"Those, whom we loved during life, let us never forget after death."

The month of November is not far off. Fall and nostalgic weather as well as prolonged evenings are conducive to a reflection about our life and passing. During this month, our thoughts and hearts, more than ever, are directed toward those loved ones who have gone before us and now sleep in peace. In the whole universal Church, on November 1st, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. On one day, we honor all those whose lives were pleasing to God, and are officially honored as saints. The very following day, November 2nd, we remember the memory of all the faithful departed (All Souls) whom God has called from this life. Those are our relatives, friends and neighbors who passed the threshold of eternity.

As fellow believers on the other side of the river of death, through our prayer, we can assist our loved ones on their way to Heaven. Let's not forget that they can no longer help themselves. Praying for the dead is a Christian obligation. In the modern world, when many have come to doubt the Church's teaching on Purgatory, the need for such prayers has only increased.

Responding to our Christian call to pray for the dead, Our Lady Queen of Peace Family offers its parishioners and guests a special opportunity for a prayer for deceased loved ones. During the last week of October and the first two weeks of November, in our Chapel of Remembrance (rear Annex) you can spend some time in prayer and meditation. Bring a photo of your loved one putting it by the cross, light a candle and say a prayer. There is no better gift you can give to the dead than your prayer. All deceased will be remembered at Saturday morning Masses throughout the month of November.

Fr. Kamil

Bishop's Annual Appeal

Our Diocese is blessed that there has been an increase in the number of seminarians over the years. Let's continue to pray for these men as they concentrate on their studies and reflect on how they will one day serve our parishes. They deserve all our support, and one way to show this is by giving to the Bishop's Annual Appeal. The Appeal helps fund the significant financial costs associated with years of room, board, tuition and other related expenses. Your gift today helps prepare our seminarians for the future. For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2018appeal.org. May God bless you for your support!

Fall Campaign September 26 to November 4.

We invite you to join OLQP parishioners during the Fall Campaign to pray at a high volume abortion clinic in Montclair. For further information call Dennis at 845-477-3069.

FOOD PANTRY ITEM OF THE WEEK

Please remember the pantry when you do your own shopping. An item a week from many will keep us full.

We need: Canned Soup

God Bless You for your donations.
