PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

"Our mission is to offer every person in our community a life-changing encounter with Jesus Christ"

DECLARACIÓN DE LA MISIÓN PARROQUIAL

"Nuestra misión es ofrecerle a cada persona en nuestra comunidad un encuentro que cambia la vida con Jesucristo "

From the Desk of Fr. Al Ezeonyeka

Desde el escritorio de Fr. Al Ezeonyeka

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May God Have Mercy on Us All

These are very difficult and sad days in our Catholic Church. A great evil has befallen the Church. As Jesus once said, "You will see 'The Awful Horror' of which the prophet Daniel spoke. It will be standing in the holy place" (Mt 24:15). The horrendous abuse of children by our brothers in charge of God's people is certainly an "awful horror...standing in the holy place." My immediate reaction when I heard this awful news was a sinking feeling of disgust, depression, confusion and anger. I could never rap my head around the possibility of what happened. I had moments of wondering what I was doing as a priest and whether it was time to back out. I can only imagine the amount of trauma this might have caused many of you.

I just want to say, on behalf of my brother priests and bishops, that I am so sorry for our failings. I am sorry for the pains we have caused you, the wonderful people of God. There is no excusing this evil away. I bow my head in shame for all this. Please, forgive us!

The gate of hell has definitely broken out against the Church. But as Jesus said, it shall NEVER prevail against the Church (Mt 16:17-19). The fight is on and the soul of the Church is on the line. Let us, therefore, be angry. However, let us channel that anger towards prayers and finding inspired solutions. We have come a long way and will gain victory if we pray hard, persevere and hold perpetrators accountable. There must be thorough investigations and justice done for the victims.

In case, you missed it, I recommend you read Archbishop Gomez's letter published in the bulletin last week and also watch Bishop Robert Barron's YouTube video released on August 26th (<https://www.facebook.com/BishopRobertBarron/videos/2650607241631662/>)

May God have mercy on us all. May his soothing love console the victims and all those traumatized by these horrific sins. May the Lord save us, forgive us our sins and bring us to everlasting life, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Fr. Aloysius Ezeonyeka

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Que Dios tenga misericordia de nosotros

Estos son unos días muy difíciles y tristes en nuestra Iglesia Católica. Un gran mal ha caído sobre la Iglesia. Como Jesús dijo una vez, "Verás 'El espantoso horror' del cual habló el profeta Daniel. Estará de pie en el lugar santo" (Mt 24:15). El horrendo abuso de niños por parte de nuestros hermanos a cargo del pueblo de Dios es sin duda un "horrible horror ... de pie en el lugar santo". Mi reacción inmediata cuando escuché esta terrible noticia fue una sensación de disgusto, depresión, confusión e ira. Nunca podría entender la posibilidad de lo que sucedió. Tuve momentos que me preguntarme qué estaba haciendo como sacerdote y si era hora de retroceder. Solo puedo imaginar la cantidad de trauma que esto podría haber causado a muchos de ustedes.

Solo quiero decir, en nombre de mis hermanos sacerdotes y obispos, que lo siento por nuestros errores. Lamento los dolores que les hemos causado, a la maravillosa gente de Dios. No hay excusa para alejar este mal. Inclino la cabeza avergonzado por todo esto. ¡Por favor perdónanos!

La puerta del infierno definitivamente estalló contra la Iglesia. Pero como dijo Jesús, NUNCA prevalecerá contra la Iglesia (Mt 16: 17-19). La lucha continúa y el alma de la Iglesia está en peligro. Vamos, por lo tanto, estar enojado. Sin embargo, canalicemos esa ira hacia las oraciones y busquemos soluciones inspiradas. Hemos recorrido un largo camino y obtendremos la victoria si rezamos mucho, perseveramos y responsabilizamos a los perpetradores. Debe haber investigaciones exhaustivas y justicia para las víctimas.

En caso de que se lo haya perdido, le recomiendo que lea la carta del Arzobispo Gómez publicada en el boletín la semana pasada y también mire el video de YouTube del Obispo Robert Barron que lanzó el 26 de agosto (<https://www.facebook.com/BishopRobertBarron/videos/2650607241631662/>)

Que Dios tenga misericordia de todos nosotros. Que su consolador amor consuele a las víctimas y a todos aquellos traumatizados por estos horrendos pecados. Que el Señor nos salve, perdone nuestros pecados y nos lleve a la vida eterna, por medio de Cristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

P. Aloysius Ezeonyeka

I'm not going to lie, it has been very hard to come to work especially in the past few weeks. In fact, I have been trying to write this article for a while, but just haven't been able to find the words. I have been talking with teens on their thoughts and it has been rough. So many people have been hurt in so many ways by these new scandals that we have been hearing about in the Catholic Church. I have been listening to so many podcast and watching so many videos by speakers and religious talking about this issue and there are a few things that have stuck out to me that I wish to share. The first is that when people are saying that they have lost faith in the church, what are they really saying? Are they saying that they have lost faith in God or faith in the institution of the church? Both of these can be very shaken by what we are seeing and hearing, but it's in these times that we need to hold strong. The one thing that has really stuck out to me is something that a priest named Fr. Mike Schmitz said. In his Ascension Presents video where he talks about this, he says that "it's not time to leave the church, but to lead the church". These words have been resonating with me so much. We can't quit just because times are hard, we need to step up and lead our church to a better tomorrow. So please, continue to pray, don't give up, and keep strong with your faith in God.

Safety tips for kids playing sports this school year
Published on 8/27/2018

Sports seasons start early, even for young children, and while it's great that they're out getting exercise and learning new skills, safety is still a top priority. It's recommended that all children who are playing school sports have an annual physical, and relevant health information (allergies, conditions, etc.) should be shared with coaches. Parents should make sure their children have the right gear, and that it fits and works well. Children should stay well-hydrated, well-fed, and well-rested to keep up their energy and strength. Student athletes should be learning to be kind and fair, too, no matter the outcome of the game.

Consejos de seguridad para
los niños que hacen
deportes este año escolar

Las temporadas deportivas comienzan temprano, incluso para los niños pequeños, y si bien es fantástico que estén haciendo ejercicio y aprendiendo nuevas habilidades, la seguridad sigue siendo una alta prioridad. Se recomienda que a todos los niños que practiquen deportes escolares se les haga un examen físico anual, y la información relevante de salud (alergias, condiciones, etc.) se debe compartir con los entrenadores. Los padres de familia deben asegurarse de que sus hijos tengan el equipo adecuado, y que calce y funcione bien. Los niños deben mantenerse bien hidratados, bien alimentados y bien descansados para mantener su energía y fuerza. Los estudiantes atletas deben aprender a ser amables y justos, sin importar el resultado del juego.
