Month of the Holy Souls in Purgatory

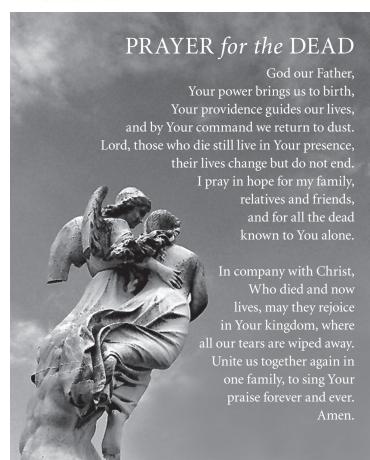

The month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. It is a time that we commemorate all of those we have lost, and we are now praying for them to attain heaven.

It is a tradition to visit graves in the month of November. Just as the fall season represents a time of death, we see the bright colors change and give us new hope. In the Book of Wisdom (3:1-3), we also hear about this hope. "The souls of the just are in the hands of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought to be an affliction, and their going forth from us utter destruction. But they are at peace."

During this month especially, take time to commemorate those who have died. Keep them in your daily prayers.

Amen? Amen!

to Jamie

A GOSPEL REFLECTION

LUKE 20:27-38
by FATHER JASON WILLIAMS

"He is not God of the dead, but of the living."

As we enter into this month of November, the themes of death, judgment, and eternity permeate the liturgy. There is a beautiful passage in the Preface of the Mass for the Dead that is worth reflecting on in the light of today's Gospel reading. "For your faithful, Lord, life is changed not ended, and, when this earthly dwelling turns to dust, an eternal dwelling is made ready for them in heaven."

We know that because of the wounds inflicted on human nature by sin, our earthly pilgrimage will one day come to an end. Our death will mark our transition from this finite existence to the realm of eternity where we hope to be with God forever, alive through participation in the Resurrection of Christ. By virtue of our Baptism, we become sharers in the redemptive death of Christ and inherit the promise to also live with him forever. Furthermore, we become sons and daughters of God, heirs to his Kingdom where death and sin no longer hold us bound.

Through the power of Christ's Paschal Mystery, our life is indeed changed. Our worldly categories and structures will no longer apply in heaven because we will be fully satisfied with that perfect union of our soul with God who is love. This true blessedness for which we hope may have its fulfillment in the future, yet even now God offers us a foretaste of that goodness by grounding our lives in his grace. Let us ask him to increase our desire for that perfection of eternal life by giving us the strength and the courage to seek first the Kingdom and to truly live by those words we pray so often, "Thy will be done."

A CLOSER LOOK AT OUR FAITH -

Catechesis

Is Sacred Scripture true?

"The books of Scripture firmly, faithfully, and without error teach [the] truth. ... Written under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, they have God as their author." (Second Vatican Council, DV 11). [103-107]

The Bible did not fall from heaven in its final form, nor did God dictate it to human scribes who copied it down mechanically. Rather "God chose certain men who ... made full use of their own faculties and powers so that, though he acted in them and by them, it was as true authors that they consigned to writing whatever he wanted written, and no more" (Second Vatican Council, DV 11). One factor in recognizing particular texts as Sacred Scripture was their general acceptance in the Church. In the Christian communities there had to be a consensus: "Yes, through this text God himself speaks to us—this is inspired by the Holy Spirit!" Which of the many original Christian writings are really inspired by the Holy Spirit has been defined since the fourth century in the so-called Cannon of Sacred Scriptures. (YOUCAT question 13)

Liturgical Facts

We continue our mini-series on the liturgical vestments of the priest and deacon. Today, we shall focus on the next liturgical vestment: the humeral veil.

The humeral veil is one of the liturgical vestments of the Roman rite, also used in some Anglican and Lutheran churches. It consists of a piece of cloth roughly 8 feet long and 2 feet wide draped over the shoulders and down the front, normally of silk or cloth of gold. At the ends there are sometimes pockets in the back for hands to go into so that the wearer can hold items without touching them with the hands. The humeral veil is of the liturgical color of the day on which it is used, or else is white or cloth of gold.

It is most often seen during the liturgy of Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. When priests or deacons bless the people with the monstrance, they cover their hands with the ends of the veil so that their hands do not touch the monstrance as a mark of respect for the sacred vessel and as an indication that it is Jesus present in the Eucharist and not the minister who blesses the people.

The humeral veil is also seen at the Mass of the Lord's Supper (Holy Thursday) when the ciborium containing the Blessed Sacrament is taken in procession to the place of reposition, and again when it is brought back to the altar without solemnity during the Good Friday service.

