Happy Feast of St. Philip the Apostle!

May 3 is our parish patronal feast; this year, the Fifth Sunday of Easter takes its place liturgically, but we still celebrate and honor St. Philip!

*Look down from heaven, holy patron St. Philip from the loftiness of that mountain to the lowliness of this earthly valley;
from that harbor of quietness and tranquility
to this calamitous sea.*

*And now that the darkness of this world
hinders no more your benignant eyes
from clearly seeing all things,
look upon us, O gracious Apostle,
and undertake the cause of our salvation.
Protect us from all evils of mind, soul, and body,
And from your place on high,
Steer the course of our lives,
So that with you as our guide and defender
we may come safely to the haven of eternal bliss.
Amen.*

Help us keep St. Philip's beautiful!

Landscaping volunteers needed! If you enjoy outdoor work or can operate lawn equipment, please consider joining the St. Philip Grounds Crew to maintain our lovely parish campus. Contact Dan Jacobs at djacobs@stphilipcc.org to learn more

A Weekend of Discernment
June 12–14 Holy Trinity Seminary, Irving

Discernment is not a journey you need to make alone. The 35th annual VAP Weekend is an opportunity to join others in seeking answers to questions about a religious vocation. There are no fees. Private rooms and meals are furnished. The weekend includes presentations, panel discussions, one-on-one dialogue, prayer with the religious staff, and time for reflection. No one will pressure you or seek a commitment. Learn more and apply on the web, or contact the Vocations Office. Application deadline — May 26.
