Saint Julie Billiart
Catholic Church

My Dear Sisters and Brothers:

For more than a decade, I have had the joy of pastoring this wonderful parish community of Saint Julie Billiart! These years have been among the happiest and most fulfilling since being ordained to the Priesthood in 1982! Whatever I may have brought to you has been returned to me so many times over by your deep faith, unconditional love and giving of self without counting the cost. In addition to all of you, I was also blessed with a terrific staff upon arriving here who have grown to be not co-workers but family! How can one man be so incredibly touched by God's love shining through human hearts!

This is the last time I'll be addressing you as pastor! As I let you know in springtime, because of chronic health issues, Archbishop Gomez is allowing me not only to retire but to remain here with you. I can't be happier that Father Ian Hagan is following me in parish leadership and look forward to supporting him in whatever way I can! I know you too will offer to him complete and dedicated support! Though we have all endured these months of change and challenge, I always believe with God's grace, the best is still ahead!

To say "Thank You" feels somewhat trite in that I have so much for which to be grateful—but my sincere and heartfelt gratitude is extended to each and every one of you! I look forward to continuing the Camino with you and seeing what God still has in store for all of us!

*Much love,
Father Paul*

Welcome to SAINT JULIE BILLIART Catholic Church

St. Julie Billiart Catholic Church is a parish that serves Newbury Park and surrounding communities in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. We are located in the heart of the Conejo Valley in the beautiful community of Newbury Park, CA.

We are a loving community of more than 1,800 families who gather together each week to worship together in prayer and thanksgiving. Our mission is to enrich a faith community that grows spiritually through worship, lifelong education, fellowship and service.

Whether you are just here for a visit, looking for a new parish home, are returning to the Catholic Faith or are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church, we are happy to have you here and welcome you! Please do not hesitate to call the Church Office with questions about our Parish Community. We are happy to answer them.

*Sincerely,
Father Paul*

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me..
Matthew 16:24

Reading 1

Jer 20:7–9

You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped;
you were too strong for me, and you triumphed.
All the day I am an object of laughter;
everyone mocks me.

Whenever I speak, I must cry out,
violence and outrage is my message;
the word of the LORD has brought me
derision and reproach all the day.

I say to myself, I will not mention him,
I will speak in his name no more.
But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart,
imprisoned in my bones;
I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.

Responsorial Psalm

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Reading 2

Rom 12:1–2

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.

Gospel

Mt 16:21–27

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised. Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you." He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct."

“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me..
Matthew 16:24

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are invited to reflect on the path of discipleship offered by Jesus in our readings today. Jesus, now seen by the disciples as Messiah and Christ, begins to describe most fully what this means: he will not march into Jerusalem filled with God’s power like a conquering general. His path is like that of Jeremiah; he will be rejected and mocked. His path is like that described by Paul, offering his body as a living sacrifice. Jesus summons his followers down the same path of death and resurrection, to live the radical paradox that “whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” Loving and trusting God will entail self-surrender, leading us to joy in service to others. We will learn to let go of what we desire and what we think we need, trusting God to provide what we truly need.

THE TEMPTER

It seems that Jesus is pretty hard on Peter in today’s Gospel, when he calls him “Satan” for questioning Jesus’ prediction of his passion. The scene echoes Matthew’s story of the temptations of Jesus (4:1–11) when Jesus encounters Satan, also called the “tempter.” Satan had sought to draw Jesus into thinking about his own needs instead of attending to God’s purposes. Peter was an unwitting tempter, anxiously reacting out of his own fears and misunderstanding.

This story speaks about Jesus’ identity and vocation, and also about our own. As God’s beloved, sent out to witness to the gospel, we are offered a foundation and a purpose to our lives. There is much in life that tempts us, stirs up false fears, or draws us to the attractive but superficial. Jesus provides us a way forward. He named the temptations that he faced, so they had no power over him. As he followed his path, he placed his full trust in his Father.

GOD OF DIALOGUE

Our reading from Jeremiah contains some of the harshest language you will find in the Bible toward God. In despair and fury, Jeremiah accuses God of deceiving and abusing him. He pours out his rage at God for ruining his life. He wants to quit God, but finds it impossible. In later verses, he alternates between giving thanks to God and wishing he had never been born. Remarkably, after all this, Jeremiah resumes his prophetic ministry.

As with Abraham (Genesis 18), Moses (Exodus 32), Job, and various psalms, Jeremiah pushes back against God. God receives and blesses their prayer, and their relationship is stronger for it. Our God is a God of dialogue, who encourages us to speak our mind and heart in full honesty. Our Trinitarian God is in eternal conversation within God’s self, and with all of creation. God invites honest dialogue, always grounded in love, within God’s Church, and between the Church and the world.

Question of the Week

AUG 30 • 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Come, Follow Me

Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me." (Matthew 16:24)

- Jeremiah 20:7-9 - Jeremiah's interior crisis
- Romans 12:1-2 - Sacrifice of body and mind
- Matthew 16:21-27 - First prophecy of passion and resurrection; doctrine of the cross

Adults: In what concrete ways do you take up your cross and follow Jesus?

Kids: When has it been difficult to be a follower of Jesus?

Next Week's Readings

- Jeremiah 20:7-9 - Jeremiah's interior crisis
- Romans 12:1-2 - Sacrifice of body and mind
- Matthew 16:21-27 - First prophecy of passion and resurrection; doctrine of the cross

PRAYING FOR VOCATIONS

Chalice & Stole Prayer Program

The purpose of the Chalice & Stole Program is to encourage families to pray and promote vocations to the Priesthood.

