ANOINTING OF THE SICK (Richard Leonard, SJ; "Hatch Match & Dispatch")

Strictly, the church has always understood the sacrament of the anointing of the sick as a continuation of Jesus's healing ministry. It was always meant to be about getting better. In every Gospel, Jesus is always moved to compassion by the person in front of him and tries to restore them physically, socially, and spiritually (see Mark 1: 40-45; 9: 14-29). Some miracles are associated with the person's great faith or the forgiveness of his sins (Matt 9: 2-8). On other occasions, a healing is a sign of the Kingdom of God. It is clear from the Letter of James that Jesus's healing ministry was institutionalized and ritualized very early in the life of the Christian community: "Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven" (Jas 5: 14-15). The special grace of the anointing of the sick is in how it links our human suffering to Jesus on Good Friday, who went through pain and death ahead of us. In it, Christ gives us strength, peace, and courage to carry the cross of illness, old age, or preparing for death. In this sacrament we are forgiven of anything that stops us from fully embracing Christ's life, and for the first time in centuries, we are encouraged to hope that we could be restored to health. "It is in the liturgy of the anointing of the sick that we learn what is of real value in life in the sense that those anointed become sacramental signs to the rest of the church and to the world that productivity, prowess, and performance are of little value compared with identification with God in suffering, in allowing suffering to teach us reliance on God and that the notion of 'human frailty' is really both redundant and eminently hope-filled. Those anointed remind us about who we really are – those who experience divine life here and now are destined for the fullness of this divine life in eternity with God forever" (Kevin Irwin, Context and Text: Method in Liturgical Theology).

Estrictamente, la iglesia siempre ha entendido el sacramento de la unción de los enfermos como una continuación del ministerio sanador de Jesús. Siempre estuvo destinado a mejorar. En cada Evangelio, Jesús siempre se commueve con compasión por la persona que tiene delante y trata de restaurarlos física, social y espiritualmente (ver Marcos 1: 40-45; 9: 14-29). Algunos milagros están asociados con la gran fe de la persona o el perdón de sus pecados (Mateo 9: 2-8). En otras ocasiones, una curación es signo del Reino de Dios. De la Carta de Santiago se desprende claramente que el ministerio de sanación de Jesús se institucionalizó y ritualizó muy temprano en la vida de la comunidad cristiana: "¿Está alguno enfermo entre ustedes? Deben llamar a los ancianos de la iglesia y hacer que oren por ellos, ungíéndolos con aceite en el nombre del Señor. La oración de fe salvará a los enfermos y el Señor los resucitará; y todo el que haya cometido pecados, será perdonado" (Santiago 5: 14-15). La gracia especial de la unción de los enfermos está en cómo vincula nuestro sufrimiento humano con Jesús el Viernes Santo, quien pasó por el dolor y la muerte antes que nosotros. En él, Cristo nos da fuerza, paz y valor para llevar la cruz de la enfermedad, la vejez o la preparación para la muerte. En este sacramento se nos perdona cualquier cosa que nos impida abrazar plenamente la vida de Cristo y, por primera vez en siglos, se nos anima a tener la esperanza de recuperar la salud. "Es en la liturgia de la unción de los enfermos que aprendemos lo que es de valor real en la vida en el sentido de que los ungidos se convierten en signos sacramentales para el resto de la iglesia y para el mundo de que la productividad, la destreza y el desempeño son importantes poco valor comparado con la identificación con Dios en el sufrimiento, al permitir que el sufrimiento nos enseñe a confiar en Dios y que la noción de "fragilidad humana" es realmente redundante y eminentemente esperanzadora. Los ungidos nos recuerdan quiénes somos realmente: aquellos que experimentan la vida divina aquí y ahora están destinados a la plenitud de esta vida divina en la eternidad con Dios para siempre" (Kevin Irwin, Contexto y texto: Método en teología litúrgica).

prayer for peace in the Holy Land

God of our longing,
Remember those who wait and hope for peace.
Hear our prayer and our lament
for our brothers and sisters in Israel and Palestine.
With them, we share a common story,
set in a common homeland.

Make common also a will to forgive,
to reconcile,
to make a just peace for the sake of the ancestors,
for the sake of the children.
Open ears, eyes and hearts
And make a way toward justice
In our war-torn world.

