JANUARY 14, 2024
THE SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Eucharistic Miracle of Bettbrunn, Germany, 1125

The owner of a small farm was a man who was deeply devoted to the Most Holy Sacrament. This man lived an hour and a half away from the parish church of Tholling and he was not always able to attend Mass. Because of his zeal, he decided to solve the problem of not always being able to make it to church by secretly stealing a sacred Host and bringing it home. The farmer took the stick that he always brought with him and made an opening on the top end into which he placed the Host. Every day, when the livestock were resting, he stuck his stick into the ground and he knelt before the Most Holy Sacrament for many hours. For several months, the man continued in this manner until one day, without thinking, he impulsively threw the stick with the Sacred Portion at a herd that had strayed too far.

The Host fell on the ground and the farmer, deeply saddened, bent down to pick it up. Every attempt to lift it up proved to be to no avail and when he did not know what to do he sent for the parish priest of Tholling. The priest was also not able to pick it up and approached the Bishop Hartwich of Regensburg. Only when he promised to build a chapel in that place did he succeed in picking up the Host from the ground. In 1125, the building of the chapel was completed and the precious relic was kept in this place until 1330 when a fire destroyed everything. The chapel was later reconstructed and in its interior they placed one of the pillars that had been saved from the fire.
