Corpus Christi Sunday

Jesus, Body and Blood,
we are grateful for the gift of your life and the way it strengthens us to live
ours.

Teach us to draw on the

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Last Sunday's celebration of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity represented, in large part, the Church's liturgical summation of the self-disclosure of God made known to us through all the events and mysteries celebrated since the very beginning of our Liturgical Year. Trinity Sunday expressed how the revelation of God has become known to us through the Incarnation, Life, Death, Resurrection, Ascension of Christ and the Sending of the Holy Spirit. These saving actions and events are the way whereby the Father, through Christ, with Christ and in Christ (the Son), in unity of the Holy Spirit, has manifested his love for the world and his passionate longing to draw the world back to himself through our faith in his Only-Begotten Son, and the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit. In a sense, Trinity Sunday, consummates the whole of the first half of the Liturgical Year by its emphasis on the One God whose revelation of himself has been made known in the mysteries the liturgy has celebrated throughout the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter.

Now, as we face the nearly six-month period of Ordinary Time that follows and focuses upon the public ministry of Jesus, and his call to us to become missionary disciples, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ—a.k.a., Corpus Christi. This feast is, in large part, meant to remind us of how Jesus continues to be with us on our life-long pilgrimage of faith and loving service, nourishing and strengthening us with the Sacrament of his Body and Blood as food (viaticum) for our journey. It also bears a direct relation to last Sunday's Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, for the Sacrament of the Eucharist celebrates how the Father sends the Holy Spirit to sanctify the gifts of bread and wine, so that they will become the Body and Blood of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

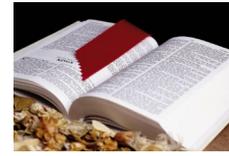

While we are still waiting and preparing for the day—soon to come we hope—when we will be permitted and enabled to invite people, albeit in very limited numbers, to gather physically with us for the celebration of Mass and the reception of Holy Communion, we ask your continued patience and prayerful support. As of the writing of this installment of my bulletin column, we are still in Phase I of the four-phased reopening plan outlined by Governor Inslee. We will not be allowed to open our church and to have parishioners physically join us for Mass until we reach Phase II. As we work and prepare for that day, we thank you for all you have done to help our parish remain safe, and to stay connected with one another through the various means that are available to us—letters and notes, live-streaming, Zoom meetings, emails, phone calls, texts, Twitter, Vimeo et al. Your cooperation, your outreach, your patient and prayerful forbearances have been so enormously helpful. Keep up the good work, and may God bless you for it.

Grace, peace and good health to all,

Fr. Kevin

Update On Improving The Live Streaming Of Masses In The Church

We are still waiting for the camera to arrive...keep those prayers going!

Mass Prayer Cards

Did you know that it has been a long-standing Catholic tradition to ask for a Mass to be celebrated on behalf of another person who is sick, who has died, or who is in need of prayer in other ways? The Mass is the best way Catholics pray and it is a special way to offer prayers on behalf of another person. In addition, our parish has beautiful prayer cards that can be sent to the person or their family, informing them of the special Mass. There is no cost, although many make a small donation ($15 and up). For more information, contact the Parish Office.

Celebrating The Sacrament Of Reconciliation

Even though we are limited in our ability to celebrate certain sacraments at this time, Fr. Kevin is still available to hear confessions by appointment. Please call the Parish Office, 206-935-0358 or email Fr. Kevin at frkevin@olgseattle.org.

The Prayer of
St. Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace.

