Activity Center Renovation

Your help, by making a pledge, will give us an idea of when renovation on the Activity Center can begin. How much are you willing to pledge for the renovation of the activity center. Please use the pledge forms available to let us know what you are willing to sacrifice to breathe new life into a building that has been a part of this parish community since 1947. Many have expressed the need for our activity center to be refreshed and for easier access.

For construction to begin the parish community needs to pull together.

"Help another's boat across, and lo, thine own has reached the shore"

October 8, 2017: TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

BEARING THE RIGHT KIND OF FRUIT

Today's readings focus our attention on vineyards. Isaiah's song concerning his friend's vineyard begins with inspiring and poetic images of an idyllic vineyard where the choicest harvest is expected. Instead, the vineyard yields wild grapes, which causes the owner to abandon it. The psalmist cries out to God, asking that God once again take care of the vineyard, which is the house of Israel. The parable told in today's Gospel offers a stern warning that those who commit treachery in the hopes of attaining personal wealth will be "put . . . to a wretched death" (Matthew 21:41). Jesus warns his listeners not to act like the murderous tenants in the vineyard. Instead he exhorts them to produce the kind of fruit that will lead them to the kingdom of God.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel (Isaiah 5:1-7).
Psalm — The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel (Psalm 80).
Second Reading — God's peace will guard your hearts and minds (Philippians 4:6-9).
Gospel — The kingdom of God will be given to those who will produce its fruit (Matthew 21:33-43)
