BULLETIN & PULPIT ANNOUNCEMENT DEADLINE:
Monday, 9:00 am

Second Sunday of Lent
March 8, 2020

Dear brothers and sisters,

In the Transfiguration of the Lord, we are invited to taste a bit of the glory of heaven, our homeland. It is the place God has prepared for us, and He invites us to leave behind our sins and journey in faith to reach that place of glory. It is not easy to do, but as St. Paul reminds us, we are called to a holy life, and we must bear our share of the hardship that comes with living for the Gospel. God knows our efforts and will help us by His grace and strength. To reach any worthy destination or goal, it takes determination, perseverance, and hard work. Our call to holiness is no different. It requires us to carry the cross daily and follow the Lord even unto death, but Easter will come, and so will the glory and life that we will share with God.

The disciples experienced that image of glory in the Transfiguration. The face of Jesus shone like the sun, and His clothes became white as light. They saw a glimpse of what God's glory looked like, it was divine ecstasy, and Peter said how wonderful it was for them to be there and wanted to make the moment last. The disciples knew they were in the presence of God. Jesus shared with them the glory that was His, His divinity as the Son of God but not to frighten them. The disciples experienced the Transfiguration to help them know the extent of God's love. The same glorious Jesus that they saw will be the same suffering Jesus that will carry the cross and suffer death for the sake of humanity—and this is realized and affirmed after the resurrection. In Christ, God gives His life for love of us; dear sisters and brothers, that is our invitation to respond to God's love and to seek His face with all our hearts. This Lenten season is the time to seek God and His glory, to climb the holy mountain by our good deeds, prayer, and right living. May the Lord bless us with a holy Lenten journey.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Vincent

Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma 8 de marzo de 2020

Cristo Jesús . . . destruyó la muerte y ha hecho brillar la luz de la vida y de la inmortalidad, por medio del Evangelio. — 2 Timoteo 1:10b

Recordatorio para los estudiantes y sus padres:

Hay un error en los calendarios de formación, confirmación y primera comunión. No hay clases hoy, 8 de marzo ni el 15 de marzo por las vacaciones de primavera.

Las clases se reanudan el domingo, 22 de marzo.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

En la Transfiguración del Señor, estamos invitados a probar un poco de la gloria del cielo, nuestra patria. Es el lugar que Dios ha preparado para nosotros, y nos invita a dejar nuestros pecados y viajar en fe para alcanzar ese lugar de gloria. No es fácil de hacerlo, pero como nos recuerda San Pablo, estamos llamados a una vida santa, y debemos soportar nuestra parte de las dificultades que conlleva vivir para el Evangelio. Dios ve nuestros esfuerzos y nos ayudará con su gracia y fortaleza. Para alcanzar un destino u objetivo digno, se requiere determinación, perseverancia y esfuerzo. Nuestro llamado a la santidad es igual. Requiere que carguemos la cruz diariamente y sigamos al Señor hasta la muerte, pero vendrá la Pascua, y vendrá la gloria y la vida que compartiremos con Dios.

Los discípulos experimentaron una imagen de gloria en la Transfiguración. El rostro de Jesús brillaba como el sol, y su ropa se volvió blanca como la nieve. Tuvieron un vistazo de cómo es la gloria de Dios, fue un éxtasis divino, y Pablo dijo lo maravilloso que era para ellos estar allí, y quería que el momento durara. Los discípulos sabían que estaban en la presencia de Dios. Jesús compartió con ellos la gloria que era suya, su divinidad como el Hijo de Dios, pero no para asustarlos. Los discípulos experimentaron la Transfiguración para ayudarlos a conocer el alcance del amor de Dios. El mismo Jesús glorioso que vieron será el mismo Jesús sufriente que cargará la cruz y sufrirá la muerte por el bien de la humanidad, y esto se realiza y afirma después de la resurrección. En Cristo, Dios da su vida por amor a nosotros; Queridas hermanas y hermanos, esa es nuestra invitación para responder al amor de Dios y buscar su rostro con todo nuestro corazón. Esta temporada de Cuaresma es el tiempo para buscar a Dios y su gloria, para escalar la montaña sagrada a través de nuestras obras, oraciones y siendo buenos. Que el Señor nos bendiga con un santo viaje cuaresmal.

De ustedes en Cristo,
Padre Vicente
