To aid Catholics in celebrating the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy which ends November 20, 2016, the Episcopal Commission for Doctrine of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops has prepared:

Like the merciful father in the parable of the prodigal son, God is eager to forgive, adds Pope Francis: "Each time we go to confession, God embraces us. God rejoices!" (General Audience Feb. 2014).

"God never ever tires of forgiving us! "Well, Father what is the problem?". Well, the problem is that we ourselves tire, we do not want to ask, we grow weary of asking for forgiveness. He never tires of forgiving, but at times we get tired of asking for forgiveness."

Finding God's Forgiveness through the Church

The Holy Father stresses that forgiveness of our sins is not something that we can give ourselves. In confession, we ask forgiveness from Jesus. "Forgiveness is not the fruit of our own efforts but rather a gift, it is a gift of the Holy Spirit who fills us with the wellspring of mercy and of grace that flows unceasingly from the open heart of the Crucified and Risen Christ."

However, it is not enough to simply ask the Lord for forgiveness in one's own mind and heart because Jesus himself entrusted to the Church the ministry of the forgiveness of sins. "It is necessary humbly and trustingly to confess one's sins to a minister of the Church. In the celebration of this Sacrament, the priest represents not only God but also the whole community," points out Pope Francis.
