Little Tiny Child

My dear parishioners, King Herod (called "Great") ruled the eastern Mediterranean at the time of Jesus' birth. The Judean king, exhausted by his relentless pursuit of administering and preserving power, eventually became incompetent and mentally unstable, a final decay not uncommon to ruthless and aging sovereigns. Toward the end of his reign, executions and exiles, palace politics and poisonings were not uncommon. Plots and counter-plots, both real and perceived, swirled around Herod's head like smoke.

Esteemed as a brilliant commander and politician, at least in his early years, and monument builder in his latter years, Herod witnessed his 30-year reign weakened by stagnancy and factional intrigue. Signs were obvious, important decisions lagged, great engineering projects stopped. Herod's persistent hostility toward subjects and courtiers alike diminished the aging king's accomplishments and ratcheted up the general discontent of his subjects. Ancient rulers often employed savage methods to eliminate actual or perceived enemies. Herod was no exception.

Near the end of Herod's life, three royal gentiles from Persia arrive in Jerusalem with their small caravan. Jerusalem's inhabitants, weak and powerful alike, consider the arrival of the eastern magi as both auspicious and ominous. Almost immediately, these royal visitors seek out Herod to confirm the oracles of a male child in Bethlehem destined to become King of the Jews.

Haunted by the specter of irrelevance, and fearful of the magi's revelation, the Judean king deceives his visitors and sets about to annihilate the helpless child. Targeting Bethlehem's innocent male children, the murderous Herod orders his soldiers to slaughter all infants two years and under, lest the mysterious boy "king" rise up one day to overthrow Herod's dynasty.

Become an Active Member in a Parish Ministry

We are happy to have all of you as part of our St. Philip family. We are a small but mighty Parish. All parishioners play vital and active roles in the life of our Parish. If you or your family has not yet found a ministry to take part in, use the beginning of this new year as a chance to do so.

All of our ministries are reaching out for you to join them in fellowship, while serving our Church and community. Enjoy the featured articles about the many active ministries at St. Philip. Read about their goals and projects for the year, then decide which ministry your time and talent can serve best. There is a need and place for all to serve.

"And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?'
Then I said, 'Here am I! Send me.'" [Isa 6:8]

The Women's Guild

Our Mission Statement: The Women's Guild of St. Philip the Apostle provides financial assistance and personal service to the care and upkeep of the sanctuary and sacristy, as well as, assistance to the Pastor in the spiritual and corporal work of caring for God's house and other designated parish activities. These tasks are carried out in a spirit of familial charity and fellowship.

We assist other parish ministries by providing receptions and decorating the parish hall. Upon request, we host funeral receptions in the parish hall or deliver food dishes to the deceased's family home. We support charities outside of St. Philip. Recently we made Christmas gift boxes for the Seafarers Center at the Houston ship channel. Please read this story on p3.

Journey in the Catholic Faith

Journey in the Catholic Faith will resume our study of Genesis on January 13, 2021 and continue until February 17, Ash Wednesday. If you haven't had the chance to join us, the new year is the perfect time to join us!

During the 6 weeks of Lent (Feb. 17-Mar. 24), the group will use the Emmaus Journey Reflections on the Sunday readings, meeting EVERY WEDNESDAY in the Parish Hall at 7:00 pm.

We will return to the study of Genesis, Ch 35-50, following Pentecost. Please join us for a delightful sharing of our thoughts as they pertain to the scriptures.

Women's Guild Supporting our Diocese

At the last meeting of the Women's Guild on December 9th, the ladies wrapped Christmas boxes for the Seafarers who dock at the Port of Houston. Many of the seafarers do not have an opportunity to leave the ship for 12-13 months.

Churches and groups around the Houston area wrap "goodie" boxes consisting of playing cards, deodorant, shampoo, popcorn, socks, gloves, hats, and other essentials that the men and women are not able to get while they are confined to their vessel. The boxes are given out at their annual Christmas celebration.

Our ladies delivered the boxes to the Seafarers Center at the Port on December 9th. During a normal year, Cardinal DiNardo celebrates Mass for those who bring the boxes, followed by a delicious lunch and exchange of gifts. Unfortunately, due to COVID, that could not happen. Delivering the boxes, however, and seeing the many hundreds of boxes brought to the Center is heartwarming and a blessing. See p6 for more Women's Guild news!

