FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BOSE

The readings invite us to reflect on how God's perspective challenges and calls us to transformation. God reminds Samuel that his choices are not based on outward appearances but on the heart. While others overlook David, God sees the future king within him. In the same way, we often judge ourselves and others by external qualities rather than recognizing the deeper worth that God sees. As children of God, we are called to live in his light, allowing his presence to reveal our true selves. Through this process of self-realization and transformation, we are healed from the darkness in our lives. Transformation begins when we confront the hidden parts of ourselves—our fears, insecurities, and judgments—and allow God's light to guide us. Though this journey may be uncomfortable, it leads to renewal and growth of newness in self and others. When we welcome his divine light, it not only restores us spiritually but also brings positive change to every aspect of our lives. God's presence transforms even the most ordinary moments, filling them with purpose and meaning. Trusting in his presence in every moment, we can see as God sees, including those that feel insignificant or challenging. Hence, we can be the people of light who radiate God's love, joy and hope to all.

Pray and Practice: Lord Jesus, help us to see beyond appearances and to live in your truth. May we recognize your presence in everything and everywhere. Continued prayers and love, Fr. Bose

For funeral arrangements, marriages, baptisms, etc., please contact Father Bose in Seymour at 940-655-8037.

HELPFUL DEFINITIONS - LENT

FAST: Eating less food than normal (doesn't necessarily mean no food).

What you can eat: One normal, full-sized meal, and two smaller meals which if combined would not exceed one full meal.

Why: "Denying material food, which nourishes our body, nurtures an interior disposition to listen to Christ and be fed by His saving word. Through fasting and praying, we allow Him to come and satisfy the deepest hunger that we experience in the depths of our being: the hunger and thirst for God." —Pope Benedict XVI

ABSTINENCE: Do not eat meat.

What you can eat: fish and seafood

Why: "Catholic peoples from time immemorial have set apart Friday for special penitential observance by which they gladly suffer with Christ that they may one day be glorified with Him. This is the heart of the tradition of abstinence from meat on Friday where that tradition has been observed in the holy Catholic Church." —USCCB

ALMSGIVING: Material generosity to the less fortunate.

What you can give: money, goods, acts of charity

Why: Almsgiving "represents a specific way to assist those in need and, at the same time, an exercise in self-denial to free us from attachment to worldly goods . . . Almsgiving helps us to overcome this constant temptation, teaching us to respond to our neighbor's needs and to share with others whatever we possess through divine goodness." —Pope Benedict XVI

FELLOW PARISHIONER

There is a new church directory being created for our parish here at St. Joseph. We have been given dates that Universal Church Directories will be in our community. The dates selected for us are April 8 and April 9 and will take place in the CCD building. Along with the dates, there are time slots to decide what works best for you and/or your family. Included in taking a photo for the directory is a complementary 8 x10 professional portrait. Please look at the provided information that has been mailed to you and read more of the specific details that have been included in the packet. There are several ways you can get registered for a photo time. One way is to register online by following the steps provided by the company. Another chance to get registered is to sign up for a time at church over the weekend services. Someone will be available on certain weekends to help you set up a time for your photo. If neither of these ways works for you, contact Darla Coffman (432) 238-6983, and she will happily get you registered with a time that fits your schedule. We are anticipating a great turnout for this church directory, which has not been done in 20 years. If you have any questions or concerns, do not hesitate to contact Darla Coffman at 432-238-6983. She will be happy to assist you.

Respectfully,

Pastoral Council and Finance Committee

Visit <https://www.crsricebowl.org/stories-of-hope/week-3> to read this week's Story of Hope. We will be taking up this collection on Holy Thursday, April 17th.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS: 4th Sunday of Lent

"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan." - Joshua 5:12 - Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BOSE

The readings invite us to reflect on how God's perspective challenges and calls us to transformation. God reminds Samuel that his choices are not based on outward appearances but on the heart. While others overlook David, God sees the future king within him. In the same way, we often judge ourselves and others by external qualities rather than recognizing the deeper worth that God sees. As children of God, we are called to live in his light, allowing his presence to reveal our true selves. Through this process of self-realization and transformation, we are healed from the darkness in our lives. Transformation begins when we confront the hidden parts of ourselves—our fears, insecurities, and judgments—and allow God's light to guide us. Though this journey may be uncomfortable, it leads to renewal and growth of newness in self and others. When we welcome his divine light, it not only restores us spiritually but also brings positive change to every aspect of our lives. God's presence transforms even the most ordinary moments, filling them with purpose and meaning. Trusting in his presence in every moment, we can see as God sees, including those that feel insignificant or challenging. Hence, we can be the people of light who radiate God's love, joy and hope to all. Pray and Practice: Lord Jesus, help us to see beyond appearances and to live in your truth. May we recognize your presence in everything and everywhere. Continued prayers and love, Fr. Bose

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE BOSE

Las lecturas nos invitan a reflexionar sobre cómo la perspectiva de Dios nos desafía y nos llama a la transformación. Dios le recuerda a Samuel que sus decisiones no se basan en las apariencias, sino en el corazón. Mientras otros pasan por alto a David, Dios ve al futuro rey en él. De la misma manera, a menudo nos juzgamos a nosotros mismos y a los demás por cualidades externas en lugar de reconocer el valor más profundo que Dios ve. Como hijos de Dios, estamos llamados a vivir en su luz, permitiendo que su presencia revele nuestro verdadero ser. A través de este proceso de autorrealización y transformación, sanamos de la oscuridad en nuestras vidas. La transformación comienza cuando confrontamos lo oculto de nosotros mismos—nuestros miedos, inseguridades y juicios—y permitimos que la luz de Dios nos guíe. Aunque este camino pueda ser incómodo, conduce a la renovación y al crecimiento de una nueva identidad en nosotros mismos y en los demás. Cuando acogemos su luz divina, no solo nos restaura espiritualmente, sino que también trae un cambio positivo a cada aspecto de nuestras vidas. La presencia de Dios transforma incluso los momentos más cotidianos, llenándolos de propósito y significado. Confiando en su presencia en cada momento, podemos ver como Dios ve, incluso en aquellos que parecen insignificantes o desafiantes. Así, podemos ser personas de luz que irradian el amor, la alegría y la esperanza de Dios a todos. Oración y práctica: Señor Jesús, ayúdanos a ver más allá de las apariencias y a vivir en tu verdad. Que reconozcamos tu presencia en todo y en todas partes. Con cariño y oraciones constantes, P. Bose.

Oremos por nuestros hermanos en casas de asilo y reclusos. Oremos fervientemente por todos nuestros enfermos para su sanación y recuperación.

Dios te salve, Reina y Madre de misericordia; vida, dulzura y esperanza nuestra. A ti llamamos los desterrados hijos de Eva; a ti suspiramos, gimiendo y llorando en este valle de lágrimas. Ea, pues, Señora Abogada nuestra, vuelve a nosotros esos tus ojos misericordiosos, y después de este destierro, muéstranos a Jesús, fruto de tu vientre ¡oh clemente, oh piadosa, oh dulce Virgen María! Amén.

Oremos por todos nuestros enfermos y hagamos todo lo que podamos para ayudarlos.