Where there is hatred let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek

To be consoled as to console,

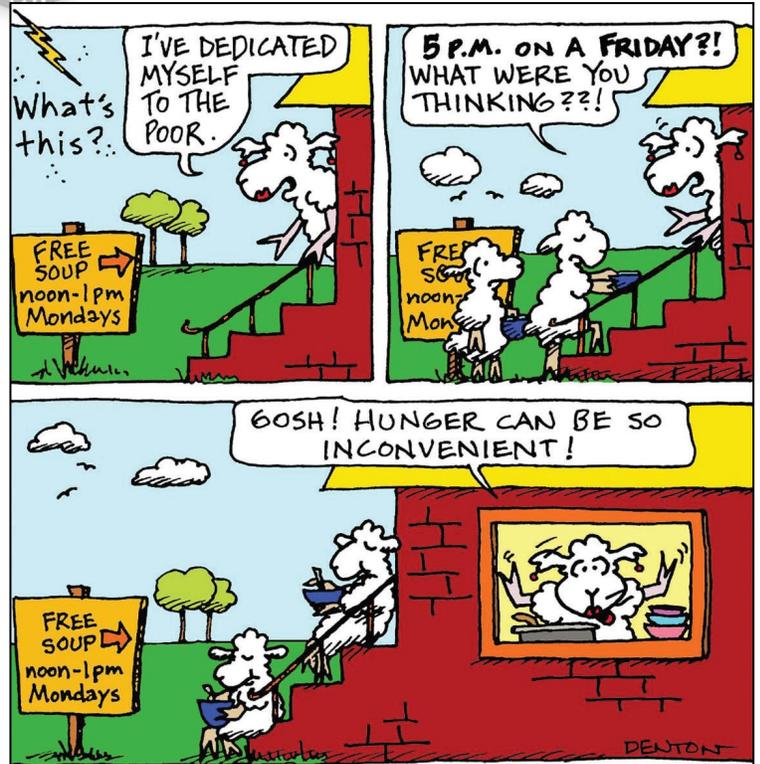

To be understood as to understand,

To be loved as to love,

For it is in giving that we receive;

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

It is in dying to self that we are born to eternal life.

A Call to Address Racism in our Hearts and Community

May 29, 2020 - The Catholic bishops of the United States recently issued a pastoral letter against racism entitled Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love. In this instruction, we call for a conversion of hearts, minds and institutions to address the evils of racism that still exist in our country and communities. As we wrote in the letter:

Racism occurs because a person ignores the fundamental truth that, because all humans share a common origin, they are all brothers and sisters, all equally made in the image of God. When this truth is ignored, the consequence is prejudice and fear of the other, and – all too often – hatred.

The killing of George Floyd in Minnesota on Monday, May 25, was very traumatic and appalling. I wish to acknowledge the anger, pain and sadness this and other encounters between police officers and black men evoke not only in Minnesota, but throughout the country and in our own faith family as well.

These deaths are tragic, and they expose a symptomatic and deep-seated connection between institutional racism and the continued erosion of the sanctity of life. If we do not respond appropriately as a society, we will be tacitly acquiescing to the ongoing killing of unarmed black men.

The senseless taking of life defies the fundamental principles of justice, every notion of dignity and the fact that all of our lives are connected. As human beings, we are responsible for each other.

As Seattle Police Chief Carmen Best said in her May 27 statement to the SPD, “policing is an honorable profession filled with honorable public servants, committed to protecting life and serving the community.” Chief Best also told her officers that if they see a coworker doing something that is unsafe, out of policy, unacceptable and illegal, they need to act, and that if someone’s life is unnecessarily in danger, it is their responsibility to intervene.

As Catholics, we are called to the same standards of behavior. We cannot stand by and not respond to incidents of racism and inhuman treatment of our black brothers and sisters, or anyone else.

Whether citizens or officers of the law, we are all part of a community that is responsible to care for each other. Our time-honored Catholic social teaching about the common good demands no less of any of us.

The fact that we were created in the image of God teaches us that each person is a living expression of God who must be respected and preserved and never dishonored. Let us continue to pray and work together for the personal and societal conversions necessary to address the evils of racism.

COVID-19 Assistance: Ways to Give and Get Help

With the ongoing pandemic, many of us find ourselves in difficult situations. Homeschooling, stress, isolation, financial strain, and health concerns are some of new challenges we face. Know that you are not alone. We are here to support you in any way we can. We are continually adding to our COVID-19 Assistance page: <https://olgseattle.org/covid-19-assistance>. Whether you need assistance, want to lend a hand, or both, we've got resources for you. We also have prayer resources to strengthen you on the journey. Please send additional resources to Jennifer jibach@olgseattle.org.

Catholic Relief Services: Working with the U.S. Government to Prevent COVID-19

In March, Congress appropriated about $2.3 billion in coronavirus funding to the Department of State and the U.S. Agency for International Development. Migration and Refugee Assistance received $350 million and International Disaster Assistance received $258 million. Catholic Relief Services supports this legislation and continues to help prevent the spread of COVID-19 throughout the world. Bill O'Keefe, executive vice president at Catholic Relief Services (CRS), issued the following statement: "We are grateful for Congress' leadership and wisdom. As Martin Luther King said during troubled times, the world is a 'single garment of destiny.' We are in this together as a global family. What affects one of us affects all of us. Supporting vulnerable populations now and into the future is the American way, and in our own best interest. Visit www.crs.org for more information.