Invitation to Parish Men Join the Knights of Columbus

The Knights of Columbus, council 9794 at St. Philip, invites all Catholic men over the age of 18 and in good standing with the Catholic Church to join. We serve the needs of our parish community. We are Catholic gentlemen committed to the ideals of charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism. We take pride in participating in other parish ministries.

Please talk to one of our Knights who serve as ushers, lectors, EOMs, sacristans, and choir members. Faith and Hope are common among us as we take action towards Charity in our fund-raising projects.

Of course, you all will notice our Unity as we work together to make our projects successful.

We are also very proud of our "turnouts" in support of events such as Confirmation, Holy Week, and/or Funerals. Our Fraternity, meeting with other KofC Councils in our Galveston-Houston Assembly is especially rewarding.

We are blessed to have many military veterans in the KCs who served the USA honorably, and we all support Patriotism every opportunity we have.

The KCs enable good men to become better Catholics, engaging in service to the Parish, Church, and community.

Joining has never been easier. Contact Grand Knight Ray Kessler (rkessler@stphilip.cc or 832-644-8078), for more information.

Prime Timers (55+ Social Group)

Join us for great memories! The Prime Timers host shopping trips, visits to museums, and visits to local and state attractions. You can expect a turnkey, planned day. All transportation is arranged. We leave St. Philip at about 9:30am and usually return before 5:00pm.

There is a modest cost for venue admission and lunch is on your own at a memorable restaurant near the attraction. You can expect to relax, learn, and visit with fellow parishioners. Contact information is on the last page of every Spirit and Truth newsletter.

Pray for the end of COVID!

CCE Invites you to attend:

FAITH in Action

Join us, January 10, in the parish hall after the 8:30 am Mass. Our CCE coordinator, Carlie Richard, will provide a short lesson on how families can put our faith into action by performing the Corporal Works of Mercy.

We will introduce our next Work of Mercy: Shelter the Homeless. All parishioners are invited to attend.

CCE News

For Advent, our middle and high school students kept the true focus of the season by doing Advent Buddies. Each student selected another member of their class to be their secret 'Advent Buddy'. The idea is similar to a secret Santa, but the focus was on messages of faith and hope during the Advent season. We had shoe holders in the parish hall that served as mailboxes for the delivery of these special thoughts.

During the three weeks of Advent that we had class, the kids wrote little notes of encouragement in their faith journey to their 'buddy' and placed it in their buddy's "mailbox" on their way to class. After the initial giggles and "but what do I write?" the kids really appreciated this simple reminder to reach out to their friends with a kind note. We hope they carry this lesson of thoughtfulness with them throughout the year.

Wednesday CCE adopted one of the families in need through our Mary's Blessings ministry. Because the youth were so generous last year, we chose a family of 6 this year to spread the wealth a bit. The kids bought and wrapped presents for the child they were given. We were so touched by the generosity of our CCE families! Once again, we were able to share some of our blessings with a family that could use our support.

Mary's Blessings Ministry

Thanks for your Generosity!

Dear Parishioners, it has been a crazy year, but we want to let you know how much we have appreciated your monthly donations to Mary's Blessings. We all know how hard just getting by has been for many people. Everyone has heard stories of hardship from friends or neighbors. With so much going on to disrupt our lives you have continued to give generously to the poor in our area. It seems like no matter how much we have to share with them, we could use even more. It is disheartening to see how many calls come in with requests for such large amounts to pay the rent and utilities these days. There is so much suffering going on!

This Christmas season you have been especially generous with our Christmas families. Last year we only provided for 6 families with 26 children. This year we have had 15 families with 52 children recommended to us by the Huffman ISD counselors and you have taken all of them to provide Christmas for the children! Thank You!! May you and your families have a wonderful Christmas in spite of the Corona Virus and may your generosity never slow down!

For You have been a defense for the helpless, a defense for the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat; for the breath of the ruthless is like a rain storm against a wall. [Isa 25:4]

Choir Corner

We need both singers and instrumentalists

Our dedicated long-time members want to mentor beginners who want to sing and serve the Lord. The ability to read music is not a prerequisite.

Everyone can actively participate in sung prayer, loud or timid, on or off key, just make a joyful noise unto the Lord! Each of us are called to actively participate in the holy sacrifice of the Mass. Pope St. John Paul II wrote that at every Mass, “the faithful are to take an active part in the singing.”