Know Your Saints

Only two popes have earned the title "Great"—Gregory I and Leo I. SAINT LEO THE GREAT was born in the beginning of the fifth century, probably in Rome. When he was a deacon, other Church leaders looked to him for advice and for explanations of the faith. Leo was sent to settle arguments between leaders. He was on such a mission in 440 when he was elected pope. He helped the Church stay united when it was being attacked inside by false teachers and outside by warring tribes.

In 452, the Huns, led by Attila, marched toward Rome to destroy the city. Pope Leo went out to meet Attila and was able to stop him by agreeing to pay tribute to him every year. Three years later, another tribe marched on Rome—the Vandals, led by Genseric. Again Leo went out to meet the enemy, but this time, Leo was only able to stop the tribe from burning the city. For two weeks, the Vandals pillaged and looted Rome while the people sought shelter in the churches. Leo helped rebuild the city after the invaders departed, and he then sent missionaries to Africa to minister to those who had been captured and taken there by the Vandals. —www.loyolapress.com

ITALIAN DINNER: I am so grateful to Nora Shumrick and her daughter Shelaugh O'Bryan (photo, above) for cooking a wonderful Italian dinner for our festival bid-and-buy winners. Each priest that says Mass at St. Cecilia is hosting a dinner with incredible chefs. Mine was hosted by Nancy and Kevin Bove. Fourteen people joined us for this meal of hors d'oeuvres, salad, and lots of main course dishes. We also had a wine tasting of Tobin James wine, which is from Nora's son's winery in California. I really enjoyed myself, and I think all of the guests thought the food and wine were delicious. + SPANISH MASS: Fr. Jason celebrated the first monthly Spanish Mass at St. Cecilia (photos, below) on Sun., Oct. 16. It was a great day to kick off our Spanish Mass because it was the date of the canonization of Jose Luis Sanchez del Rio. I want to thank Fr. Jason for all of his hard work. He put together a Spanish bulletin and Mass booklet, coordinated the lectors and servers with the help of Lilia Perez, and worked with Bob Kellison on the music. It was also nice to see the long line for confession both before and after the Mass. + STAFF DRESSES UP FOR ALL SAINTS DAY: Each year some of the staff members and I dress up as saints and go to the classrooms to get the children excited about dressing up as saints for our All Saints Parade. We talk to them about our saints and the symbols we carry that help represent those saints. This year I was Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati. Fr. Jason joined in as St. Frances Xavier, and Assistant to the Pastor Marta Misleh dressed up as our 4th-grade classroom saint, St. Kateri Tekakwitha (photo, above). Each grade in our school has dedicated its classroom to a saint this year and is learning a lot about that saint. + FR. IASON AT ST. MARGARET-ST. JOHN: Fr. Jason gave a talk on his path to the priesthood at St. Margaret-St. John (photo, above left) on Oct. 19, after he presided at the 11:45 daily Mass there. There was a very nice turnout of over 50 people from the region. He talked about how God led him to his vocation in the priesthood. I'm so glad it was recorded and is on our website for all to be able to listen to. + CONGRATULATIONS!

Jonathan Paquette and Sara Magrino (photo, above left) celebrated the Sacrament of Marriage on Oct. 22. Sara was in our RCIA program and came into the Church this past Easter.

PARISH NEWS & NOTES -

SMSJ Adult Ministry Monthly Talk

Please join us on Wednesday, Nov. 16, at 1 PM in the undercroft/cafeteria of St. Margaret-St. John Church for a panel of recently ordained priests and deacons who will discuss the importance of the Mass for them and for all Catholics. No matter how busy life may get, the Mass is always the center of the day. Learn how to make that possible and what to do when it seems loved ones no longer appreciate the gift of the Mass. Refreshments will be served. We hope to see you there!

Gift Bearers Needed

We are in need of additional gift bearers at all of the Masses, but especially the 4PM Saturday and 8AM Sunday Masses. Contact Joanne Brinkman at jmbrinkman@ zoomtown.com or 871-3230 if you are interested in taking part in the Mass in this way.

Wall of the Faithful Departed and Book of Remembrance

During November we of St. Cecilia Parish will honor and pray for all the faithful departed, especially those we knew and loved. Throughout the month, we will remember these special loved ones with our display, the Wall of the Faithful Departed, and with the Book of Remembrance. You are invited to bring photos or holy cards commemorating your loved ones by placing the items on the boards located near the sanctuary. You may also inscribe in The Book of Remembrance, located by the St. Joseph altar, the name(s) of one(s) you knew who have departed from this earth. These deceased loved ones will be remembered in prayer at all the month's Masses.

