Building Project Update

Building Update— 7/17/19

Adjusted Completion Date: During the construction meeting on Thursday, July 11, the Bruce Company advised us, the final date for completion will be August 28. Until this point we had still been expecting completion at the end of July. The reason for the delay is the scheduling of the elevator installation. The elevator will be on site July 22, with the install scheduled to begin on 8/1. The install will take approximately two weeks. This is normally a three week process, but since we have just two stops, they are able to complete this in two weeks. The great news is, the rest of the project is scheduled to be completed by 8/1. Once the elevator is installed, the final inspections are set to begin on 8/22, finishing up on 8/28.

Construction Activities: This week will begin the carpet replacement in the choir area and the baptismal font area. Drywall, painting, flooring and final finishes will all be happening in the next few weeks. The re-upholstering of the pews is coming soon! While we do not have an official date yet, we are working with our architect and the vendor to get this scheduled. Once we have a schedule, we will include this in our next weekly update.

Seismic Upgrades: Given the recent events, this is a great time to share the updates on the voluntary seismic upgrades to the school we are working on. The seismic upgrades to the school have always been in the plans and budget, and are not a response of the recent seismic activity in the area. These upgrades will be tying the exposed wood beams to each other and to the exterior walls, and tying the main floor to the exterior walls. These are typical upgrades for a building of this age and will help it resist a larger earthquake. When this work is done, you'll see some additional exposed wood beams at the ceiling along the perimeter of the main floor and perhaps some metal angles at the perimeter of the basement ceiling. The new addition is built to the current seismic code standards, so we are solid here. While no building is ever "earthquake proof", the planned improvements will make the building safer for any future events.

As always, thank you for your continued support, patience and prayers during this project. We are coming down the final stretch, and this all would not be possible without this amazing community.

Keep up to date with the building project progress updates from our website at www.stmichaelsnohomish.org, Facebook and MyParishApp and in the bulletin each weekend. Also, please share the information with your fellow parishioners to help spread the updates!

Thank you for your continued prayers and support of this project. We appreciate your patience and understanding as we work around the construction project and modify our routines to accommodate everyone.

A message from Fr. Michael

Dear parishioners,

I want to thank you for all your warm words and wishes last weekend! I've arrived safely in Puebla – so far, so good!

I ask you also to give a warm welcome to Fr. Francis Xavier Kikomeko and Fr. Joseph Mitchell as they come and celebrate Mass for you. I trust you will make sure they get whatever they need in their time at St. Michael!

On a separate note, I have asked to have a flyer included in all the bulletins for the "Healing the Whole Person" conference taking place in Tacoma at the beginning of August. I personally have greatly benefited from two retreats I have made with the John Paul II Healing Center, and I know many others, priests and laity, who have also received significant healings and consolations through their ministry.

So if you are struggling with personal or family issues, addictions, physical, psychological or emotional difficulties, or just want to deepen your relationship with Jesus, I encourage you to make the time and effort to be a part of it. I realize it is a bit of a drive from Snohomish, but your life is worth it!

I wish you all a blessed week!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Michael

Visiting Priest

Fr. Xavier Kikomeko will be living in the rectory and providing the sacraments for a portion of the time while Fr. Michael is gone. Please help Fr. Kikomeko feel welcome while he is here. Fr. Kikomeko does not drive and will need assistance with outreach, shopping and other errands. If you are able to help please contact the office.
