FROM THE DESK OF FATHER SANDEEP

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's reading from Deuteronomy, Moses gives the people of Israel a simple choice: follow God's commandments and live a good, prosperous life, or turn away from God and face hardship. It shows that choosing to live by God's will is not just about following rules, but about choosing a life that leads to true happiness and peace. In the second reading St. Paul explains that Jesus is the "Image of the invisible God," meaning he shows us exactly what God is like. Jesus is the perfect reflection of who God is and what he wants for humanity.

And the Gospel reading about the parable of the Good Samaritan, teaches us to live out our faith through acts of love and compassion. It goes beyond being kind to those we know, urging us to help anyone in need, even those who are different from us. In a world filled with division, the parable calls for love that breaks down barriers. The Samaritan, who was usually despised, becomes the hero, showing us how to love without limits. "Go and do likewise," means that living with Christ's mercy should be part of our everyday lives, not just isolated acts of kindness. By living this way, we reflect God's love and help transform the world into a place of understanding and care. Amen.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

St. Joseph would like to give a special thanks to Al & Betty Kuehler who donated their wheat acreage to the church in the amount of $2,400.00. God Bless you abundantly, and thank you!

"LUNCHES OF LOVE - HELP NEEDED!"

The area Munday churches/ministerial alliance will be making lunches for area youth in need the month of July. This group has asked St. Joseph's to take the Thursdays in July- 10th, 17th, 24th, & 31st. Feeding is 150-180 kiddos. We are looking for 4 groups of people to each take ONE Thursday to help fill this need. The church will pay for the cost of the food. Your group would prepare and serve the food in to go boxes. If you think you can help or lead a group, please contact Janet Dillard. Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time - "Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" Luke 10:37 - This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: LUKE 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply,

*"You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart,
with all your being,
with all your strength,
and with all your mind,
and your neighbor as yourself."*

He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live."

But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

ADULTS: When have you gone out of your way to help a stranger in need?

CHILDREN: Would you help a new student who needed help? Why or why not?

St. Bonaventure, Bishop and Doctor of the Church - Feast Day is July 15th

"In Bonaventure we meet a unique personality. He was unsurpassed in sanctity, wisdom, eloquence, and gifted with a remarkable skill of accomplishing things, a heart full of love, a winning disposition, benevolent, affable, pious, charitable, rich in virtue, beloved by God and man. . . . The Lord endowed him with such a charming disposition that everyone who saw him was immediately attracted to him." In these words the historian of the Council of Lyons concludes his account on St. Bonaventure.

At an early age he was a celebrated teacher and a powerful preacher. At thirty-six he was called to the highest post among the Franciscans, the Order which honors him as a second founder. He was an important figure at the Council of Lyons. His virtue and wisdom, his versatility and mildness were major factors in attaining the happy result that the Greeks so easily returned to the unity of the Church.

Bonaventure was a subtle scholastic and a profound mystic. Because of the latter he is known as the "Seraphic Teacher." In philosophy he was the principal leader of the Platonic-Augustinian school of Franciscan thought; as such he stood opposed to the Aristotelianism that was making its way into the schools of the time (Thomas of Aquin). Bonaventure's Life of St. Francis was a favorite book of the Middle Ages. When St. Thomas was told about Bonaventure's work, he said: "Let us allow one saint to labor for another." His contemporaries are said to have believed that no one was "more handsome, more holy, or more learned" than he. Excerpted from The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch

Decimoquinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En la lectura de hoy de Deuteronomio, Moisés le da al pueblo de Israel una opción simple: seguir los mandamientos de Dios y vivir una vida buena y próspera, o alejarse de Dios y enfrentar dificultades. Muestra que elegir vivir según la voluntad de Dios no se trata solo de seguir reglas, sino de elegir una vida que conduzca a la verdadera felicidad y paz. En la segunda lectura, San Pablo explica que Jesús es la "Imagen del Dios invisible", lo que significa que nos muestra exactamente cómo es Dios. Jesús es el reflejo perfecto de quién es Dios y lo que quiere para la humanidad. Y la lectura del Evangelio sobre la parábola del Buen Samaritano, nos enseña a vivir nuestra fe a través de actos de amor y compasión. Va más allá de ser amable con aquellos que conocemos, instándonos a ayudar a cualquiera que lo necesite, incluso a aquellos que son diferentes a nosotros. En un mundo lleno de división, la parábola llama a un amor que rompa barreras. El samaritano, que solía ser despreciado, se convierte en el héroe, mostrándonos cómo amar sin límites. "Ve y haz tú lo mismo" significa que vivir con la misericordia de Cristo debe ser parte de nuestra vida cotidiana, no solo actos aislados de bondad. Al vivir de esta manera, reflejamos el amor de Dios y ayudamos a transformar el mundo en un lugar de comprensión y cuidado. Amén.

SIGAMOS ORANDO POR LOS ENFERMOS DE NUESTRA PARROQUIA, FAMILIARES Y AMIGOS.

Oremos por nuestros hermanos en casas de asilo y reclusos. Oremos fervientemente por todos nuestros enfermos para su sanación y recuperación.

Dios te salve, Reina y Madre de misericordia; vida, dulzura y esperanza nuestra. A ti llamamos los desterrados hijos de Eva; a ti suspiramos, gimiendo y llorando en este valle de lágrimas. Ea, pues, Señora Abogada nuestra, vuelve a nosotros esos tus ojos misericordiosos, y después de este destierro, muéstranos a Jesús, fruto de tu vientre ¡oh clemente, oh piadosa, oh dulce Virgen María! Amén.

Oremos por todos nuestros enfermos y hagamos todo lo que podamos para ayudarlos. Háganos saber si es necesario agregar o eliminar nombres.

LET US KEEP IN OUR PRAYERS THE SICK OF OUR PARISH, OUR FAMILY MEMBERS, AND OUR FRIENDS.

Please remember all rest home and shut-in parishioners. Let us earnestly pray for all our sick for their healing and recovery.

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus, O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Amen.

Please remember all rest home and shut-in parishioners. Let us earnestly pray for all our sick and do whatever we can to help them. Please let us know if names need to be added or removed.

DECIMOQUINTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO: LUCAS 10:25-37

Había un erudito de la ley que se puso de pie para probar a Jesús y dijo: "Maestro, ¿qué debo hacer para heredar la vida eterna?" Jesús le dijo: "¿Qué está escrito en la ley? ¿Cómo lo lees? Él respondió:

*"Amarás al Señor, tu Dios,
con todo tu corazón,
con todo tu ser,
con todas tus fuerzas,
y con toda tu mente,
y a tu prójimo como a ti mismo".*

Él le respondió: "Has respondido correctamente; Haz esto y vivirás".

Pero como quería justificarse a sí mismo, le dijo a Jesús: «¿Y quién es mi prójimo?» Jesús le respondió: "Un hombre cayó víctima de unos ladrones cuando bajaba de Jerusalén a Jericó. Lo desnudaron, lo golpearon y se fueron, dejándolo medio muerto. Un sacerdote pasaba por ese camino, pero cuando lo vio, pasó por el lado opuesto. De la misma manera, un levita llegó al lugar, y cuando lo vio, pasó por el lado opuesto. Pero un viajero samaritano que se encontró con él se conmovió de compasión al verlo. Se acercó a la víctima, vertió aceite y vino sobre sus heridas y las vendó. Luego lo cargó sobre su propio animal, lo llevó a una posada y lo cuidó. Al día siguiente, sacó dos monedas de plata y se las dio al posadero con la instrucción: "Cuídalo. Si gastas más de lo que te he dado, te lo pagaré a mi regreso. ¿Cuál de estos tres, en su opinión, era vecino de la víctima de los ladrones? Él respondió: "El que lo trató con misericordia". Jesús le dijo: "Ve y haz tú lo mismo".
