(Matthew 10:38)

Pope Benedict XVI
said "The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were
made for greatness".
"Comfort" puts me
first. "Picking up your
cross and following Jesus" puts God and

can achieve
greatness!

READINGS FOR TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—YEAR A

READING I 2 Kgs 4:8-11, 14-16a

A reading from the Book of Second Kings,

One day Elisha came to Shunem,
where there was a woman of influence, who urged
him to dine with her.
Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop
there to dine.
So she said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God.
Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof
and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp,
so that when he comes to us he can stay there."
Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room
overnight.
Later Elisha asked, "Can something be done for her?"
His servant Gehazi answered, "Yes!
She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years."
Elisha said, "Call her."
When the woman had been called and stood at the door,
Elisha promised, "This time next year
you will be fondling a baby son."

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 89:2-3, 16-17, 18-19

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

The promises of the LORD I will sing forever,
through all generations my mouth shall proclaim your faithfulness.
For you have said, "My kindness is established forever;"
in heaven you have confirmed your faithfulness. R.
Blessed the people who know the joyful shout;
in the light of your countenance, O LORD, they walk.
At your name they rejoice all the day,
and through your justice they are exalted. R.
You are the splendor of their strength,
and by your favor our horn is exalted.
For to the LORD belongs our shield,
and to the Holy One of Israel, our king. R.

READING II Rom 6:3-4, 8-11

A reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Romans,

Brothers and sisters:
Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ
Jesus
were baptized into his death?
We were indeed buried with him through baptism into
death,
so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of the Father,
we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ,
we believe that we shall also live with him.
We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no
more;
death no longer has power over him.
As to his death, he died to sin once and for all;
as to his life, he lives for God.
Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead
to sin
and living for God in Christ Jesus.
The Word of the Lord.

For ever
I will sing
the goodness
of the Lord

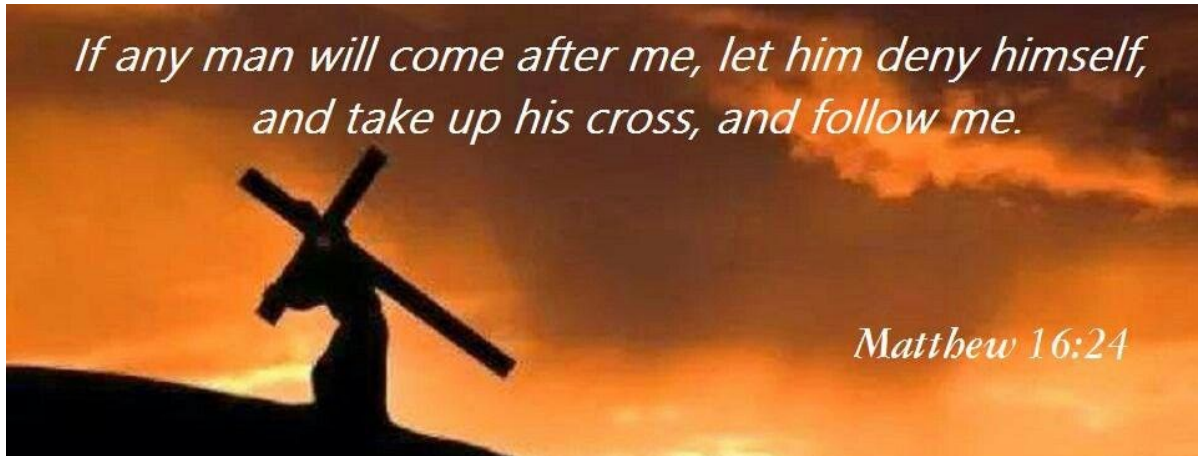

Psalm 89

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation;
announce the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL FOR CORPUS CHRIST SUNDAY, YEAR A

GOSPEL Matthew 10:37-42

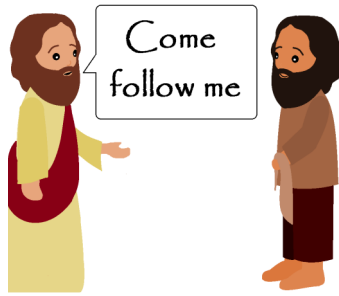

A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to his apostles:

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me,
and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;
and whoever does not take up his cross
and follow after me is not worthy of me.
Whoever finds his life will lose it,
and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me,
and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.
Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet
will receive a prophet's reward,
and whoever receives a righteous man
because he is a righteous man
will receive a righteous man's reward.
And whoever gives only a cup of cold water
to one of these little ones to drink
because the little one is a disciple—
amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Following Jesus Will Cause Conflict

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 2, 2023

Reading I: 2 Kings 4:8–11, 14–16

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 69:8-10, 14, 17, 33-35

Reading II: Romans 6:3–4, 8–11

Gospel: Matthew 10:37–42

The Gospel reading today is a continuation of last week's instructions to the apostles as Jesus sends them out to expand his work of healing, teaching, and driving out demons. The first half of the reading contains some solemn teachings: disciples must love Jesus more than their own families, and they must be willing to lose their lives in to find it.

It is easy for us to get defensive or upset about being asked to love Jesus more than our parents or our children. Yet what Jesus was asking wasn't a new teaching in his tradition, a tradition which emphasized that one must follow God before one's parents. We should be clear that Jesus is not telling us it is wrong to love our family or that we should love them less than we do.

What he is saying is that sometimes following him will create conflict within our families. We should expect resistance and breaks in some relationships if we are faithful to what Jesus is asking of us. In those times, we will lose the life as we know it to be faithful to him. Still today, it is not unusual for there to be family conflict when one person begins to deepen in his or her faith commitment while others around them don't. Ask any parish RCIA director, and she can tell you stories of how painful it is for catechumens to become Catholic when their family disagrees or even disowns them for their faith in Jesus. Yet all of them who go through with it do so because they believe they are "finding" new life despite losing their old life.

Questions of the Week

- 1) Has your faith ever caused disagreements or conflicts with loved ones? Please share.
- 2) Share about something you have "lost" in your life because of your faith, and also about how your faith has helped you to find new life.

Jesus wants us to love others
because we love Him.

“And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones who is known to be
