STEWARDSHIP AWARENESS

"And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth all the burnt offerings and sacrifices" Mark 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it is more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

Saint Martin de Porres– Tuesday, Nov 3

St Martin de Porres ( 1579-1639) was a Peruvian lay brother of the Dominican order who was beatified in 1837 by Pope Gregory XVI and canonized in 1962 by Pope John XXIII. He is the patron saint of mixed-race people, barbers, innkeepers, public health workers and all those seeking racial harmony.

St Charles Borromeo– Thursday Nov 4

St Charles Borromeo ( 1538– 1584) was Archbishop of Milan from 1564 to 1584 and a cardinal of the Church. He was a leading figure of the Counter-Reformation combat against Protestant Reformation together with Ignatius of Loyola and Philip Neri.

THE POWER OF THE SEED

Natural scientists and botanists fall back in amazement at all the things contained within one tiny seed that science is ever increasingly bringing to light. If all the information contained in one seed had to be put down in writing, you would end up with something like an encyclopedia. Everything in it is programmed in the minutest particular. A natural computer comes to mind, containing an incalculable mass of data in its memory bank: when and how to flower, what fruit to produce of what color and flavor, of what dimensions, how to react to this or that external agent, how to adapt to a change of climate. Sometimes all these pieces of information remain active for centuries, if it is true (as is said) that grains of wheat still alive and able to germinate have been found in the ancient pyramids of Egypt.

The revealed message is also a seed. Jesus himself compares it to the smallest of all seeds (Mt.13:32) and compares himself to a grain of wheat sown in the ground (Jn 12:24). Like the seed, the message hides unsuspected resources within itself, which after two thousand years we are far from having finished exploring. In the New Testament kerygma (proclamation) about Jesus Christ there are in-built pieces of information which allow it to burst into flower at any stage of history, to acclimatize itself in every culture, without ever belying itself or changing its nature.

Cardinal Raniero Cantalamessa, O.F.M. CAP.

Cardinal Cantalamessa is a Capuchin Franciscan priest and the preacher to the papal household.

COMMANDMENTS

“Teacher, what must I do . . . ?”

2052 “Teacher, what good deed must I do, to have eternal life?” To the young man who asked this question, Jesus answers first by invoking the necessity to recognize God as the “One there is who is good,” as the supreme Good and the source of all good. Then Jesus tells him: “If you would enter life, keep the commandments.” And he cites for his questioner the precepts that concern love of neighbor: “You shall not kill, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother.” Finally Jesus sums up these commandments positively: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

2053 To this first reply Jesus adds a second: “If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.” This reply does not do away with the first: following Jesus Christ involves keeping the Commandments. The Law has not been abolished, but rather man is invited to rediscover it in the person of his Master who is its perfect fulfillment. In the three synoptic Gospels, Jesus’ call to the rich young man to follow him, in the obedience of a disciple and in the observance of the Commandments, is joined to the call to poverty and chastity. The evangelical counsels are inseparable from the Commandments

2054 Jesus acknowledged the Ten Commandments, but he also showed the power of the Spirit at work in their letter. He preached a “righteousness which exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees” as well as that of the Gentiles. He unfolded all the demands of the Commandments. “You have heard that it was said to the men of old, ‘You shall not kill.’ . . . But I say to you that every one who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment.”
