TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Today's Gospel reading begins with Jesus explaining that he is about to suffer and die. Peter responds much as any of us would in that situation and tells Jesus not even to think that this would happen to him. Peter was probably surprised when Jesus reacted angrily. Why did Jesus object so strongly to Peter's words? What was wrong with Peter's response? These are the questions we should answer before we can begin to understand today's Gospel reading.

In last week's Gospel, Peter was the first to recognize that Jesus was the Messiah. Jesus praised him for this insight and said Peter was the rock on which he would build his church. Now, suddenly, Peter goes from hero to goat. The reason for Peter's quick fall probably lies in what he meant when he call Jesus the Messiah.

Being a traditional Jew, Peter probably thought much like many of the other Jews of his day who were expecting a military and political Messiah who would lead them in battle against their enemies and eventually conquer the world. Peter thought it was only a matter of time before Jesus began forming an army to achieve this objective.

Jesus' talk about suffering and dying didn't fit in with the popular beliefs about a triumphant Messiah. So Peter took Jesus aside and try to straighten him out by saying something like, "Teacher, you've got it all wrong. You're the Messiah and the Messiah is a winner. What you're describing is a loser. So, stop talking about such nonsense."

It's obvious that Peter and Jesus had different ideas of what the Messiah was supposed to be. Jesus was the type of Messiah who would not look for success on the battlefield but rather would be triumphant in another way. Instead of defeating human enemies, Jesus was going to conquer both death and the father of death (the devil). This spiritual victory will be more important than any earthly triumph Peter or any of the other Jews could imagine.

Even though the apostles were with Jesus every day and knew him better than anyone else, they still took time to grasp what he was saying. Their privileged position was not enough to guarantee immediate understanding of who Jesus was and what he was all about.

How do you think Peter felt after the incident in today's Gospel reading? If you were Peter, would you have continue to follow Jesus?

We are indeed living in difficult times. I am writing this bulletin article on Monday, and the news on the national headlines focused on the effects of Hurricane Harvey and the subsequent flooding throughout Houston and the surrounding area. The heartbreaking images that have been portrayed on TV throughout last weekend have riveted the nation, and hopefully will move us to respond with compassion. It is also a reminder of how blessed we are to live in the Bay Area.

On the other hand, we experienced civil unrest, particularly in Berkeley. The heightened tensions, aggravated by the words and actions of the current administration, continued to antagonize and alienate various cultural, ethnic and religious minorities, as well as most well-meaning Americans and people of good will. I'm sure that this will continue to be an ongoing narrative for us in the East Bay, let alone throughout the country.

Remember that next week's Second Collection will be for the Diocese of Oakland's Priest Retirement Fund. Fr. Vassar has spoken about this collection, and will continue to advocate for the fund. We will also be hearing from Deacon Dave Holland from Catholic Funeral and Cemetery Services, who will be sharing the benefits of utilizing the Diocese of Oakland's mortuary services.

Also next week Sunday morning, I will presiding at the Oakland A's Coliseum Mass at 9:30 AM, and the Mass at Mercy Retirement Center in the Fruitvale (where my mother resides) at 10:45 AM.

We mourn the loss of parishioner Emelda Wright, who passed away last week, and whose homegoing funeral Mass was held this past Friday. We hold her family in our thoughts and prayers. Emelda is the sister of another St. Benedict parishioner, Geraldine August. May Emelda rest in peace.

Crazy times, Hurricane Harvey in Houston, rioting in Berkeley, Priest Retirement Fund, next week A's and Mercy Mass.

Welcome Father Aris Martin. Aris Martin SVD is originally from Solsona, Philippines. He professed first vows in 2004 and was ordained a priest in 2008. Father Aris holds a licentiate in dogmatic theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome, Italy. In the Philippines, he taught courses in philosophy and theology at Christ the King Mission Seminary, Quezon City, Divine Word Seminary, Tagaytay City, and Ateneo de Manila University, Quezon City. Fr. Aris was on the faculty of the Department of Theology and Philosophy at Divine Word College in Epworth, Iowa, where he taught non-Christian religions and creation and eschatology.
