hh. How did Abel respond to God’s will?

ii. Since God offers us fullness of life, what does He require of us?

5. Preparing for lesson:

a. Each week, introduce the Gospel by reading to the students. Ask the students to give you a brief description of what the Gospel message is about. Discuss any points they may have missed.
b. Begin discussion on God’s love.
   i. God loves the World
   ii. God loves all the things He created
   iii. God loves all of us
   iv. God wants good things for us and from us
v. God love Adam and Eve, even when they disobeyed Him.
vi. God saved Isaac because of the love, loyalty and obedience Abraham showed for God.
vii. God gave us free will to make decisions. Sometimes our decisions are mistakes and we must face consequences. We should always ask forgiveness and forgive others mistakes.
viii. Even though Cain disobeyed God, He did set a mark upon him so that no one would harm him.
ix. God wants us to love one another, be truthful, and keep peace with one another.

c. After placing the Essential Questions on the balloon shapes, ask children to respond to them. Place their answers on the back of the balloon questions and hang them in the room-these should stay up throughout the year and reviewed as the year progresses.

Seventh/Eighth Grade Lesson

Theme: God Loves Us

Lesson Plan Format

Curriculum: I. God the Father

1. Prayer for the Day: (dealing with lesson subject)

   Having risen from sleep, we worship You, blessed God, and sing to You, mighty Lord, the angelic hymn: Holy, holy, holy are You, O God; through the prayers of the Theotokos have mercy on us.. (Since the children do not read-teacher may read the prayer to the children, as they stand)

2. Pre-Lesson: (any preparation needed to begin lesson)

   • Print a copy of Icons of the Creation – large one for the classroom and small ones for the students (found in notebook)
   • Print a copy of the ‘Prayer for the day’.
   • Print “Dear God” pages.
   • Print copy of “Hymn-Δούς Ζωή...”
   • Make a list of vocabulary for lesson:
     i. Using pattern of balloon (included) cut out one balloon for each word from construction paper to keep in classroom.
     ii. Construction paper-different colors
     i. Scissors, glue, ruler.

3. Objective: (what do I want the students to know by the end of the lesson?)

   It is important that the children understand that God Loves us, no matter what. He has forgiven us, even when we have not been obedient. It is important for the children to know that God loves them and that they need to love Him, as well. In Third Grade, students learn about the love God has for Adam and Eve, Abraham and Isaac. Although Adam and Eve disobeyed God, He still loved them and when Abraham showed his love, loyalty and obedience to God, God showed His love for Abraham by saving Isaac. In Fourth Grade, students learn of examples of people who were tested by God. God gave us free will to make our own choices and when we make mistakes, we have consequences, but God still loves us. He wants us to ask for forgiveness when we make mistakes and to forgive others with they make mistakes. In the Fifth Grade, students learn of Cain and Abel, as well as others and how these people of the Old Testament responded to the will of God. In the Sixth Grade, students study peer pressure and making right and wrong choices. One leads to rewards and one leads to consequences. Students will work on how to make choices toward correct decisions. The Church is helpful through the teachings of Christian moral and spiritual values. In the Seventh and Eighth Grade, students learn about God revealing Himself to Moses and how Prophets taught the people about God. They will also understand that God is our Creator and the mystery of Creation. They will learn that God loves mankind and wants us to have a personal relationship with Him (Theosis).
