower in fear and dread, but in the form of a helpless babe who invites us to draw near to him in humble awe and wonder, thereby to evoke from us the response of love that lies latent in our human hearts.

I hope and pray that our Christmas celebrations—the music and song, the art and environment, the signs and symbols, the prayers and the preaching, the hospitality and welcome, indeed everything and everyone that is a part of them—will help you to experience the presence and the love of the Holy One who humbled himself to share in our humanity, that we might come to share in the glory of his divinity.

Whether you are an active Catholic who comes to Mass on a regular weekly basis, or whether you come only occasionally, or perhaps rarely more often than on Christmas and Easter, whether you identify as a Catholic, a Protestant, an adherent of some other religion, an agnostic, or even an atheist, we hope you will experience in this place and in the people who gather here some sense of the welcome, the love and the light of God's radiant goodness.

On behalf of the entire parish staff here at Our Lady of Guadalupe please accept my warmest wishes for a truly blessed Christmas, and for a peace-filled and prosperous 2020. We are all so very grateful for your support for this parish community, and for the collaboration we share with you in ministry and mission in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. May the grace of the Christmas season be yours in surpassing measure, and may it endure in full supply throughout the coming year to bring you joy, to bless you with peace, and to lift you up in hope. To each and to all....

Merry Christmas and happy New Year!

Fr. Kevin

How To Remember A Loved One During The Holidays

As family and friends gather to celebrate the holidays and music of the season surrounds us, our longing for a loved one who has died or for the shared times that have passed can intensify. Our culture encourages us to hurry through the season, as well as to hurry through our sense of loss, and this can minimize the gift of their life and the depth of our loss. This holiday season, gift yourself with time to set aside to remember and celebrate your loved one. Here are some ways that you can remember your loved one, which can be done alone or with others. By Nancy Copeland-Payton The Losses of Our Lives: The Sacred Gifts of Renewal in Everyday Loss.

Ritual Ceremony - A ritual or ceremony combines tangible objects with actions as a powerful way to remember a person and their life. Place a new candle in a special place in your home - perhaps on the dining table, in the living room or in the bedroom. Light the candle each day or evening, signifying time consecrated for remembering the one you loved. In the light and warmth of the candle, sit with your memories, giving thanks for the person's presence in the past and the memories that accompany you now.

Finish Your Conversation: After a loved one dies, there may be unfinished conversations of things we long to say that were not shared before they died, or things we wish to say again. In a quiet, comfortable place, sit near a picture of the one you love. Have a conversation with them, telling them about your days and saying everything you need or desire to say. Remembering the sound of their voice, how they spoke, their favorite words, imagine what they might say back to you.

Explore the Loss: As we remember the one we love, we uncover hidden layers of loss. We've lost the identity of being their spouse or child or parent, we miss sharing favorite meals or a movie together, we yearn to show them the latest picture of our child or grandchild or to take walk together. Set aside uninterrupted time to think or write about the following:

- What did you love about this special person?
- What do you now miss?

© Jean Denton flock.pastoralcenter.com

"They shall name him Emmanuel, which means God is with us."

Sheepish Question:

Where have I recognized Christ coming into my life this week?

This Week's Readings at Mass Following a Dream

- Isaiah 7:10-14 - Birth of Emmanuel
- Romans 1:1-7 - Greeting from Paul
- Matthew 1:18-24 - The birth of Jesus

Questions of the Week

1. Share a story of a parent you know having the courage to do something that seemed crazy, counter-cultural, or just plain different, but proved to be for the best of his/her child.
2. Have you even had any experiences of receiving directions or guidance from God that made you change course and do something different than what you had planned? How did you know to trust it?

Christmas Prayer

Child of Bethlehem-house of bread; Man of Jerusalem-city of peace; you have loved us without limit or condition; in our greatness and in our misery, in our folly and in our virtue; may your hand be always upon us and may your heart be within us, so that we too may become bread and peace for one another.

Caring For God's Creation

Many of us will be wrapping presents to give to our loved ones in the coming week. Consider using paper and other accessories that are environmentally friendly. For example, use festive dish towels, napkins, or the comics section of newspapers as wrapping paper. Or, if you have children, have them decorate paper that can be used to wrap gifts. And instead of using bows and ribbons, consider using cotton string or other biodegradable material to accessorize.

Loop The 'Lupe Needs You!

We're less than six months away from Loop the 'Lupe, the obstacle course 5K fundraiser OLG holds each summer. The date of the upcoming event is Saturday, June 6th. "The Loop" raised more than $12,000 in 2019 to go towards maintenance costs for the Walmesley Center, but to continue our success, we need a lot of volunteers! Contact Brian Callanan for more information at callanan.seattle@gmail.com or 206-459-4292 to learn more.

In December alone, we were able to help 94 people with food, housing, and clothing. We are so grateful. We continue to keep all of you in our prayers. Looking forward to 2020, our food pantry has been well stocked but our biggest need right now is toiletries, cleaning supplies and paper goods. Please consider these items when you make your next donation. Have a Blessed Christmas and New Year!

Save The Date

OLG Christmas Trivia

Did you know the beautiful Nativity scene that our children gather around every year is 24 years old? In 1995, it was donated to OLG by Peggy's Creative Gifts (better known as long-time parishioner, Peg Olson) with the generosity of parishioners, including school families who purchased the Holy Family and the craftsmanship of the parishioner who built the stable. As a parish, we are reminded of the many blessings we have received in the past from our fellow parishioners, and we continue to be grateful for their generosity for years to come.

YEAR END GIVING TIPS

The end of December is also the end of the tax year. Here are some tips for year end giving.

- If you are over 70 1/2 and have a traditional IRA account, you can make a direct charitable distribution to the parish prior to December 31st to reduce your year end account balance and possibly count as a Required Minimum Distribution.
- If you have appreciated stock to donate, there may be tax savings for you. Please contact the parish office right away if you have this in mind, as the transfer takes a little time and has to go through the Archdiocese.
- To be counted as a tax deduction for 2019, your gift must be either received or postmarked by December 31st. If the parish receives it after January 1st, the IRS says it is a 2020 tax deductible gift.

Thank you for your generosity to Our Lady of Guadalupe in 2019!
