Prepare the Way of the Lord

The Gospel reading this weekend tells us to prepare the way of the Lord. What kind of preparation are you doing this Advent? A lot of us are preparing by getting the house decorated, putting up the tree, and buying gifts. We need to also prepare in the way John the Baptist was calling us to prepare for Christ's birth.

At St. Cecilia this weekend, we are giving you the opportunity to prepare in a number of ways. Even though it is a busy time of year, please make time to come to our Advent Mission this Sunday evening and then again on Monday. By coming to the talk, you are also adding time to reconcile with Our Lord by going to confession on Sunday evening after the talk. You can add prayer time at our Eucharistic adoration on Monday evening.

I invite you to take the stress away from your preparations for Christmas and add some time for your spiritual renewal and begin Advent truly preparing the way of Our Lord.

Amen? Amen!

Fr. Jesse

Preparing for the Journey

EVENING 2 7-8:30 p.m.

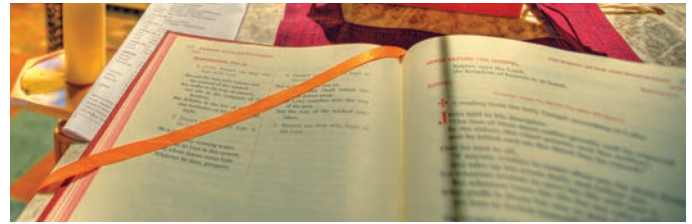

Arriving at the Manger

with RYAN & CATHERINE LOPEZ

Ryan & Catherine work for NET (National Evangelization Teams) Ministries. They moved to Cincinnati in July 2014 to establish a regional office for NET here in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. Married for a year and a half, Ryan and Catherine have a passion for sharing Christ with others. They now live in Mt. Washington and are members of Guardian Angels Parish.

Join us as we prepare ourselves for the birth of our Savior.
And, invite a friend!

THE READINGS FOR THIS WEEK

Highway construction

Baruch 5:1-9 Psalm 126:1-6

Philippians 1:4-6, 8-11 Luke 3:1-6

"Make ready the way of the Lord, clear Him a straight path." – Luke 3:4

Before Christ's Christmas coming and His Second Coming, we need to make a highway in the desert. We need this highway so we can return to the Lord from the exile of sin and so the Lord can return to take us from our exile on earth (see 1 Pt 2:11) to our heavenly home. This desert highway is both for us (Bar 5:7) and the Lord to use (Lk 3:4). We are to use the highway first to get out of the exile of sin. Then Jesus will come on it to take us home from our exile on earth.

We construct and travel this highway by repentance — deep repentance, "a baptism of repentance" (Lk 3:3). By repentance, we fill in the emptiness of sin's "death valley" and level mountains of pride and inflated egos (Lk 3:5). As we confess our sins, the Lord makes straight (Lk 3:5) our winding excuses, rationalizations, unrealistic denials, and self-deceptions. The rough, jagged, cutting, harmful edges of our selfish attitudes are made smooth through repentance, forgiveness, Confession, and reconciliation (Lk 3:5).

Make and drive the highway of repentance into Christmas and heaven.

- Prayer: Father, keep me on the holy highway (Is 35:8).
- Promise: "My prayer is that your love may more and more abound, both in understanding and wealth of experience, so that with a clear conscience and blameless conduct you may learn to value the things that really matter, up to the very day of Christ." — Phil 1:9-10
- Praise: Praise You, Jesus, "the Way, and the Truth, and the Life" (Jn 14:6). All glory and honor to You!

A CLOSER LOOK AT OUR FAITH

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8 | SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION
OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY | HOLY DAY MASSES: 9AM, 12:10PM, & 5:30PM

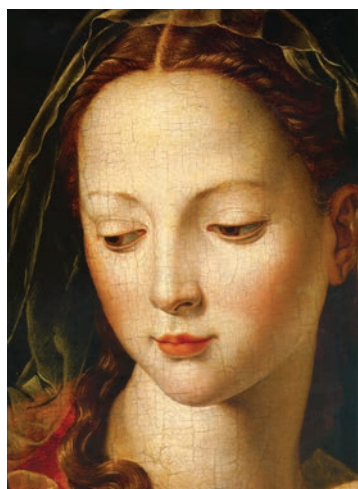

CATECHESIS

(kat'i-ke'sis) n.

May we worship Mary?

