The Holy Eucharist
DID YOU KNOW?

This week's theme: The Eucharist and the Transcendent

Our Lord teaches us in today's Gospel that in Heaven we shall live "like angels" and "be children of God". (Luke 20:27-38) Our Lord gives us the opportunity to worthily receive Him in the Blessed Sacrament so that we may already here on Earth share in "the foretaste and the promise of the Pascal Feast of Heaven." St Jean Vianney wrote that if "The angels could envy us one thing, it would be our ability to receive Jesus in Holy Communion."

Reflection: We should always keep in mind that there is a transcendent aspect present in the seven Sacraments. There is both the imminent and the transcendent present. In the Holy Eucharist the imminent is the Sacred, consecrated Host which we see, touch and consume. The transcendent is what lies beyond our senses in the spiritual realm yet is just as real. We should be open to an encounter with that transcendence. The spiritual intimacy and love which Christ offers us, when we are in union with Him after Holy Communion, has a heavenly aspect which can lead us to a more profound experience of the reality of the spiritual.

As Bishop Robert Barron stated, we should strive to, "Treasure the transcendent".

THANK YOU
for your generosity

The Knights of Columbus Pius XII Council 4376 would like to thank the parishioners of St. Ann's Church for their overwhelming support in our fund drive for the Families of Sgt. Dustin DeMonte and Officer Alex Hamzy. Through their generosity, $3,350.11 was raised at the Masses on Oct. 29th / 30th. All of the money raised was presented to Bristol Mayor Jeff Caggiano for the Police Heroes Fund this week.

Pledge forms can also be obtained in the Parish Office. Thank you!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The God of the Living

“Sic transit gloria mundi,” is what they used to say at papal coronations. “So passes earthly glory.” Everything is fleeting. Nothing is here to stay. But in reality, some things are forever. Our actions on earth do have the potential to reverberate in eternity.

Everyday Stewardship is a lifestyle that embraces what will last. It is being aware of how our choices and our actions can be received by God, and through His grace, amplified to showcase His glory.

Your great-grandparents were married for 60 years. Maybe they shared the greatest love anyone in your family has ever seen, and maybe they raised up a whole family of kids. But they’ve been gone for a generation now, and no one living remembers the softness in their eyes when they looked at each other. And to read today’s Gospel, you might even get the impression that their marriage was nothing more than an earthly whim. Gone. Fleeting. Temporal.

This week’s readings invite us to contemplate the question: what exactly is immortal? What lasts beyond our earthly sojourn?

The seven brothers and their mothers whose martyrdom is told this weekend in Maccabees didn’t die for the letter of the law, they died for the One who gave the law. In the same way, a marriage contract does not extend into eternity, but the fruits of a sacrificial love will live forever.

Good works, devotion, gratitude, selflessness, graciousness, accountability — these are all of God. He is not God of the dead; He is God of the living — and these are the things that last an eternity
- Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Every believer wonders about what the experience of heaven will be like. Popular images of people walking around in white robes, becoming like angels, and reunions with those who have gone before us all tickle human imagination. Jesus never got too specific about what heaven actually looks like. But he assures us that it exists and that all are alive in God. Clinging to the traditions of our faith, we persevere through life’s challenges confident that God’s promise of eternal life will come to be. We are told that we shall become like God and see God as He is. As God has made us, He also loves us and sustains us. Desiring to be with God above all other desires gives us the hope that when we close our eyes in death, we will fall into the arms of the One who will gently bring us where we need to be. Knowing ahead of time what we find when we arrive changes little.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Facing her 50th birthday and recently diagnosed with Type-2 Diabetes, Rebecca was at a crossroads. Realizing that she had neglected her health and fitness over the years and allowed herself to gain significant weight, she felt poorly about who she had become. While it was easier to give in to temptation and the gratification received from food, her family needed her, and she desired a long life. She had an image of the person she could become. She wanted to be more trim, focused, disciplined, and healthy. She liked what she saw in her mind and set out on a journey to create it. With great effort, she succeeded and accomplished her goals. When we have a goal ahead of us, we are more apt to do whatever is necessary to get it.

Is heaven a goal you want to achieve? Our popular images and metaphors to describe heaven can leave some people wondering if this is something they want for all eternity. Living like an angel, wearing white robes, meeting St. Peter, and reconnecting with loved ones are all welcome notions to some extent. But do they really inspire and captivate us enough to want to dramatically change how we live our lives? Heaven’s reality is more profound than any human image or idea can fathom. Even though we believe in a bodily resurrection, heaven is more about attaining union with God. To achieve heaven is to attain eternal happiness and fulfill all desire. How do we awaken within us an ardent and passionate desire for heaven?

St. Isaac of Ninevah counsels, “Enter eagerly into the treasure house that lies within you, and so you will see the treasure house of heaven, for the two are one and the same, and there is but one single entry into them both. The ladder that leads to the kingdom is hidden with you, and is found in your own soul. Dive into yourself and in your soul you will discover the rungs by which to ascend.” Our souls are made to be eternal. Once we discover our true selves and are captivated by the wonder of who we really are, we will unleash our unwavering desire for a lasting union with our Creator. Heaven is about who we are. “For seeing you, our God, as you are, we shall be like you for all the ages.”
