WE ARE CALLED

to mission of Jesus, to know, love, serve and share the Gospel.

MAKING WAY FOR GOD

As Christ reclined at the Passover meal and his impending betrayal, I have to imagine at least one of the disciples thought to himself, incredulously and perhaps even indignantly: And you're not going to do anything about it?

So often we expect God to behave like the frantic parent of a teenager, banging down the closed door of a bedroom filled with loud music. We expect him to be overbearing, snooping in our diary and waiting to ground us the minute we break curfew, desperate to keep us within the family fold, ready and willing to use judgment and force to do so.

It's true that God greatly desires us to stay in friendship with him. But to accomplish it, he does not come to us as a meddler or an overlord. He comes in the same way he does on Palm Sunday. He waits for us to make way.

He may not be overbearing, but he is still devoted, and unfailingly patient. As the Palm Sundays of our lives — the moments of our devotion and piety — give way to the Holy Thursdays, when we inevitably deny him, God does not abandon us. The sacrifice on the cross is still there, waiting for us to accept it.

Say to daughter Zion, "Behold, your king comes to you, meek and riding on an ass, and on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden." — Matthew 21:5

~ LPI C. Dorman

FR. IAN'S HOMEWORK

GO DEEPER WITH THE SUNDAY READINGS

The centurion and the men with him who were keeping watch over Jesus feared greatly when they saw the earthquake and all that was happening, and they said, Truly, this was the Son of God!" (Mt 26:54)

Live The Liturgy

As we enter Holy Week, let us ask ourselves: Are we welcoming Jesus into our hearts? Do we feel ready to surrender our lives to him during this special time of year and welcome him into all areas of our lives as our Lord and Savior?

LENTEN CHALLENGES TO CONSIDER

Prayer: Try to spend Holy Week in greater reflection and quiet. Participate in the Easter Triduum services:

Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil.

Fasting: Think about Jesus' Passion, seeing his love expressed.

Ask yourself, "What have I done for Christ? What am I doing for Christ? What will I do for Christ?"

Almsgiving: Consider how you might improve the conditions of your home, work, social life and country. What can you do to bring people together into unity and peace? (See Ephesians 1:9-10.)

LOVE

To love is learning to follow Christ with others.

YOU ARE INVITED

Come and learn about Divine Mercy with Deacon Barry

Our faith makes us aware of the infinite mercy of God. Divine Mercy Sunday, April 16, 2023, is a day to particularly focus on the truth of God's Mercy.

Deacon Barry Harper will be speaking about the message and devotion to the Divine Mercy.

This devotion comes to us from the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who, at the direction of her spiritual director, wrote a diary of the revelations she received about God's mercy.

Please join us in the church at 1:30 pm, on April 16th, to learn more about this devotion and the revelations given to St. Faustina.

The presentation will be followed by Adoration from 3 – 4 pm. Fellowship and refreshments will be held in the parish center after adoration.

More information on Divine Mercy can be found at <https://www.thedivinemercy.org/message>

Novena to The Divine Mercy: Begins April 7, 2023 on Good Friday

"I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw therefrom strength and refreshment and whatever grace they need in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death." (Diary, 1209)

"Today bring to Me..."

- First Day: all mankind, especially all sinners
- Second Day: the souls of priests and religious
- Third Day: all devout and faithful souls
- Fourth Day: those who do not believe in God and those who do not yet know Me
- Fifth Day: the souls of those who have separated themselves from My church
- Sixth Day: the meek and humble souls and the souls of little children
- Seventh Day: the souls who especially venerate and glorify My mercy

- Eighth Day: the souls who are detained in
- Ninth Day: souls who have become lukewarm

...and immerse them in the abyss of My mercy."

Most Merciful Jesus, from the treasury of Your mercy, You impart Your graces in great abundance to each and all. Receive us into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart and never let us escape from It. We beg this grace of You by that most wondrous love for the heavenly Father with which Your Heart burns so fiercely.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon faithful souls, as upon the inheritance of Your Son. For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, grant them Your blessing and surround them with Your constant protection. Thus may they never fail in love or lose the treasure of the holy faith, but rather, with all the hosts of Angels and Saints, may they glorify Your boundless mercy for endless ages. Amen.
