Our Mission Statement

"Recognizing that we are the Body of Christ, the Catholic Community of Our Lady of the Mountain is called to live the Gospel. We desire to express our commitment to this call through praise-filled celebration, which culminates in our being sent into the community to actively reach out to others. Thus, we seek to grow in Christian love."

MOTHER'S DAY…

Our thoughts and prayers are for our mothers today who are honored for the gift of life they have given us. They had provided us with love and encouragement and they have a special place in our hearts. WE pray that the Lord will bless them and help them to continue to be models of love and faith for their children.

Mary, the mother of Jesus is the mother of the church and this Saturday May 13 marked the 100th anniversary of Mary's appearance(s) at Fatima, Portugal to three young children. Francisco and Jacinta Marto, two of the children who saw Our Lady, will be canonized May 13 during Pope Francis's Mass at the Fatima shrine. Fatima is a sign for us of Mary's continuing love for the children of the earth. Mary brought a message of peace and hope – this message still must be a message to the world. At all the masses in our diocese this week Bishop Serratelli has asked that we pray the prayer to consecrate our parishes to Mary under the title of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

We pray today that Mary also protect our mothers with her love both those who are with us now and those who are in heaven…Fr. Joe

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

"The Lord has turned all our sunsets into sunrise." — St. Clement – early Christian bishop and martyr.

WHY WE ARE CATHOLIC…

We are Catholic because we believe:

Everything that happened during those Paschal days involves each of the apostles - and Peter in particular - in the building of the new era begun on Easter morning. As witnesses of the Risen One, they remain the foundation stones of his Church. The faith of the first community of believers is based on the witness of concrete men known to the Christians and for the most part still living among them. Peter and the Twelve are the primary "witnesses to his Resurrection", but they are not the only ones - Paul speaks clearly of more than five hundred persons to whom Jesus appeared on a single occasion and also of James and of all the apostles. The Catechism of the Catholic Church 642

THANK YOU…To all I so very much! A Taste of the Towns Fundraiser held for the benefit of Little Ray McCarthy, Jr. on Tuesday, April 25th at St. Luke's Church. The event was a resounding success both financially and socially! The funds raised through ticket sales and donations will benefit "Little" Ray tremendously in his continuing his battle with an aggressive brain stem tumor, medically known as Diffuse Intrinsic Pontine Glioma (DIPG). Checks are still arriving at my home to help the family. Thank you all for continuing to keep him in your prayers. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts - Phyllis Fania and the Fania Family, the DiLollo Family and the McCarthy Family.

A COMMUNITY MESSAGE FROM ORT FARM…

Live the Life God Wants for You – Diocese of Paterson Discernment Groups

In the Gospels, Jesus reveals to us a God who is intimately present to his creation, and tirelessly at work for the renovation of the world through the renewal of mankind. God wants to bring about his kingdom here and now through those he has claimed as his own!

Living as a Christian means allowing God to have free reign over our lives. It means receiving his love and embodying it for those around us. It means cultivating a rich harvest of spiritual fruit: love, joy, peace, patience, and the like (Gal. 5:22)

The Holy Spirit inspires and animates our lives in Christ; he it is who instructs us and guides us. It is through discernment of the Spirit's movement that we can know the will of God for us and become over more responsive to his loving call.

If you want to become a more discerning person; if you want to hear God's call and respond with more agility; if you want to experience his peace and his love; if you want to live the life God wants for you, then join us for fraternity, prayer and pizza.