Please come to a choir rehearsal and consider singing with us. We meet at 6:20pm on Tuesday nights and are finished by 8pm. Contact Kathy Corbett in the St. Philip office if you are not already a registered member here at St. Philip the Apostle. We look forward to welcoming you into our choir family.

Women’s Guild (cont’d)

We resumed meetings on December 8, 2020 at 10:30 am. We have our meetings on the second Tuesday of each month (next meeting, January 12).

Our dues are $20 and we welcome both active and non-active members. You can also go to our parish website (www.stphiliphuffmantx.org) and download the membership form. The membership dues are a source of revenue for the Guild. If you are a working woman who cannot attend our day-time meetings, please lend your support with your prayers plus a donation of dues to help the Guild achieve its goals. It takes everyone working together to enable us to serve our parish.

The Women’s Guild is about parish women enjoying life in Christ together. Our members celebrate the warmth, talents, experiences and feelings of one another as we work and pray together. We treasure the happiness of being together and sharing our lives. We do things from the goodness of our hearts. We are open to having others in our lives, and we hope our new members will include you!

Usher Ministry

Ushers Needed Immediately!

We have an urgent need for Ushers at all of our weekend and holy day Masses. Your “Yes” is especially needed for the Saturday 4 pm and Sunday 11 am Masses.

Our Ushers’ primary responsibilities are to greet parishioners and guests and to assist in seating them appropriately in the Church. We assist those who need doors held open, both into the Church and into the worship area. Ushers arrive on campus 20 minutes before Mass begins.

Ushers also assist in the collection of the Offertory, as well as ensure an efficient, reverent Communion procession, as required.

After Mass, Ushers assist in the distribution of the bulletins and inspect the worship area: kneelers are set upright, and articles that the congregation may have left behind are secured.

Ushers must be 18 years old and must be trained in Safe Environment. Please contact our Usher Ministry at usher@stphilip.cc or talk to one of our Ushers after Mass if you can help.

Children’s Liturgy Program

We express a heart-felt thank you to Loretta Schermock for the exquisite altar cloths made for the Children’s Liturgy Program. We are indeed fortunate to be the recipient of Loretta’s God-given talent.

Altar Cloths, along with special vestments worn by Catholic priests, hold specific meaning in the Church and act as a unifying symbol to Catholic worshippers throughout the world. The four common colors used are red, white, purple and green.

Green altar cloths and vestments are used in Catholic Masses between seasons of celebration and special observances. Specifically, the altar is decorated in green after the Epiphany and after Pentecost. Green is indicative of plants and trees, representing growth and hope for life eternal.

During feasts of the martyrs, feasts of The Passion, Palm Sunday and Pentecost, the altar cloth and vestments are red, symbolizing fire and blood to represent the sacrifice of martyrs.

Representing innocence, purity, triumph and joy, the color white is used for altar cloths and vestments during the Christmas and Easter seasons, celebrating the birth and resurrection of Christ. White is also used during feasts of the Lord, All Saints Day and weddings. Gold can embellish or replace white altar cloths for special occasions.

Purple altar cloths are used to represent suffering, mourning and penitence. It is used during the season of Lent, when Catholic worshippers often give up worldly pleasures and make an extra effort to give up vices, in honor of Christ’s sacrifice. It is also used during Advent, except for the third Sunday of the season, when it is replaced with rose. Other occasions for purple throughout the year include Rogation days, Ember days and vigils.

“Lully, lullay /thou little tiny child /By by, lully lullay / Herod the king /In his raging /Charged he hath this day /His men of might /In his own sight /All young children to slay.” [Coventry Carol]

Approaching the little tiny child of Bethlehem, the unsuspecting magi learn from Mary that her infant’s name is Jesus, meaning God-will-rescue. After the Persians depart, God decisively intervenes to rescue the Holy Family from Herod’s malevolent plans. Only when the king dies does the Holy Family depart their Egyptian refuge and return to the Galilee.

