Have you been out to see the garden?

Everyone is invited to help with the Giving Garden at Holy Cross.

Just call the office to see how you can help.

The next phase is to have students plant pumpkin seeds in cups to later be planted in the back tilled area of the garden, in preparation for a fall harvest.

One is nearer God's heart in a garden than anywhere else on earth.

"Help another's boat across, and lo, thine own has reached the shore"

MAY 8, 2022 FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

A FORETASTE OF PARADISE

Throughout Easter Time, the Church rejoices with Jesus, risen from the dead. Our readings on this Fourth Sunday of Easter celebrate our instinct to come together in joy, worshipping in church. While private prayer nourishes our individual relationship with the Lord, community prayer is a foretaste of paradise. The book of Revelation depicts a "great multitude" worshipping God "day and night in his temple." Our churches on Easter Sunday often reflect this happy multitude, filling the pews to bursting. Four Sundays into the festive season, we are encouraged to keep praising God together. In the Acts of the Apostles, Paul and Barnabas demonstrate their instinct to worship with their faith community each Sabbath, dutifully taking their seats in the synagogue. In the Gospel, Jesus calls us his sheep and reminds us why coming together as a flock is so important: uniting in community, we imitate the unity of God.

Second Reading — John envisions a great white-robed multitude standing before the throne and before the Lamb. (Revelation 7:9, 14b-17).
