What is Faith?

- 1). A confident belief in the truth, value or trustworthiness of a person, idea, or thing.
- 2). Belief that does not rest on logical proof or material evidence,
- 3). Belief and trust in God;
- 4). A body of beliefs.

Historical Background of the Lateran Basilica

The Lateran Basilica, also known as the Archbasilica of Saint John Lateran, is the oldest and highest-ranking of the four major basilicas in Rome. Its history dates back to the 4th century when it was dedicated by Pope Sylvester I. This dedication marked a significant milestone in the development of the Christian faith and the establishment of the Church as an institution.

The name "Lateran" comes from the Latin word "Lateranus," which refers to the family that donated the land on which the Basilica was built.

The dedication of the Lateran Basilica by Pope Sylvester I in the 4th century was a momentous event. It symbolized the triumph of Christianity over paganism and marked the beginning of a new era for the Church. The dedication ceremony was attended by Emperor Constantine, who played a crucial role in the legalization of Christianity in the Roman Empire.
