Need a little spiritual pick-me-up in the middle of the week? Join us for our 6:45 AM Mass every Wednesday. Then head to the Madison Diner with us for breakfast. It's a nice crowd and great food.

Holy Family

We celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family right during the Christmas season — a time when we are gathering with our own families. We can look and pray around the Nativity scenes and emulate the Holy Family as the model for all of our Catholic families. When we bring our families to Church and live out our faith in our homes, we are sanctified.

Let us continue to live like the Holy Family with Christ as our center. Try each day to start with a prayer. Make it a point to attend Mass and invite family members. Find a rich spiritual reading, and share what you've read with your family. If you make it part of what your family talks about, they will feel more comfortable sharing a verse in Scripture that they read or quoting a saint that they found inspiring. How can you pull your family together this Christmas season and share the faith as a family unit?

Amen? Amen!

To: Jessica

“God always knocks at the door of hearts. He likes to do this. It comes from His heart. But, do you know what He likes best? To knock on the doors of families and find families that are united, to find families that love each other, to find the families that bring up their children and educate them and help them to keep going forward and that create a society of goodness, of truth, and of beauty.” – Pope Francis

CHRISTMAS COLLECTION

Please keep St. Cecilia Parish in mind this Christmas with a special gift in addition to your regular Sunday offering. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. St. Cecilia depends on your generosity at this time to be able to continue the vitality of our parish ministries in 2018. Your gifts are put to good use building the Kingdom of God in Oakley. Thank you!

The strength of our parish is built on our shared talents. God has given each individual unique skills and talents so that together we can do the work of our Lord. Put your faith and love into action. Volunteer for things that interest you. Build lasting friendships and become part of the family of Saint Cecilia Parish. Check the directory on page 2 or contact the parish office at 871-5757, ext. 202, and we can put you in touch with the people with whom you should chat.

EASTSIDE FAITH

Credo (I Believe)

Is there some inner logic that unites the sacraments with each other?

All sacraments are an encounter with Christ, who is Himself the original sacrament. There are sacraments of initiation, which introduce the recipient into the faith: Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. There are sacraments of healing: Reconciliation and the Anointing of the Sick. And there are sacraments of service: Matrimony and Holy Orders.

Baptism joins us with Christ. Confirmation gives us his Spirit. The Eucharist unites us with him. Confession reconciles us with Christ. Through the Anointing of the Sick, Christ heals, strengthens, and consoles. In the sacrament of Matrimony, Christ promises his love in our love and his fidelity in our fidelity. Through the sacrament of Holy Orders, priests have the privilege of forgiving sins and celebrating the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Confession is available every weekday at St. Cecilia following the 9 AM Mass.

“Confession heals, confession justifies, confession grants pardon of sin, all hope consists in confession; in confession there is a chance for mercy.” - St. Isidore of Seville

A Gospel Reflection

by Father Jason Williams

LUKE 2:22-40

“The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom.”

The account of the presentation of Jesus in the Temple teaches us several things. We see the obedience of Mary and Joseph in following the precepts of the Law. As faithful Jews they saw fulfillment of the requirements of the Law not as legalism but as a way in which they could tangibly express their love for God who gave the Law to their ancestors as a guide for living in communion with him.

The encounters with Simeon and Anna point out that this child is not like any other. He is the Messiah, the one sent by God to save his people. As the “light for revelation to the Gentiles” Jesus is also the perfect way by which God reveals himself to us. Only by listening to Jesus Christ — the Word of God through whose speech gives rise to all of creation, the commandments of the Law, the warnings of the prophets, and the teachings of the Church — do we come to know God. Knowing God, we will love him, and loving God, we will serve him. In this way the hope of the prophetic Anna will be realized: we will give thanks to God with joy for all that he has done in his goodness.

RCIA THIS WEEK

Please pray for all of those journeying to full Communion with the Catholic Church!

This week's (January 3) RCIA lesson is an introduction to the Sacraments, particularly baptism and confirmation. In the Catholic Church, there are seven sacraments that are part of a Christian's spiritual life from birth to death. They are signs of grace instituted by Christ to give his divine life to us through the work of the Holy Spirit. But what are these sacraments? Why are they necessary for a relationship with Jesus? And how do the sacraments affect our lives on a daily basis?

These are some of the questions we will be talking about this week. We will be looking at the seven sacraments recognized by the Catholic Church in general, and then we will focus more specifically on two sacraments of initiation: Baptism and Confirmation. Along the way, we will see how the sacraments are part of our “tool kit” as we grow and mature in our faith and our relationship with the Church.

Questions for the week: Exactly what is the traditional definition of a sacrament? What is the relationship between the sacraments and grace? Why are the sacraments so important for the spiritual life? What is the primary purpose of the sacraments?

To study along with us, please log onto Formed.org (parish code YX2P22), program = Symbolon: Living the Faith, Session 1.