Breakfast Foods Needed

Catholic Community Services (CCS) has been working hard to keep their shelter guests safe during this time of pandemic. Many guests have temporarily been moved into motels where there is no food service for them. Seattle Prep has been providing lunches and other groups, like the Knights of Columbus, have covered dinner but CCS still needs help with breakfast. In collaboration with our local Scouts, we are running a breakfast food drive. Please consider donating instant oatmeal, dried fruit, fruit cups, individually wrapped pastries, peanut butter, jelly, jerky, and durable fruit (oranges, apples, etc.) by June 21. Contact Jennifer for drop-off information (jibach@olgseattle.org).

OLG is Collecting Masks for Farm Workers

Catholic Community Services is in urgent need of thousands of masks to equip farmworkers as the harvesting seasons begin. Help the essential workers who labor to provide food for our community. We will be collecting homemade and store-bought masks. Visit <https://ccswww.org/sewing-bee/> for sewing instructions and tutorials. You can drop your donations in the collection bin outside the Pastoral Center on weekdays.

Urge Congress to Strengthen SNAP in the Next Relief Bill

Families are struggling to put food on the table during this time of economic crisis. Churches and charities are working overtime to meet this rising need, but more must be done. The Supplement Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) effectively addresses hunger by delivering resources directly to low-income households. It's also a proven tool to boost the economy – every dollar spent on SNAP generates up to $1.80 in economic activity. Join the Washington State Catholic Bishops in telling Congress to prioritize SNAP in the next COVID-19 relief bill by increasing benefits and suspending rule changes. Religious Freedom Week

Later this month, the U.S. Catholic Church will mark Religious Freedom Week. Efforts to construct a barrier on the southern border have met resistance from the Catholic Church in Brownsville, TX. The proposed barrier would run through Diocesan-owned land. Freedom of the Church means that the Church cannot be impeded by the civil authorities from engaging in her mission. That mission includes ministry to those fleeing violence and poverty. As Bishop Daniel Flores of Brownsville told the Wall Street Journal, "I don't want to use church property to say that no matter how dire your life is, you cannot be received here. ...The government is going to have to take the land. The church is not going to give it them." Support the Diocese of Brownsville and the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA) by going to <https://www.votervoices.net/USCCB/campaigns/72155/respond>.

5 Habits To Continue Once Quarantine Ends

Many of us have adopted several Earth-friendly habits that, if we can keep them, could make a difference in the long run. #2: Keep making grocery lists: In our previous pre-pandemic world, between 30-40 percent of the food in the country went into the trash. But in recent weeks, we have all had a crash course in how not to waste food. Eating everything we buy avoids unnecessary carbon emissions, preserves natural resources and saves us money! More next week...

Due to coronavirus concerns, this year's Loop the 'Lupe Obstacle Course 5K will be postponed to Sunday, August 23rd, 2020, starting at 1:00 p.m. We're adjusting the schedule based on advice from the Governor's Office and the City of Seattle Parks and Recreation Department. Barring any major setbacks, large gatherings of 50+ people will be allowed in our state by the first of August, so we're planning on a fun, end-of-summer event with appropriate physical distancing. Money raised from Loop the 'Lupe supports a wide range of social service work at OLG, and Kevin and give us a visual sense of our community at prayer. Please email your photo to Helen at heleno@olgseattle.org. Let us fill up our church with our faces!!

From The Pastoral Center

This is an exciting time of year when all parishes are working together to accomplish what cannot be done alone! Every gift, no matter the amount, is gratefully appreciated and vital if we are to make our goal of $82, 212. The important thing is that your household participate in some way in this year's Appeal.

If you have already made your gift to the Appeal, thank you! If not, please return your pledge envelope today or donate online at www.seattlearchdiocese.org/donate. Please note you are an OLG parishioner when pledging or giving.

Can your gift be doubled? Many companies MATCH gifts to the Annual Catholic Appeal! Check if your employer has a Matching Gift program and help our parish maximize the Annual Catholic Appeal Rebate! Once your payment has been received OR pledge has been paid in full, you can apply for the match per your employer's instructions. (tax ID# 91-0778147)

A special thank you to Helen Oesterle and Katari Rinallo who provided a personal witness as to how your gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal Campaign supports over 60 ministries and services in the Archdiocese as well as our own ministry here at Our Lady of Guadalupe.
