3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John.

They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

3<sup>ER</sup> DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Un poco más adelante, vio a Santiago y a Juan, hijos de Zebedeo, que estaban en una barca, remendando sus redes. Los llamó, y ellos, dejando en la barca a su padre con los trabajadores, se fueron con Jesús. - Mc 1, 19-20

The beginning of February starts a new chapter in our parish. The Saturday Masses of St. Edward, St. Patrick, and St. Richard will be combined and rotated among the three parishes. The first parish to host in the rotation is St. Patrick. Saturday Masses will be held there from February 3rd through May 25th @ 4 pm.

In other parish news, we are sad to announce that Jesús Cabrera will no longer be our Music Director as of the end of the month. We would like to thank Jesús for his hard work and dedication to the parish. May good fortune follow you always.

We would also like to welcome George Baumgardt as the new Music Director. We look forward to having you as part of the parish!

Saint Vincent de Paul

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus says; "Come after me and I will make you fishers of men". As disciples, we are called to continue God's work on Earth. Taking care of the poor is, indeed, living Gospel values. Consider answering the call to serve the poor by joining the SVDP Society. Contact Bill Frayer or the parish office for more information.

Knights of Columbus

See the Knights at the church exits today for information on our upcoming open house and the benefits of being a KC member.

Attention: All Master Key holders, please contact the Parish Office.

SVDP Sponsored Meal

This weekend we are having the sign up for the St. Vincent de Paul sponsored meal which will be held Tuesday, January 30 at North Pointe United Methodist Church. Due to a huge increase in the number of guests we serve (over 125) we need your help and support. We are in need of casseroles, bread, individually wrapped granola bars, and fresh mandarin oranges. Please contact Lynn Abler at 262-634-0439 for any info. or to sign up.

Human Concerns

Our next meeting will be held Feb. 7th @ 6:30pm in the rectory. The St. Ed's Human Concerns Committee is made up of representatives of various St. Ed programs such as; SVDP meal Program, Health care visitation ministry, SVDP food baskets, Souper bowl collection, The giving tree project, SVDP food collection, May rose sale, Women of St. Ed's baby shower, & much more. Please consider joining to participate and offer new ideas to help us all put our FAITH IN ACTION!

Thank You! to the many volunteers who helped take down our beautiful Christmas decorations on Sunday, January 7th. Everyone was so helpful. Willing to climb ladders and stairs, carry items to storage areas, move flowers, sweep floors - you did it all. We were done in record time. There was even time to have a nice chili lunch and chat, then a bit of rest before the Packer Game. Looking ahead to future decorating needs, we will be preparing Lent decorations on Sunday, February 11th after Mass, with setup in the sanctuary on Tuesday, February 13th after the 9:00 am all school Mass. And mark your calendars for Easter decorations to be set up on Friday, March 29th immediately after the Good Friday service. Please call Marla at (262)-497-8706 if you have any questions. With humble gratitude and blessings, Marla Mich, Lynn Abler & Laurie Hoeffert

Pensamientos del Padre Juan . . .

Gracia y Paz a ustedes, mis hermanos y hermanas:

Comenzamos nuestro peregrinar del Tiempo Ordinario con el Evangelio de Marcos. Este es el evangelio que leeremos durante este año litúrgico. Jesús comenzó su ministerio con urgencia: "El tiempo se ha cumplido. El reinado de Dios está cerca. Arrepiéntanse y crean en el evangelio". No hay mensaje más explícito que este.

Analícemos el mensaje contenido en esta declaración. Se ha cumplido el tiempo, esta sensación de que ya no hay espera. Lo que se suponía que iba a suceder, debe suceder ahora. No hay espera. Todo está listo y preparado para el reinado de Dios. Juan el Bautista preparó el camino. Juan destacó a Jesús entre la multitud. Dios Padre afirmó su presencia en el Bautismo, por lo que la nueva era ha comenzado. La declaración respira urgencia.

