Meet the 2021 St. Joseph Confirmands

Charlee Ann Lundquist is the daughter of Amanda Lundquist and the late Todd Lundquist. She is the granddaughter of Wade and Vicki Entze. She has two younger sisters, Kayden and Baylee. Charlee was baptized in 2005 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Richardton but has been attending St. Joseph since making her First Holy Communion in 2013. She is a Sophomore at Beulah High School where she is a member of the girls' volleyball team. Outside of school Charlee is involved in high school rodeo where she has competed in barrel racing and pole bending with plans to include break away roping and goat tying this year. Confirmation has helped Charlee learn more about Christ and His life, and how that relates to her life. She asks for prayers that she can grow closer to God, as well as in her church life and that she always has a strong faith in the Lord.

Mariah Lyn Schmidt is the daughter of Mike and Jessica Schmidt. She has one younger brother, Shane. On January 8, 2005 she became a baptized member of St. Joseph and has been an active parishioner for 16 years. Mariah attended Steubenville in the summer of 2019 and plans to attend the University of Mary Cor Christi camp this summer. She is involved in student council and the Leo's Club in high school. Away from school Mariah enjoys hunting, basketball, going to the lake and hanging out with her friends. Confirmation has helped Mariah realize how amazing it is that she and her fellow confirmands will be receiving the Holy Spirit and what the grace through the sacrament really means. She asks for prayers that she grows closer to Jesus and is always willing to spread the light of the Lord.
