A Letter from St. Frances Xavier Cabrini Patron Saint of Immigrants 1850-1917

"I know that this is a time of much anxiety. But, away with anxiety; take courage! Place your trust in God and His Holy Mother..."

Prayer is that powerful weapon that must defend and help you, not only now, but throughout your lives. Pray for yourselves, for the persons entrusted to your care, for those dear to you, for society, for the Church. Make prayer a habit, because if you succeed in experiencing the sweetness found in this intimate conversation of the soul with God, there will never be hours of discouragement and despair, no will clouds long disturb the calm horizon of your soul. Obey Christ's precept: pray and always pray." (New Orleans, May 31, 1904)

From the Pastoral Letter to the People of God in El Paso by Mark Joseph Seitz, Bishop of El Paso October 13, 2019

"The burden of the history of injustice on the border is heavy. We must wrestle deeply with this legacy, lament over it passionately, confront our own biases candidly and repudiate racism completely. God offers us the chance to build a new history where racism does not prevail. The 'manifesto' of hate and exclusion that entered our community can be countered with a manifesto of radical love and inclusion. I want to see an El Paso that addresses both the legacy of racism and one which builds more just structures to eradicate and overcome that history. A new history of respect for human rights, inclusion and bridge building. The Reign of God is reflected in a community that brings together the best of all cultures, where the aspirations of all find a home and where the needs of the poor are put first. If we do this, we can make a vitally needed contribution to the nation from our border, here on the edges of empire, towards turning the page on injustice and hate and white supremacy definitively." (60)

"God gave the earth to the whole human race for the sustenance of all its members, without excluding or favoring anyone. We must work to ensure all our children have access to quality educational opportunities, eliminate inequality in the colonias, pass immigration reform, eradicate discrimination, guarantee universal access to health care, ensure the protection of all human life, end the scourge of gun violence, improve wages on both sides of the border, offer just and sustainable development opportunities, defend the environment and honor the dignity of every person. This is how we write a new chapter in our history of solidarity and friendship that future generations can remember with pride. This work of undoing racism and building a just society is holy, for it 'contributes to the building of the universal city of God, which is the goal of the history of the human family. It anticipates that day when 'night will be no more, nor will they need light from lamp or sun, for the Lord God shall give them light, and they shall reign forever and ever.' (61)

Carta de Santa Francisca Xavier Cabrini Patrona de los Immigrants 1850-1917

“Sé que este es un momento de mucha ansiedad. Pero, fuera con la ansiedad; Toma coraje! Pon tu confianza en Dios y en Su Santa Madre....

Esto me consuela porque la oración es esa poderosa arma que debe defender y ayudarte, no sólo ahora, sino a lo largo de tu vida. Es la llave de los tesoros celestiales, el canal por el cual descienden las gracias. En tiempo de éxito, ora y no estarás hinchado por el orgullo que a menudo precede a una caída. En tiempos de desánimo, ora, y la confianza que nos hace fuerte, con la fuerza de Dios volverá. Oren por ustedes mismos, por las personas confiadas en su cuidado, por sus seres queridos, por la sociedad, por la Iglesia. Haz de la oración un hábito, porque si logras experimentar la dulzura que se encuentra en esta íntima conversación del alma con Dios, nunca habrá horas de desánimo y desesperación, ni las nubes perturbarán por largo tiempo el tranquilo horizonte de tus almas. Obedezcan el precepto de Cristo: orar y orar siempre.” (New Orleans, Mayo 31, 1904)

De la Carta Pastoral para el Pueblo de Dios en El Paso

por Mark Joseph Seitz, Obispo de El Paso

Octubre 13, 2019

“La carga de la historia de la injusticia en la frontera es pesada. Debemos luchar profundamente con este legado, lamentarlo apasionadamente, enfrentar nuestros prejuicios con franqueza y repudiar completamente el racismo. Dios nos ofrece la oportunidad de construir una nueva historia donde el racismo no prevalezca. El manifiesto de odio y exclusión que ingresó a nuestra comunidad se puede contrarrestar con un manifiesto de amor radical. Quiero ver un El Paso que aborde tanto, el legado del racismo como uno que construya estructuras más justas para erradicar y superar esa historia. Una nueva historia de respeto por los derechos humanos, la inclusión y la construcción de puentes. El Reino de Dios se refleja en una comunidad que reúne lo mejor de todas las culturas, donde las aspiraciones de todos encuentren un hogar y donde las necesidades de los pobres se ponen primero. Si hacemos esto, podemos hacer una contribución vitalmente necesaria a la nación desde nuestra frontera, desde aquí al borde del imperio, y pasar definitivamente la página de la injusticia, el odio y la supremacía blanca.” (60)

«Dios ha dado la tierra a todo el género humano para que ella sustente a todos sus habitantes, sin excluir a nadie ni privilegiar a ninguno». Debemos trabajar para garantizar que todos nuestros niños tengan acceso a oportunidades educativas de calidad, eliminar la desigualdad en las colonias, aprobar la reforma migratoria, erradicar la discriminación, garantizar el acceso universal a la atención médica, garantizar la protección de toda la vida humana, poner fin al flagelo de la violencia armada, mejorar los salarios en ambos lados de la frontera, ofrecer oportunidades de desarrollo justas y sostenibles, defender el medio ambiente y honrar la dignidad de cada persona. Así es como escribimos un nuevo capítulo en nuestra historia de solidaridad y amistad que las generaciones futuras podrán recordar con orgullo. Este trabajo de deshacer el racismo y construir una sociedad justa es sagrado, ya que «contribuye a la edificación de esa ciudad de Dios universal hacia la cual avanza la historia de la familia humana». Anticipa el día en que noche ya no habrá; no tendrán necesidad de luz de lámpara ni de luz del sol, porque el Señor Dios los alumbrará y reinarán por los siglos de los siglos.” (61)

Marian Consecration— His Eminence, Cardinal Dolan is offering an opportunity to bring to our archdiocesan family something of a spiritual conversion, a light within the darkness of these troubled times. All are invited to consider joining in consecrating themselves to the Blessed Virgin Mary on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8. Through the goodness of the office of young adult outreach we have received 160 copies of the consecration book, 33 Days to Morning Glory. They are in the narthex and you may take one home. These consecration books map out everything you need to know. If you have taken a copy please use them with your family.