El Reino de Dios está cerca. Usé reinar porque transmite más el significado de la palabra griega que se usa allí. Jesús predica la venida dinámica del Reino de Dios, no como una estructura monolítica sino como una fuerza dinámica que anima a todos aquellos que quieren ser parte de ella. El Reino de Dios está sucediendo; cualquiera puede unirse a este movimiento. Jesús lidera el movimiento con su vida y ejemplo, presentando los valores de este reinado dinámico que ha entrado en la realidad humana.

Pero esta realidad acogedora, activa y para todos exige arrepentimiento. Requiere que uno dé un giro aparente en su vida para encarnar plenamente el reino de Dios. Esto requiere un compromiso renovado con la fe. No se puede continuar con el mismo estilo de vida. Debe cambiar. La belleza del reino de Dios requiere embellecer el corazón y la vida. El evangelio es una buena noticia. Entonces, Jesús invita al pueblo a creer en esta buena noticia: el tiempo se ha cumplido, el reino de Dios ha entrado en nuestras vidas y se nos ofrece una vida nueva en Dios si decidimos seguirlo.

Por supuesto, este mensaje crecerá más adelante a medida que veamos a Jesús viviendo este reino de Dios en sus acciones y palabras. Jesús, entonces, llama a sus apóstoles. El llamado nos recuerda que el reino de Dios es un evento comunitario y muchos pueden participar en él y compartirlo con el mundo. Estos discípulos luego se convierten en heraldos de la Buena Nueva para los demás. Jesús los enviará a predicar su mensaje transformador y urgente delante de él.

Al embarcarnos en este tiempo ordinario, revisemos nuestras tendencias dilatorias que se interponen en el camino de vivir, recibir y creer en las buenas nuevas con un sentido de urgencia. En el Señor no hay procrastinación. Él quiere que nos arrepiñamos y creamos. Nos llama a seguirlo, dejando todo atrás y acercándonos a él.

Bendiciones,

Juan M Camacho

Thoughts from Father Juan , , .

Grace and Peace to you, my brothers and sisters:

We begin our Ordinary Time journey with the Gospel of Mark. This is the Gospel we will be reading during this liturgical year. Jesus began his ministry with urgency: "This is the time of fulfillment. The reign of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel". There is no more explicit message than this one.

Let us parse the message contained in this statement. The time is fulfilled; this is the sense that there is no more waiting. What was supposed to happen must happen now. There is no waiting. Everything is ready and set for God's reign. John the Baptist prepared the way. John singled Jesus out in the crowd. God, the Father, affirmed his presence in the Baptism, so the new age has begun. The statement breathes urgency.

The Reign of God is at hand. I used "reign" because that better conveys the meaning of the Greek word used there. Jesus preaches the dynamic coming of the Kingdom of God, not as a monolithic structure but as a dynamic force that encourages all those who want to be part of it. The Reign of God is happening; anyone can join this movement. Jesus leads the movement with his life and example, presenting the values of this dynamic reign that has entered human reality.

But this reality that is welcoming, active, and for all requires repentance. It requires one to make an apparent turn in their lives to embody God's reign fully. This requires a renewed commitment to faith. One cannot continue the same lifestyle. It must change. The beauty of God's reign requires beautifying one's heart and life. "Gospel" means "good news". So, Jesus invites the people to believe in this good news: the time is fulfilled, God's reign has entered our lives, and we are offered a new life in God—if we decide to follow.

Of course, this message will grow later, as we see Jesus living out this reign of God in his actions and words. Jesus, then, calls his apostles. The calling reminds us that God's reign is a community event, and many can partake in it, sharing it with the world. These disciples then become the heralds of the good news to others. Jesus will send them to preach his transformative and urgent message ahead of him.

As we embark on this ordinary time, let us review our procrastinating tendencies that get in the way of living, receiving, and believing in the good news with a sense of urgency. In the Lord, there is no procrastinating. He wants us to repent and believe. He calls us to follow, leaving everything behind and walking closer to him.

Blessings,

Juan M Camacho
