WE ARE CALLED

to mission of Jesus, to know, love, serve and share the Gospel.

EMBRACING STEWARSHIP

"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's. - Matthew 22:21"

In the radiant light of faith and gratitude, let us embrace the beautiful concept of stewardship. Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We are not mere owners of our blessings; rather, we are entrusted stewards of the abundant gifts that God has graciously bestowed upon each of us. God calls us to prioritize Him above all else, to place Him at the forefront of our lives. In this, we find our true purpose and fulfillment. When God is our first priority, everything else falls beautifully into place. Our relationships, our work, and yes, even our money, find their proper order and significance.

So, as we journey together in faith, let us embrace the spirit of stewardship. Let us joyfully give back to the One who has given us everything. Together, as faithful stewards, we will cultivate a garden of love, generosity, and abundance that will bear fruit for generations to come. With unwavering faith and hearts full of gratitude, let us rise to this call of stewardship. We are St. Julie's parish, and with God as our first priority, there is no limit to the blessings we can share with the world.

radical solidarity

to be courageously pro-woman, promoting a choice that truly protects,
accompanies, and supports
women and their children

To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of the human person impel us to bring the Gospel of Life to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society.

Excerpt:

The Gospel of Life: A Brief Summary
The prophetic papal encyclical Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life) was written by Pope St. John Paul II in 1995 to reaffirm the value and inviolability of every human life and to appeal to all people to respect, protect, love, and serve every human life.

DROPPED HOST

Question: What happens to a consecrated host if it accidentally falls to the ground?

Answer: This a very practical question because, as we all know, accidents happen, even during the most careful celebration of the liturgy. The short answer to this question is that nothing happens to the consecrated host. The Real Presence of Jesus remains in the consecrated host or any consecrated wine that might accidentally be spilled.

Another question we might ask is: How should the ministers respond if the Eucharist is dropped or spilled? If this happens, the priest, deacon, or extraordinary minister of holy Communion should immediately pick up the dropped host and consume it. If it is a case of the Precious Blood being spilled, the minister would use the purificator (and additional purificators if needed) to clean the spill and then the area should be reverently washed as soon as the Mass is over and the water poured into the sacrarium (a special sink that is located in church sacristies for reverently disposing of holy water, the water used to clean sacred vessels, etc.).

DID YOU KNOW?

It is good practice for parents to have ongoing conversations with their children about family values, safety, and "what if" scenarios. Talking with your children before something happens gives them the tools and confidence to make safe, good decisions, and to react appropriately in a variety of situations. Even if these conversations feel huge or overwhelming, they are critical to have. Start small — perhaps in the car on the way to school or a game — and build on previous conversations to give your child a full picture of what to do and how to handle tricky situations.
