THE POPE'S MONTHLY INTENTIONS

October 2018

The Mission of Religious

That consecrated religious men and women may bestir themselves, and be present among the poor, the marginalized and those who have no voice.

Rosary Prayer Intentions for October
(provided by Our Legions of Mary)

SPECIAL October Rosary Intentions: that our priests, nuns and all the clergy go freely and quickly to those parts of the world where the poor and downtrodden need support, comfort and relief…that the clergy elevate those marginalized people who are never considered worthy by others to a high level of prominence and recognition…that the clergy become the voice and representatives of the unspoken and quiet majority expressing for these people, their needs, hopes and concerns…that the clergy encourage the laity to seek out, to comfort, to aid and to support all those people less fortunate than themselves and give freely their time and efforts…that the clergy devote a portion of their day in daily for the intentions of the poor, marginalized and reticent citizenry…that parishioners in all churches eagerly and generously respond to special religious visitors requesting financial and spiritual contributions to aid the missionaries throughout the world.

ON-GOING Personal Rosary Intentions

Joyful Mysteries for the unborn, newly born, young children, teenagers, families and friendships.

Luminous Mysteries for the newly baptized, those receiving confession and the Holy Eucharist for the first time, newlyweds and those already married – love/peace/unity – now and forever.

Sorrowful Mysteries for the sick and suffering, the dying, the oppressed, the tortured, the persecuted, the lonely, the abandoned and the depressed.

Glorious Mysteries for the souls in purgatory, forgotten souls, newly confirmed and ALL life, the intercession of Mary to Jesus for our daily intentions and the requested intentions of others.

"Those, whom we loved during life, let us never forget after death."

The month of November is not far off. Fall and nostalgic weather as well as prolonged evenings are conducive to a reflection about our life and passing. During this month, our thoughts and hearts, more than ever, are directed toward those loved ones who have gone before us and now sleep in peace. In the whole universal Church, on November 1st, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. On one day, we honor all those whose lives were pleasing to God, and are officially honored as saints. The very following day, November 2nd, we remember the memory of all the faithful departed (All Souls) whom God has called from this life. Those are our relatives, friends and neighbors who passed the threshold of eternity.

As fellow believers on the other side of the river of death, through our prayer, we can assist our loved ones on their way to Heaven. Let's not forget that they can no longer help themselves. Praying for the dead is a Christian obligation. In the modern world, when many have come to doubt the Church's teaching on Purgatory, the need for such prayers has only increased.

Responding to our Christian call to pray for the dead, Our Lady Queen of Peace Family offers its parishioners and guests a special opportunity for a prayer for deceased loved ones. During the last week of October and the first two weeks of November, in our Chapel of Remembrance (rear Annex) you can spend some time in prayer and meditation. Bring a photo of your loved one putting it by the cross, light a candle and say a prayer. There is no better gift you can give to the dead than your prayer. All deceased will be remembered at Saturday morning Masses throughout the month of November.
