Mass Intention All masses must be in (2) two weeks prior to date being said.

At the entrances of the Church there are bilingual (Italian / English) envelopes where you can place all the information pertaining to having a Mass said. It can be placed in the collection basket or in the mail slot of the office door. If there are any complications leave a phone number where the secretary can get in touch with you. Also there will no longer be any de-layed payment of the Mass Stipend as there is a place in the envelope to place the stipend. A mass card will be available by the envelopes for anyone who might require it. Some parishioners may require the help of other parishioners to fill out the information. You can also register for masses by going to our website veronica.church and following the tabs to do so

Ministry to Shut-ins

This summer we have created a new ministry of outreach to seniors who have been members of our parish for many years. Over the years many people have disappeared from their normally regular church attendance, without informing the parish as to why. Some are now confined to their homes, some have moved to senior citizens residences, or full care facilities, and some have passed away.

We are now in the process of trying to identify people who are either confined to their homes or are in senior's complexes and would like to remain in contact with the parish.

If you know of anyone in this situation, please contact the parish: by phone (705) 253-9411; or email veronicassm@shaw.ca.

Please include your name and number and the name of the senior person whom you would like us to contact.

We plan to send bilingual letters to these parishioners asking if they require or would like us to minister to them.

ST. JOSEMARIA ESCRIVA'S 17 Signs of a Lack of Humility

1. Thinking that what you do or say is better than what others do or say;
2. Always wanting to get your own way;
3. Arguing when you are not right or — when you are — insisting stubbornly or with bad manners;
4. Giving your opinion without being asked for it, when charity does not demand you to do so;
5. Despising the point of view of others;
6. Not being aware that all the gifts and qualities you have are on loan;
7. Not acknowledging that you are unworthy of all honor or esteem, even the ground you are treading on or the things you own;
8. Mentioning yourself as an example in conversation;
9. Speaking badly about yourself, so that they may form a good opinion of you, or contradict you;
10. Making excuses when rebuked;
11. Hiding some humiliating faults from your director, so that he may not lose the good opinion he has of you;
12. Hearing praise with satisfaction, or being glad that others have spoken well of you;
13. Being hurt that others are held in greater esteem than you;
14. Refusing to carry out menial tasks;
15. Seeking or wanting to be singled out;
16. Letting drop words of self-praise in conversation, or words that might show your honesty, your wit or skill, your professional prestige...;
17. Being ashamed of not having certain possessions.