PENSAMIENTOS EVANGÉLICOS

SEÑOR, ENSEÑANOS LAS VIRTUDES DE TU CORAZÓN, LAS VIRTUDES DE TU FAMILIA SANTA, LAS VIRTUDES DE OBEDIENCIA, PACIENCIA, Y CARIDAD.

(Lord, teach us the virtues of your Heart: the virtues of your Holy Family, the virtues of obedience, patience, and charity.)

St. Anthony Parish is collaborating with Matthew: 25 Ministries to send needed construction tools to Our Lady of Health parish in Dominica to aid in the rebuilding of parishioners' houses. Let's make this a parish/region endeavor! Search your basements and garages for spare, gently-worn, unbroken tools! Or donate new tools or money. The list of tools needed include:

- Screwdrivers
- Framing hammers
- Pry/demo bars
- Tape measures
- Torpedo levels
- Channel pliers
- Wire cutters
- Tool bags
- Flat bars
- Nail pullers
- Quick squares
- Utility knives
- Adjustable wrenches
- Small sledge hammers
- Trowels
- Chisels (wood and masonry)
- Saws
- Chalk lines
- Sand cement

We will be collecting the tools in January. Stay tuned to the bulletin for sites of collection and specific dates.

Marriage Annulments

The Catholic Church dedicates much time and effort to prepare couples for marriage. However, despite the couples' best efforts, unfortunately a marriage union sometimes fails to reach fulfillment for both parties and may end in a civil divorce. The Catholic Church has mechanisms and processes in place to assist people in these situations, especially if they anticipate another marriage.

If you find yourself in this circumstance, we would like to help. To learn more about how to get assistance, please contact Joe Fondacaro in our pastoral region at 871-5757, ext. 222, or at jfondacaro@eastsideregion.org. All inquiries are kept in strict confidence.

Many Are Called But Few Are Chosen

There is a monthly Holy Hour for vocations every second Thursday of the month at 8PM at the Our Lady of the Holy Spirit Center in Norwood. Sponsored by the Archdiocesan Office of Vocations and the Children of Mary. Please contact dschmitmeyer@catholiccincinnati.org or childrenofmarysisters@gmail.com with any questions or for more info.

God speaks in whispers and we live in a loud world. Hearing God's voice amidst the noise and busy-ness of our lives can be difficult. But He is always there to guide and help us, and He has given us other people and resources to help us, as well. If you think God may be calling you to religious life and you need someone to talk to, email Fr. Dan Schmitmeyer at dschmitmeyer@catholiccincinnati.org or call him at 421.3131, ext. 2890.

"For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body — Jews or Greeks, slaves or free — and all were made to drink of one Spirit." — 1 Corinthians 12:13

WELCOME, CHILDREN OF GOD: Welcome to the newly baptized: George Peter, son of Erik and Kari Dunki-Jacobs (photo 1); Bridgette Libby, daughter of George and Carrye Euskirchen (photo 2); and Freya Rocio, daughter of Nicholas and Cherrell Misleh (photo 3). + ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CHRISTMAS PARTY: I was happy to be able to attend the annual St. Vincent de Paul Christmas party (photo 4). This is an incredible group of individuals who give their time to help those who are in need. They help at all hours and provide so many services. I am always so impressed by the generosity of our parish in its financial support for St. Vincent de Paul. Many of our own parishioners and neighbors have been able to get through tough times with the help of this society. + OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE: We had a nice turnout for our Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe Mass. Some of our schoolchildren came dressed in their folk outfits (photo 5), and we had a large procession who brought up flowers to Mary. + SCHOOL CHRISTMAS CONCERT: The children from St. Cecilia School had their Christmas concert on Dec. 14 at the 20th Century Theatre (photo 6). Brother Bob prepared them so well for another year of uplifting Christmas carols. + REST IN PEACE: William Thorman Jr. (photo 7) passed away on Nov. 5. His memorial Mass was on Dec. 9 at St. Cecilia. William is the brother of longtime parishioner Paul Thorman.

Prayer Intentions for the Week

We pray that Rosa Patton may receive God's loving and healing graces. Contact Barb Browarsky at the parish office, (513) 871-5757, ext. 202, with Mass and sanctuary devotional candle intention requests. All requests are honored for two weeks with the individual's or family's approval.

Rectory Meals Needed!

We have several holes in our parish calendar for the rectory dinners for Father Jamie and Father Jason (yes, he still eats at St. Cecilia although he lives at Watterson now). We have openings for the first Friday, the fifth Monday, the fifth Thursday and the fifth Friday of each month. We ask that meals are delivered at 5 PM to the rectory in disposable containers. All meals are appreciated! If you can commit to a scheduled day or have questions, please call Billie Jean at 631-8739. Thank you!

Ruah Woods

Ruah Woods Psychological Services (RWPS) seeks to integrate the best of psychological science and the truths of the Catholic faith — empowering people to more fully embrace and live out their vocation to love according to God's plan. RWPS provides psychological assessment and therapy for adults, couples, and children. They can be reached at www.RWpsych.org and 513-407-8878.