NFP Facilitators Needed

Are you and your spouse interested in becoming more involved in the parish? Are you passionate about Natural Family Planning (NFP)? We have the perfect ministry opportunity for you! St. Cecilia Parish is looking to grow our Marriage Preparation Ministry and is in need of a volunteer couple to lead our monthly Natural Family Planning Classes. We need someone who would be willing to facilitate a 2-hour class each month for our engaged couples preparing for marriage in our parish. We currently promote the method taught by Couple-to-Couple League (ccli.org). The training to be NFP facilitators with Couple-to-Couple League is free and can be done completely online. This is a volunteer opportunity for a married couple. If you are interested, please email or call our Regional Director of Religious Education, Cody Egner, at cegner@eastsideregion.org or (513) 871-5757 ext 215.

Sports Update

Winter registration for our school students has just completed. This year St. Cecilia will offer basketball for the following grades: 3-4th girls, 3-4th boys, 5th boys, 6-7th boys, 7-8th girls, 7-8th boys. If any parishioners are still interested in signing up their child, please contact Matt Weisenborn (mweisenborn@stceciliacincinnati.org). GO LIONS!

Also of note, St. Cecilia Athletic Department is partnering with the school to raise money for our students' 8th-grade Washington, DC, trip. The 8th-grade students have the opportunity to work home athletic games to raise money for the trip. The students have done a great job working the games, creating a welcoming atmosphere for visiting teams.

Holy Hour for Vocations

On Wednesday, Nov. 9, from 7-8 PM, we will dedicate our regularly scheduled Holy Hour to vocations. Please join us and pray that all people hear and have the courage to follow God's call!

Thanksgiving Dinner

St. Cecilia will continue its longstanding tradition of hosting Thanksgiving dinner for anyone who would like to share the holiday with others. Dinner will be served from noon until 2 PM on Thursday, Nov. 24, in St. Cecilia Commons. The dinner is free and open to all ages.

Transportation to the dinner and meal delivery are available by calling Margie at (513) 232-0266. All requests for meal deliveries must be made by 5 PM on Monday, Nov. 21.

One of our chief needs each year is for individuals to donate and roast a turkey. We use nearly 70 each year, so the need is substantial. If you can help us in this way, please call Dolores at (513) 871-4191. Monetary donations are also gratefully accepted.

To volunteer, please call Dan at (513) 631-3174. Some of the jobs we need help with include turkey carving (especially Wednesday evening prior to the dinner), serving, washing dishes, preparing carry-out and delivery meals, engaging in hospitality and clean-up. We hope to hear from you soon!

Friday, Nov. 11, is Veterans Day. Remember in prayer all those men and women who have served our country and especially those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom.

PARISH NEWS & NOTES

Prayer Intentions for the Week

Please keep in prayer Geneva McPherron, Robbie McPherron, Kimberly Evans, Kristin Pelletier, and Jennifer Luke Jackson that they may receive God's loving grace. Contact Barb Browarsky at the parish office, (513) 871-5757, ext. 202, with Mass and sanctuary devotional candle intention requests. All requests are honored for two weeks with the individual's or family's approval.

Catholic Citizenship: Making Moral Choices

Catholics are not told how to vote; the responsibility to make political choices rests with each person and his or her properly formed conscience, aided by prudence. This exercise of conscience begins with always opposing policies that violate human life or weaken its protection.

When morally flawed laws already exist, prudential judgment is needed to determine how to do what is possible to restore justice—even if partially or gradually—without ever abandoning a moral commitment to full protection for all human life from conception to natural death (see St. John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae, no. 73).

Prudential judgment is also needed to determine the best way to promote the common good in areas such as housing, health-care, and immigration. When Church leaders make judgments about how to apply Catholic teaching to specific policies, this may not carry the same binding authority as universal moral principles but cannot be dismissed as one political opinion among others. These moral applications should inform the consciences and guide the actions of Catholics.

As Catholics we are not single-issue voters. A candidate's position on a single issue is not sufficient to guarantee a voter's support. Yet a candidate's position on a single issue that involves an intrinsic evil, such as support for legal abortion or the promotion of racism, may legitimately lead a voter to disqualify a candidate from receiving support.

Prayer Before an Election

"Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city, state, and country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens. We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty. We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender. We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom. We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen."
