Celebrate Dads

Coffee and Donuts
 in the Activity Center
 Sunday, June 20th
 at 10:30AM.

Let us pray for dads:

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the Holy Family of Nazareth with the work of your hands. Kindly protect those who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labor and weariness. But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother. Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done. Pope John XXIII

The presence and involvement of a loving father is critical in the development of a child. True fatherhood models itself on God the Father. Former MLB player Mike Sweeney shares how the faith of a man should shape his role as a father.

HOMework FROM THE LORD

"Rest is not idleness, and to lie sometimes on the grass under trees on a summer's day, listening to the murmur of the water, or watching the clouds float across the sky, is by no means a waste of time."

—John Lubbock

- ✚ Invite friends over for an outdoor get together on June 20th, the first day of summer.
- ✚ Have prayer time near a fountain or body of water and talk about the gift of God has given us in the Sacrament of Baptism. (Feast day of St. John the Baptist – June 24)
- ✚ Have a snack with honey, honey was part of St. John the Baptist's diet.
- ✚ Do a service project together as a family to honor St. Joseph who was humble and hard-working.
- ✚ Pray the "Litany of St. Joseph" entrusting your cares to your spiritual father.

"Help another's boat across, and lo, thine own has reached the shore"
JUNE 20, 2021 TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
THE WIND AND THE SEA
Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the "big lake," as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, "Respect the lake; don't take it for granted." People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.
The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today's Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.
But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

"Help another's boat across, and lo, thine own has reached the shore"
JUNE 20, 2021 TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
THE WIND AND THE SEA
Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the "big lake," as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, "Respect the lake; don't take it for granted." People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.
The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today's Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.
But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.