PRAYING FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

Praying for vocations is the most powerful way to support vocations. A vocation is a call from the Holy Spirit, a gift from God that is nurtured in prayer. When we pray for vocations, we lift up to our Father those men and women whom He is calling to follow Him in a very special way. We hope that those who bring the cup home will continue to pray daily for vocations.

HOW THE PROGRAM WORKS

Each week at the 9:00 am Sunday Mass a family will take the Chalice and Stole home for the week. They will receive a book with daily prayers for Priestly Vocations.

Each day, during prayer time (morning, bedtime or at meals), the family/household prays for an increase and perseverance of vocations.

At the end of the week they will return it at the 9:00 am Mass for the next family/household.

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF AUGUST 23, 2020

Sunday: Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Tuesday: World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation

Thursday: St. Gregory the Great

Friday: First Friday

Saturday: First Saturday; Blessed Virgin Mary

SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT (540-604) - September 3
Imagine, fourteen hundred years after death, boasting a best-selling CD! Yet outside the Church and within, Gregorian chant is enjoying a renaissance. Still, the timeless sacred music that bears his name is but part of Gregory's legacy. Renouncing civic service for monastic life, Gregory's administrative and diplomatic skills prompted continual summons from the cloister. Papal ambassador and advisor, he was eventually elected pope himself, renowned as a wise steward of the church's material possessions, generous benefactor of the poor, sponsor of missionaries, and promoter of monasticism. His liturgical enrichment of the Church endures not only in Gregorian chant, but in eloquent homilies still gracing the Liturgy of the Hours, the "Gregorian Canon" (Eucharistic Prayer I), and his spiritual classic, Pastoral Care, once presented to new bishops at ordination. Of countless impressive papal titles—Supreme Pontiff, Vicar of Christ, Successor of Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles—the title still so cherished that it heads official documents is the one Gregory coined to describe his papal ideal: Servant of the Servants of God. Together with being designated "the Great," a fitting epitaph.

ST. JULIE'S OUTREACH

Back To School Preparations:

In August, families are usually preparing to start a new school year, with all the excitement and anxiety that brings. But this year, in the midst of the coronavirus pandemic, no one knows what lies ahead for school children. Talk to your children about how they're feeling and what they're worried about. Many people, including young children, are struggling with anxiety and depression during this pandemic, so be sure to check in frequently, and provide a safe space where children can talk about their concerns.

The ladies of the Prayer Shawl Ministry are spending time during the stay at home orders making prayer shawls and blankets for those in need.

If you or anyone you know is in need of a shawl or blanket for comfort during this time, illness, loss of a loved one, pregnancy, birth, engagement or wedding please feel free to email or call Karen Seemann at cwseemann@yahoo.com or 805-499-9842.

Shawls and blankets can be mailed or delivered.

During these challenging times, our food pantry is striving to serve several populations - our families in need and also seniors or individuals who require our assistance.

We sometimes ask for large/family sizes of items (e.g. cereal, jelly, oatmeal) but we frequently ask for smaller sizes (e.g.cereal,syrup) to serve those with limited storage space.

We greatly appreciate the ongoing generosity of our parishioners as we can't do our work without you!

Most needed items: Cereal (family and regular size), coffee (regular, decaf, instant), tea, diapers (sizes 2 and 5), canned chicken (10 oz., 5 oz.), tomato sauce (15 oz.)

Much needed: Syrup (large and small), jelly (large and small), masa (2 lb.), ketchup, cooking oil, Tapatio, canola spray, rice (2 lb.)

You can leave your contribution at the Parish door or if someone is there, just knock and we will take in your food items.

CATHOLIC CORNER

WHATEVER YOU DO

Every year the United States sets aside the first Monday in September to honor the good work people do. It is a reminder that all honest workers add something important to their community.

As Christians, we too have important work to do. Matthew's Gospel (25:34-45) names some things we should be doing if we want to be followers of Jesus. These actions are called the corporal works of mercy. "Corporal" comes from the Latin corpus, which means body. The people who do this work try to meet the bodily needs of our brothers and sisters.

Look at this list on the next page.

Think of people who perform these works of mercy because it is part of their regular job, for example, nurses and doctors or people who work in food pantries or homeless shelters.

Think of other workers, like bakers or plumbers, who also take time to do these good works.

Next to each corporal work of mercy, write the names of people you know who do this work every day or at times throughout the year. Be sure to include the names of people in your family.

Don't forget your own name.

Then if you like, color the images of the Corporal Works of Mercy.

On Labor Day, remember to say a prayer for all these workers and for the people they serve.

The Corporal Works of Mercy

PRAY FOR WORKERS AND FOR THE PEOPLE THEY SERVE

*Lord God, Master of the Vineyard,
How wonderful that you have invited us
who labor by the sweat of our brow
to be workers in the vineyard and assist your work
to shape the world around us.
As we seek to respond to this call,
make us attentive to those who seek work but cannot find it. Help us listen to the struggles of those who work hard to provide for their families
but still have trouble making ends meet.
Open our eyes to the struggles of those exploited
and help us speak for just wages and safe conditions,
the freedom to organize, and time for renewal.
For work was made for humankind
and not humankind for work.
Let it not be a vehicle for exploitation
but a radiant expression of our human dignity.
Give all who labor listening hearts
that we may pause from our work to receive your gift of rest. Fill us with your Holy Spirit that you might work through us to let your justice reign.
Amen.*
