SEMINARIAN SCOOP

Last month I had the privileged opportunity to go to the SEEK conference sponsored by the FOCUS missionaries in St Louis, Missouri. My brother seminarians and I enjoyed not only the conference itself but sightseeing as well! At the conference, Mass was celebrated daily and we were able to vest with over 400 Seminarians from across the country and were able to socialize with them too! We saw many familiar faces like the Poor of Jesus Christ Sisters, along with some new faces like meeting and getting to talk to Fr Mike Schmitz! Being able to interact with young adults who are my age and in college made me see the hope for the young people of the future, as this was something quite rare for me. We had our own Seminarian conferences which focused on our own personal struggles as Seminarians and provided useful tools for us to use for the future! I have made so many new friends and so many fun memories that I will never forget. It kinda feels like we are on tour because we are gearing up next week to go to Religious Education Congress to promote vocations for the Los Angeles Archdiocese!! See you guys in March!!