God all merciful, you dwell in all human hearts
And the Holy Land is wherever you make your home.
Heal these broken places where prophets preached
Where Moses and Jesus and Muhammad kept faith with you.
Be a sure support for those who work toward reconciliation
And make us all, however far away,
Steadfast in their cause.

Amen

ORACIÓN POR LA PAZ EN TIERRA SANTA

Dios de nuestro anhelo,
Recuerda a los que añoran y esperan por la paz.
Escucha nuestra oración y nuestro lamento por nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Israel y Palestina.
Con ellos compartimos una historia común, situada en una patria común.

Haz que sea común también la voluntad para perdonar,
para reconciliarse,
para lograr una paz justa por el bien de los antepasados,
por el bien de los niños.
Abre ojos, oídos y corazones,
y da paso hacia la justicia en nuestro mundo devastado por las guerras.

Dios misericordioso, tú habitas en los corazones humanos
y la Tierra Santa es dondequiero que hagas tu hogar.
Sana estos lugares devastados donde los profetas predican, donde Moisés y Jesús y Mahoma se mantuvieron fieles contigo.
Ser un apoyo seguro para los que trabajan hacia la reconciliación
y haz que todos, sin importar cuán lejos estemos, nos mantengamos firmes en su causa.

Amén.

Parish Membership - To be considered active members of St. John the Evangelist and Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish, each family and single adult must be properly registered and regularly use the weekly donation envelopes for our parish. This is the only way the parish can issue documents attesting to parish membership and Catholic practice (e.g. A letter to be a Godparent or Sponsor). Newly registered parishioners must be registered & use envelopes for at least 6 months before a Sponsor Letter can be issued).

Membrecía Parroquial - Para ser considerados miembros activos de San Juan Evangelista y Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmelo, cada familia o adulto soltero debe estar debidamente registrado y usar regularmente los sobres de donaciones semanales de nuestra parroquia. Esta es la única forma en que la parroquia puede emitir documentos que certifiquen la membresía de la parroquia y la práctica católica (por ejemplo, una carta para ser padrino). Los feligreses recién registrados deben registrarse y usar sobres durante al menos 6 meses antes de que se pueda emitir una carta de membresía).

on the Third Saturday of the Month

At the Church of St John the Evangelist, after the end of the 5:30 pm Mass on the Third Saturday of the Month, there will be Anointing of the Sick by the presiding priest.

By the sacred Anointing of the Sick and the prayer of the priests the whole Church commands those who are ill to the suffering and glorified Lord, that He may raise them up and save them. And, indeed, He exhorts them to contribute to the good of the People of God by freely uniting themselves to the Passion and death of Christ.

En la Iglesia de San Juan Evangelista, después del final de la Misa de las 5:30 pm del tercer sábado de cada mes, habrá unción de los enfermos por parte del sacerdote que celebre la Misa.

Por la sagrada Unción de los enfermos y la oración de los sacerdotes, toda la Iglesia encomienda a los enfermos al Señor sufriente y glorificado, para que los resucite y los salve. Y, en efecto, los exhorta a contribuir al bien del Pueblo de Dios uniéndose libremente a la Pasión y muerte de Cristo.

Before the Blessing the priest invites the quinceañera (quinceañeras) to make an Act of Thanksgiving and of a Personal Commitment to lead a Christian life. The Quinceañera Registration Forms are during opening hours available at the Parish Office. In preparation for the Blessing, the quinceañera candidate and her parents are expected to meet with the Pastor and the candidate will be given the chance to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The family and the entire parish are invited to prayerfully join our youth in making a commitment to God and the Church.

BENDICIÓN A LAS QUINCEAÑERAS

Antes de la Bendición el sacerdote invita a la quinceañera (quinceañeras) a realizar un Acto de Acción de Gracias y un Compromiso Personal para llevar una vida cristiana. Los Formularios de Inscripción para Quinceañeras están disponibles durante el horario de apertura en la oficina parroquial. En preparación para la Bendición, se espera que la candidata a la quinceañera y sus padres se reúnan con el Pastor y la candidata tendrá la oportunidad de recibir el Sacramento de la Reconciliación. Se invita a la familia y a toda la parroquia a unirse en oración a nuestros jóvenes para hacer un compromiso con Dios y la Iglesia.
