WE ARE CALLED

to mission of Jesus, to know, love, serve and share the Gospel.

Isn't it a bit weird that Catholics call the Pope "papa," father? This Sunday provides us with essential Scriptural background on the papacy, the petrine office. Jesus gives Peter the "keys to the kingdom of heaven," after witnessing to the special grace Peter has to know Jesus' true identity. Many have pointed out that the "keys" refer back to the figure of Eliakim, King David's prime minister. True enough. But notice this is not mere authority or power. It's a family relationship. The Lord says to Eliakim, "He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem" (Isaiah 22:21). David's prime minister was a spiritual father to the family of Israel. Peter, and his successors, will be spiritual fathers in the family of the Church.

This means we have a serious obligation to not only recognize the Pope's authority, but also to love him with the affection of children for their papa. We should never speak about him with disrespect or rancor. We should listen to him with trusting hearts, and ignore the slander thrown at him in various media. When we show the world we are loving and obedient to our Holy Papa, perhaps they'll see more clearly that the Church is indeed God's beloved family.

— Father John Muir

Dear Beloved Children and Youth,

As a new school year unfolds, we extend our heartfelt wishes to each one of you. It is a time of new beginnings, new friends, and new experiences. Embrace them all with open arms and an eager heart.

Remember that you carry with you not just the knowledge from your books but also the values and lessons you have learned through your journey with the parish community. As you begin this academic year, know that God walks beside you, guiding and guarding your steps.

May you be blessed with curiosity to learn, resilience to overcome challenges, and the wisdom to always choose the right path. May your classrooms be filled with joy, laughter, and moments of profound discovery.

Continue shining your light, reflecting the love and teachings of Jesus Christ. We are proud of each one of you and keep you in our prayers, hoping that this school year brings growth, happiness, and countless blessings.

Stay safe, stay strong, and let your faith be your guiding star.

With warmest wishes and prayers,

Fr. Ian, Parish Staff, and the Religious Education Team.

We cannot wait to see you all this fall in Religious Ed and Youth Ministries!

LOVE

To love is learning to follow Christ with others.

LIVING THE FAITH THROUGH STEWARDSHIP

Friends, living the faith through stewardship goes beyond mere involvement in activities.

It's about a lifelong dedication to discipleship in all we do. It's not just about giving our time or resources; it's about fostering an attitude of gratitude and generosity. When we cultivate these virtues within our parish community, it prepares us to face challenges beyond those familiar walls.

Our interactions with the world should reflect our commitment to this path. Together let us remember genuine stewardship doesn't happen by accident; it's a conscious choice we make every day.

What will be your choice?

Hope to see you at the Ministry Fair!
