

A decorative border of pink daisy flowers with yellow centers frames the entire page. The flowers are arranged in a slightly irregular pattern, with some larger and more prominent than others.

parishioner and stand-up comedian

November 9th

Women's Conference - Archdiocese of Hartford

January 10-12

February

Book Group - Mary & Nancy will always have an idea...

An idea for a light read is possibly:

Tigers Love Bubble Baths & Obsession Perfume (who knew!)

by Mary Savarese. Mary is a Eucharistic Minister at St. Ann and an author. Her recently published fiction debut novel with a small publishing house, Tigers Love Bubble Baths & Obsession Perfume (who knew!) is a cozy mystery romance with a spiritual twist. The spiritual twist weaves in modern day Catholicism into a mystery.

March or April

Lent Stone Soup and guest speaker (possibly Shari Dursin?)

May or June

There has been interest in a bus trip to NYC, but we may need to combine with other parishes to make it happen.

We have a member of M&Ms who is from NYC and would be able to take the lead.