No. Only God can be worshipped. But we can revere Mary as the Mother of our Lord. [971]

By worship we mean the humble, unconditional acknowledgment of the absolute superiority of God over all creatures. Mary is a creature like us. In faith she is our Mother. And we should honor our parents. There is a biblical basis for this, since Mary herself says, "For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed" (Lk 1:48b). So the Church has Marian shrines and places of pilgrimage, feast days, hymns, and prayers, for instance, the Rosary. It is a compendium of the Gospels. (YOUCAT question 149)

EUCCHARISTIC EXPOSITION ADORERS NEEDED Every Wednesday we are privileged to adore Jesus in Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 9:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. There is an immediate need for a new person to take over the 4-4:30 p.m. time slot on a weekly basis. Please prayerfully consider giving a bit of your time to the Lord each week. New adorers are also needed and welcomed throughout the day on Wednesday. If you are unable to commit to a definite adoration time each week, perhaps consider becoming a substitute adorer. Please call (513) 871-5757, ext. 243, to sign up.

Saint Nicholas (d. 350)

The absence of the "hard facts" of history is not necessarily an obstacle to the popularity of saints, as the devotion to St. Nicholas shows. Both the Eastern and Western Churches honor him, and it is claimed that after the Blessed Virgin, he is the saint most pictured by Christian artists. And yet, historically, we can pinpoint only the fact that Nicholas was the fourth-century bishop of Myra, a city in Lycia, a province of Asia Minor.

As with many of the saints, however, we are able to capture the relationship which Nicholas had with God through the admiration which Christians have had for him—an admiration expressed in the colorful stories which have been told and retold through the centuries.

Perhaps the best-known story about Nicholas concerns his charity toward a poor man who was unable to provide dowries for his three daughters of marriageable age. Rather than see them forced into prostitution, Nicholas secretly tossed a bag of gold through the poor man's window on three separate occasions, thus enabling the daughters to be married. Over the centuries, this particular legend evolved into the custom of gift-giving on the saint's feast. In the English-speaking countries, St. Nicholas became, by a twist of the tongue, Santa Claus—further expanding the example of generosity portrayed by this holy bishop.

PASTOR'S RAMBLINGS

MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL: I got tickets to the Monday night Bengals game (photo, above) a few weeks ago and had such a great time! It's so exciting to have our Bengals playing well this year, and I was lucky that I was able to attend a game. Sadly, we lost the game, but it was a great time with friends, and I ended up running into a lot of parishioners before the game. + GOD'S PLAN FOR A JOY-FILLED MARRIAGE: Our engaged couples had their marriage preparation class (photo, below) on Nov. 14. Our director of religious education, Cody Egner, taught the class. The couples felt they really got a lot out of the class. We all enjoyed a nice lunch at Skyline and got to know a little about each other, and the couples got to talk about wedding plans. I always enjoy the chance to spend time with them. + CAMPAIGN CALLS: We had a really great turnout for the phone-a-thon (photo, left) for the One Faith, One Hope, One Love Campaign. Twenty parishioners made phone calls to parishioners about our archdiocesan campaign. I am so thankful to all of those who spent their evening helping to make the calls. + HUNTING: I took some time off recently and went hunting with some friends. Every year they invite me to hunt with them on their property in Kentucky (photo, left).

+ CONGRATULATIONS!

My nephew Craig Bengal (photo, right) was married to Julie Sunderman on Saturday, Nov. 21. He is the son of parishioners Mark and Theresa Bengal. I was so happy to have them celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage at St. Cecilia.

David Whitehead and Christine Burgess (photo, below left) were married here Nov. 14, as were Kyle Vitale and Laura Marvin (photo, below right). My classmate and brother priest Fr. Kyle Schnippel presided over Kyle and Laura's wedding. Please keep all of our couples in your prayers.

+ FIRST RECONCILIATION: Our second-grade school and PREP students had their first reconciliation on Thursday, Nov. 19. It was a beautiful evening for our children. Thank you to Msgr. Lane for helping hear the confessions.

+ STEVE'S BAR: Steve Yautz and Mary Rose Kelsh started their marriage out with a bang when they were married at St. Cecilia on July 4, 1961. They had local bars called Steve's Bar in three different locations in Oakley in the 1960s. The bar shown here (photo, left) was located at the corner of Appleton and Madison Road. The building was razed several years ago.

PARISH NEWS & NOTES

Join us for our annual Christmas movie tradition Sunday, December 20, at 1:30 p.m.

A free movie with free popcorn! And free parking at St. Cecilia. Make a day of it with Mass at 10 a.m., followed by brunch/lunch and shopping on Madison Road. And then the movie at 1:30. A wonderful way to start Christmas week.

At the 20th Century Theatre

PLEASE NOTE: the parish offices will be closed from Wednesday, December 23, until Monday, January 4.

A BIG THANKS AGAIN to all who assisted with this year's Thanksgiving dinner. It requires the help of so many volunteers to make this work, including all those who donated and roasted turkeys in their homes.

We want to thank all those who prepared and served the meals, those who delivered the hundreds of meals to people at their homes, and all those who assisted with clean-up afterwards.

