Let no soul fear to draw near to me, even though its sins be as scarlet." (From the diary of St. Faustina)

To avail oneself of this promise, Our Lord asks:

She is excited to continue helping grow this vital ministry for the next generation of Catholics! GROWING IN GRACE

May the Most Blessed Sacrament be forever praised and adored.

At the moment of Consecration at the Mass the bread and wine on the altar become the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ. The bread and wine no longer exist, though the appearances and properties, or accidents, of bread and wine exist. This change of substance is known as transubstantiation. Our Lord is present as long as the appearances of bread and wine remain. When the consecrated host is digested or dissolved in water and no longer has the appearance of bread, it is no longer Jesus. Our Lord is sacramentally present in the person receiving Communion for about fifteen minutes. We should adore Him within ourselves as long as He is sacramentally present. Each time we receive Holy Communion there is an increase of sanctifying grace in our soul and aid to overcome sin and temptation.

- What is your disposition and demeanor before and after Communion?
- Do you take time to focus and meditate on His Divine Presence within you?
- Do you say a prayer of thanksgiving and gratitude at the end of Mass or quickly move on to activities?
- Do you go to Mass and receive Him as though this is the last time for Our Lord to come into your heart?

Growing in Grace Online

Our Growing in Grace feature appears monthly in the parish bulletin. Subscribe to receive Growing in Grace articles via email or read online at stphilipcc.org/growing-in-grace or scan the QR code.

QUOTES

We can learn much about the Eucharist and draw inspiration from the words of the saints and heroes of the faith:

"The happiness you are seeking, the happiness you have a right to enjoy has a name and a face. It is Jesus of Nazareth, hidden in the Eucharist." – Pope Benedict XVI

"The Eucharist is the sacrament of love: it signifies love, it produces love. The Eucharist is the consummation of the whole spiritual life." – St. Thomas Aquinas

"Give me the faith to understand that the Eucharist makes everything possible." – Mother Angelica

"When you approach the tabernacle remember that He has been waiting for you for twenty centuries." – St. Josemaría Escrivá

"Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us." – St. Alphonsus Liguori

"In this world I cannot see the Most High Son of God with my own eyes, except for His Most Holy Body and Blood." – St. Francis of Assisi

"When you look at the Sacred Host you understand how much Jesus loves you now." – St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta

"The courage and strength that are in me are not of me, but of Him who lives in me – it is the Eucharist." – St. Faustina Kowalska

RESOURCES

Receive the Sacrament of Anointing

Is Anointing of the Sick only for the dying?

No: The sacrament of Anointing is for anyone suffering from a grave illness, experiencing frailty due to old age, or about to undergo surgery. If you are facing any of these conditions, don't be afraid to receive Anointing of the Sick. You can also receive the sacrament of Anointing more than once.

Opportunities for this Sacrament

St. Philip's offers Anointing of the Sick during the 9 AM Mass on the first Friday of every month, and also at any Mass, on request. If your illness prevents you from coming to the church, call the Parish Office at 972-436-9581 to request a visit from one of the priests.
