Thirty third Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 13, 2016

The tabernacle is a liturgical furnishing used to house the Eucharist outside of Mass. This provides a location where the Eucharist can be kept for the adoration of the faithful and for later use (e.g., distribution to the sick). It also helps prevent the profanation of the Eucharist. Thus the law requires, "The tabernacle in which the Eucharist is regularly reserved is to be immovable, made of solid or opaque material, and locked so that the danger of profanation may be entirely avoided" (CIC 938 §3).

The word tabernacle means "dwelling place." Any place someone dwells is a tabernacle. The term is also sometimes used for a temporary dwelling place. Thus the tent-like sanctuary that the Jews used before the Temple was built was called the Tabernacle, because God dwelt there. Similarly, for the feast of Sukkot the Hebrews erected temporary shelters to live in for the festival, which is often called "the feast of tabernacles" or "the feast of booths" as a result.

The tabernacle in Church is so named because it is a place where Christ dwells in the Eucharist. He is present with us every time we gather for mass. Everyone is welcome to come and share in His presence at any time.

El tabernáculo es un mobiliario litúrgico utilizado para albergar la Eucaristía fuera de la Misa. Esto proporciona un lugar donde la Eucaristía puede ser guardada para la adoración de los fieles y para uso posterior (por ejemplo, distribución a los enfermos). También ayuda a prevenir la profanación de la Eucaristía. Así, la Iglesia lo exige: "El tabernáculo en el que se reserva regularmente la Eucaristía es inamovible, hecho de material sólido o opaco, y encerrado para que el peligro de la profanación pueda ser totalmente evitado" (CIC 938 §3).

La palabra tabernáculo significa "lugar de morada". Cualquier lugar que habita es un tabernáculo. El término también se utiliza a veces para un lugar de vivienda temporal. Así se construyó el santuario de tienda de campaña que los judíos usaron antes del Templo, llamado Tabernáculo, porque Dios habitó allí. Del mismo modo, para la fiesta de Sukkot los hebreos erigieron refugios temporales para vivir durante la fiesta, que a menudo se llama "la fiesta de los tabernáculos" o "la fiesta de tiendas". El tabernáculo en la Iglesia se llama así porque es un lugar donde Cristo habita en la Eucaristía. Él está presente con nosotros cada vez que nos reunimos para la misa. Todos son bienvenidos a compartir y estar un tiempo en Su presencia en cualquier momento.

Dinners for Eight

Are you looking for a sense of belonging? A feeling of being part of the St. Michael's community? Do you like to have fun and eat delicious food? For a very small investment of your time that can reap great rewards, Dinners for Eight might be just what you're looking for. This year we will have two sign-ups: 1) One for families with children who want to get together as families and 2) One for Adults only (couples, friends, singles) Groups of 8 get together once a month in January, February and March to share a meal, stories and laughs and get to know one another. In April, all participants get together for a group potluck. Everyone rotates each month, so you have the opportunity to get to know many other parishioners. You don't have to be able to host to participate. Previous participants will be available in the Narthex after Mass for sign-up/questions for the next 2 weeks. You can also contact Julie Layton at 425-220-7801 or julielayton22@hotmail.com to sign up or ask questions.

It is the last weekend to collect Marshmallows for the Snohomish Community Food Bank! Thank you to all who have helped us collect over 200 bags of marshmallows to help our community members in need! The last day to bring in your marshmallows is Wednesday November 16th!