A Season of Hope and Anticipation.

God the Father Cenacle Devotion

- at St. John's Church Hall, NYC,
212 W. 30 St. (bet. 7th & 8th ave.)
Every 3rd Sunday, 1:00 - 4:00 pm,
Devotees can attend the Sunday Mass before or after the Cenacle Prayers in St. John's at 11:30 am or 5:15 pm schedule. Food is served after the prayers. Contact 714-424-1260 or 917-796-4393.

Next scheduled: November 17.

Monthly Food Collection - we thank everyone who donated food last weekend. Your continued response to our brothers and sisters in need is appreciated.

Coat Drive - Thank you to everyone that donated to the coat drive. Your generosity made it possible for the Knights of Columbus to provide winter clothing to many of the homeless shelters in White Plains. Your continued generosity in helping those less fortunate is appreciated.

Dear Jesus,

Our Journey through life is long and hard. We cannot make this journey alone; we must walk together with You. You promised to send us a helper, your Spirit. Help us to see your Spirit in those you send to journey with us. In the refuge family, seeking safety from violence: Let us see your Spirit.

In the migrant worker, bringing food to our tables: let us see your Spirit.

In the asylum-seeker, seeking justice for their family: Let us see your Spirit.

In the unaccompanied child, traveling in a dangerous world: Let us see your Spirit.

Teach us to recognize that as we walk with each other, You are Present.

Teach us to welcome the strangers in our midst, as well as the gifts they bring: the invitation to conversion, communion, and solidarity.

This is the help you have sent: we are not alone.

We are together on the journey, and for this we give you thanks.

Amen

Querido Jesús,

Nuestro viaje por la vida es largo y difícil. No podemos hacer este viaje solos; debemos caminar juntos contigo. Prometiste enviarnos un ayudante, tu Espíritu.

Ayúdanos a ver tu Espíritu en aquellos que envías para viajar con nosotros. En la familia del refugio, buscando seguridad contra la violencia: veamos tu Espíritu.

En el trabajador migrante, trayendo comida a nuestras mesas: veamos tu Espíritu.

En el solicitante de asilo, buscando justicia para su familia: veamos tu Espíritu.

En el niño no acompañado, viajando en un mundo peligroso: Déjanos ver tu Espíritu.

Enséñanos a reconocer que mientras caminamos unos con otros, Tú estás presente.

Enséñanos a dar la bienvenida a los extraños en nuestro medio, así como a los regalos que traen: la invitación a la conversión, la comunión y la solidaridad. Esta es la ayuda que ha enviado: no estamos solos. Estamos juntos en el viaje, y por esto te damos las gracias.

Amén

New to the Parish?

We invite you to register with the parish by filling out the envelopes found in the church or by coming to the rectory office Mon.-Fri., 9:00 am - 3:30 pm.

Parish Membership - To be considered active members of St. John the Evangelist and Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish, each family and single adult must be properly registered and regularly use the weekly donation envelopes for our parish. This is the only way the parish can issue documents attesting to parish membership and Catholic practice (e.g. A letter to be a Godparent or Sponsor). Newly registered parishioners must be registered & use envelopes for at least 6 months before a Sponsor Letter can be issued).

Envelope System - To assist us in keeping accurate records of your contributions, we request that you use the weekly envelope system. This enables us to verify your donations should it be necessary for tax purposes. Please notify the Rectory if you change your address.

E-Giving - We encourage you also to make your donations electronically through WeShare. To do so please go to our website: www.sjeolmc.org and click the link: Donate Online. If you have any questions please contact Andrea in the office.

Nuevo en la Parroquia?

Les invitamos a registrarse en la parroquia llenando los sobres que se encuentran en la iglesia o visitando la oficina de la rectoría de lunes a viernes de 9:00 a.m. a 3:30 p.m.

Membrecía Parroquial - Para ser considerados miembros activos de San Juan Evangelista y Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmelo, cada familia o adulto soltero debe estar debidamente registrado y usar regularmente los sobres de donaciones semanales de nuestra parroquia. Esta es la única forma en que la parroquia puede emitir documentos que certifiquen la membresía de la parroquia y la práctica católica (por ejemplo, una carta para ser padrino) Los feligreses recién registrados deben registrarse y usar sobres durante al menos 6 meses antes de que se pueda emitir una carta de membresía).

Sistema de sobres: Para ayudarnos a mantener registros precisos de sus contribuciones, le solicitamos que utilice el sistema de sobres semanal. Esto nos permite verificar sus donaciones si fuera necesario para fines fiscales. Notifique a la rectoría si cambia su dirección.

Donaciones electrónicas: También lo alentamos a que haga sus donaciones electrónicamente a través de WeShare. Para hacerlo, visite nuestro sitio web: www.sjeolmc.org y haga clic en el enlace: Done en línea. Si tiene alguna pregunta contacte la rectoría y pida hablar con Cesar.
