Migrants and Refugees

The cry of a father and his baby daughter who drowned crossing the Rio Grande reaches heaven itself. This unspeakable consequence of a failed immigration system, together with growing reports of inhumane conditions for children in the custody of the federal government at the border, shock the conscience and demand immediate action. Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, joins Bishop Joe S. Vásquez of Austin, Chairman of the USCCB Committee on Migration, in calling on the federal government to hear the cry of the poor and vulnerable.

Inmigrantes Y Refugiados

El llanto de un padre y su pequeña hija que se ahogaron cruzando el río Bravo alcanza el cielo mismo. Esta consecuencia indecible de un sistema de inmigración fallido, junto con los crecientes informes de condiciones inhumanas para los niños bajo la custodia del gobierno federal en la frontera, conmocionan la conciencia y exigen una acción inmediata. El cardenal Daniel N. DiNardo, presidente de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos, se une al obispo Joe S. Vásquez de Austin, presidente del Comité de Migración de la USCCB, para pedir al gobierno federal que escuche el grito de los pobres y vulnerables.

July 13, 2019

Dear friends in the Lord:

I was pleased to celebrate Mass at the convent of Mother Saint Frances Cabrini, the patroness of immigrants and refugees, at her Shrine in Washington Heights.

I was moved as I recalled her work among Italian immigrants in the United States in the 19th and early 20th century. This work inspires me today as the Church continues to welcome immigrants from so many different countries, particularly in these troublingly uncertain times.

It saddens me to admit that many, some even in the Church, opposed Mother Cabrini's work. It troubles me that today in too many places hate and malice are directed against immigrants and refugees – in both words and actions.

As a Pastor, I pray that understanding, respect, and love might grow in dealing with newcomers to our land. I am proud of the welcoming that our parishes, schools, charitable, and healthcare ministries have and do provide.

I particularly call your attention to the work of Catholic Charities that I myself have seen in action on many occasions. I am glad Catholic Charities is increasing services available for immigrants in this precarious time.

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York