Fully human, fully God, Bethlehem’s little tiny child grows to manhood in Nazareth. At the outset of his public ministry, the son of Mary and Joseph proclaims a message of deliverance, announcing “a time of favor,” “a day of salvation,” “a covenant to the people.” [Isa 49:8] Jesus of Nazareth yearns to liberate his people from sin and rescue them from darkness. In time, his many followers would acknowledge him as God’s beloved son, the messiah, the Holy One of Israel. He is the Alpha and Omega through whom “all things were made,” [Jn 1:3] the one “who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.” [Rev 1:8]

To his disciples who persevere in his Gospel, the Son of God promises: “I am coming soon; hold fast what you have, so that no one may seize your crown.” [Rev 3:11] Thus, the Christ of God is the messiah of eternity, the chosen one “ordained by God to be judge of the living and the dead.” [Acts 10:41] When “the day of the Lord comes, the great and manifest day,” [Acts 2:20] he will appear in his glory accompanied by angels and the myriad of heavenly hosts. Sitting on his glorious throne, [cf. Mt 19:28] he will weigh the deeds of leaders and nations on the scales of divine justice. (The vicious Herod will not escape this judgment.) The great assembly of peoples and nations who produce a harvest of justice will receive a glorious inheritance from the King of Kings and Lord of Lords: a Kingdom of Light made ready for them from the foundation of the world. [cf 1 Jn 1:5; Mt 25:34] Sincerely in the hearts of Jesus and Mary. Your pastor, Reverend Richard Barker. +++

Epiphany of the Lord, Feast Day January 3 (Blessing of Chalk)

From the East came the Magi to Bethlehem to adore the Lord; they seek a king, to learn if Bethlehem’s child is the one in whom the world can place its trust. The astrologers sought out a king. God gave them a child. The magi gave the boy great riches. The God-man Jesus gave the gentiles salvation.

The Gospel of Matthew describes three Wise Men, following the Star of Bethlehem, to meet the baby Jesus.

Caspar, who gave the Christ child frankincense, and received in return, perfect faith. child gold, and received spiritual wealth and charity.

Melchior, who gave the Christ

Balthasar, who gave the Christ child myrrh, and was given perfect truth and meekness.

A St. Philip tradition is to write an inscription, using chalk, above the front door lintel, beginning with a prayer:

And so on the lintel of these doors, we invoke the blessing of the Lord on this Feast of the Epiphany. May this inscription be a sign to us of God’s providential care.

To the left, we inscribe “20,” the first century of the third millennium, binding ourselves in faith to the fullness of time and eternity.

C + M + B representing the three Wise Men are inscripted.

To the right, we inscribe the “21” year of the first century of the third millennium, for all who enter through these doors have been blessed with life and abundance in this year of grace.

PRAYER:

LET US pray. Bless, O Lord God almighty, this dwelling, that in it there may be health, purity, the strength of victory, humility, goodness and mercy, the fulfillment of your Law of Love, the thanksgiving to God the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. And may this blessing remain upon this house and upon all who dwell herein. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

James O'Donnell, Flo Gaines, Mario Sojo,
St. Philip Parishioners

O God of ancient blessing, your servant Mary pondered in her heart
the treasured words spoken about her Son,
our Savior Jesus Christ.

Bless us as we gather in his name,
and prepare our hearts to receive his Spirit,
that our tongues may confess him Lord,
every day of this new year,
and for ever and ever. Amen.

Altar Flowers Given

By Brett and Carlie Richard

In Memory of

Carl Kenneth Richard, father of Brett Richard

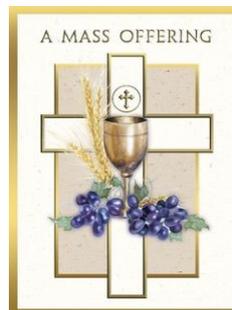

All are invited to sponsor a bouquet for their intentions. The donation for a bouquet is $50.00.

The flower binder can be found on the display case counter next to the main front doors. Please fill in the information for the date you choose.

Mass Intentions

The greatest and most powerful prayer we possess is the Mass. The fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. This is why our Church encourages the faithful to have Mass offered for loved ones, both living and deceased. It is a worthy and ancient Catholic devotional practice.

To have a Mass offered, please call our St. Philip parish office at (281) 324-1478. We will let you know what Masses are available in the liturgical calendar. Mass intentions may be requested for most weekday and weekend Masses.

Stop by the office or give us a call. We will help you!

HELP WANTED

Office Help Needed

St. Philip is blessed to have a great team of volunteers working in our office during the week. We are looking for one more volunteer to complete our roster! Office tasks would include computer work, clerical work, and answering the phone and door. If you are able to volunteer from 9 am - 1 pm on Thursday mornings, please contact Kathy Corbett in the parish office at kcorbett@stphilip.cc or 281-324-1478.