Special thanks goes to those who spent hours during the month taking phone reservations for dinners to be delivered (Margie Dorn) and for the turkey donations (Dolores O'Connell). Coordinating the delivery assignments Thanksgiving morning (Scott and Chip Hascher) is another critical job that we couldn't do without. Finally, we also want to thank those who helped with their financial contributions and the following businesses that so generously help us each year:

FRISCH'S RESTAURANTS
UNITED DAIRY FARMERS
KLOSTERMAN BAKING
BASIC AMERICAN FOODS

SKYLINE CHILI
THE BONBONERIE
KROGER

Blessing for Expectant Mothers

There will be a blessing at the 10 a.m. Mass on Dec. 13 for mothers-to-be. Please join us if you are an expectant mother, or invite any soon-to-be mom you know—whether she is your daughter, friend, sister, in-law, or some other acquaintance! We welcome parishioners and nonparishioners alike, first-time moms and moms with other children, to come receive this special blessing for mother and baby.

Save the Date: 12/9/15

The pastoral region coordinating teams have worked for over a year to put together an implementation plan for when our pastoral region will have one pastor over the three parishes. The plan will be shared with all the parishes at a common meeting held in the cafeteria of St. Margaret-St. John Parish in Fairfax on Dec. 9 at 7 p.m. All parishioners are urged to attend in order to be fully informed about the plan.

WE CHERISH THE CHRISTMAS SEASON AT ST. CECILIA. What better way to celebrate the birth of Jesus and the season of giving than by volunteering at our annual Christmas dinner. Come one, come all! Young and old. If you can carve a turkey or a ham, help in the kitchen, dish up food, or generously donate we would love for you and your family to help us serve up some smiles this Christmas day. Have a car and some time to share? Drivers are always in short supply, and would be welcomed. Feel the spirit of Christmas by merrily delivering meals to those unable to join us on site! Be here on Christmas day in the cafeteria from 12 PM to 2 PM for a complimentary meal. If unable to attend, feel free to order a delivered meal. Please place your orders by 5 PM on Wednesday, December 23. To donate a ham or turkey, volunteer, or order a meal, please call Pat or Kathy at (513)351-5558.

STEWARDSHIP

PRAY, MINISTER, AND GIVE FROM WHAT YOU HAVE

STEWARDSHIP OF PRAYER

Please keep in prayer Ken Peters, John Prues, Eric Vossler, Rita Schwartz and Russ O'Brien, that they may receive God's healing grace.

All requests are honored for two weeks with the individual's or family's approval. Contact Barb Browarsky at the parish office, (513) 871-5757, ext. 202, with intention requests.

STEWARDSHIP OF FINANCE

Remember St. Cecilia at Christmas

The people of St. Cecilia are most generous to the parish especially during the Christmas Season. We rely on the generosity of families and friends to help meet our budgeted expenses. Your special Christmas offering is greatly appreciated and will not go unrewarded

Did you know you can make your special gifts online as well as your regular offertory giving? For more information visit the St. Cecilia website (www.stceciliacincinnati.org) and click on the Online Giving logo at the bottom right of the page.

The Giving Tree is Back!

It's time for our annual Giving Tree program. All parishioners are invited to select one or several ornaments from the tree and purchase gifts for those who are in need this Christmas.

If you plan to purchase a gift card for an organization this year, please remember our gift card program. Gift cards can be purchased after the weekend Masses. Your gift will benefit those in need this Christmas and will also provide an additional gift to support our wonderful school. Purchase your gift card, place it in the envelope for the organization and drop it in the box located under the tree. All other gifts may be returned to the church at your convenience over the next few weeks and placed under the tree.

Gifts should be returned unwrapped or in gift bags with the ornament securely attached. Please return your donation(s) no later than noon on Sunday, Dec. 13, when the organizations will be arriving to pick up their gifts so that they can be delivered in time for Christmas!

Christmas Flowers and Decorations Donations

Our beautiful St. Cecilia Church looks its best when in full decoration for special occasions like Christmas and Easter. We are again inviting our parishioners to remember or honor someone special by making a donation toward our Christmas flowers and decorations in that person's name.

You may send in a donation to remember a loved one, honor someone special or simply help make the church more beautiful for this special season. With each $10 request, please include the donor's name and the honored person's name. Place the request in the specially marked envelope you received in the mail. There are also envelopes in the pews and at the doors. You may drop your envelope in the collection basket or mail it to the parish office. You can also make your donation through online giving on our website, and separately provide the donor's and honoree's name as noted above, along with a note that you donated online. The list of those remembered or honored will be published in an upcoming bulletin.

Shopping On-line for Christmas? Gift cards are available for hundreds of on-line retailers, such as Amazon.com, and the church earns up to 15% of the gift card value. Stop by the vestibule after Mass or contact Doug & Joy Kornish with any questions at 513-658-6377 or giftcards@stceciliacincinnati.org.
