THE SEASON OF EASTER

The Eastertide has begun and continues for 50 days until Pentecost. One of the things that really hit me during Holy Week was how much God wants communion with all of us. The Easter season is a great time for us to work towards this unity that Jesus makes possible in the sacrifice of Himself. While Jesus was willing to die for us, he does not leave us empty handed. He gives us grace to help us to be in communion with him. This communion resurrects our lives and is made possible throughout our lives through the sacraments that have been given to us by God. If we fail to take advantage of the sacraments, we will surely miss out on so much and our lives will only become more difficult. This is a time to recommit to going to Mass every Sunday and to going to confession or Eucharistic Adoration at least once a month. We want the small commitment we made by giving something up during Lent to grow into a new, even larger, commitment. One which will help us to unite ourselves to our Lord and Savior during this Easter season and beyond.

Amen? Amen!

Fr. Jamie

Holy Hour
for Vocations

There will be a Holy Hour at 5 p.m., this Sunday, May 5, in the Chapel of St. Gregory the Great at Mount St. Mary's Seminary, located on the Athenaeum campus at 6616 Beechmont Avenue.

Research shows that prayer plays a critical role in a man's decision to become a priest. And where you find growing seminaries, you also find steadfast prayer by the faithful. What can you do to promote the priesthood? Pray!

"Prayer joined to sacrifice constitutes the most powerful force in human history."
— Saint Pope John Paul II

Help Jesus in Disguise

This weekend our pastoral region will take up the Catholic Relief Services Collection. Funds from this collection provide food to the hungry, support displaced refugees, and bring Christ's love and mercy to all people here and abroad. Please give generously to the collection. “They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.” – Luke 24:2-3

What are Feast Days?

Feast days are days set aside each year to honor Mary, the saints, and mysteries of the faith. There are three types of feast days. In the hierarchy of feast days, memorials hold the lowest status. Memorials can be obligatory and optional. Obligatory memorials recognize a saint or an attribute of Jesus or Mary, such as the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Optional memorials can honor saints.

Of mid-level importance in the liturgical calendar are feasts—days on which Catholics remember saints as well as titles and mysteries of Jesus and Mary.

Solemnities are the highest designation of feast days, and some, such as the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary on August 15 and All Saints’ Day on November 1, are holy days of obligation, on which Catholics are required to attend Mass. Only the most significant mysteries of the Faith, such as the Resurrection, or the feast days of saints who influenced salvation history, such as St. John the Baptist, are considered solemnities.

And ... Holy Days of Obligation?

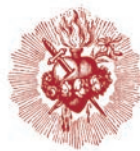

Catholics must attend Mass on Sundays or on Saturday evenings (the Sunday vigil) and on designated holy days of obligation. These holy days are not the same throughout the world but are set by local governing bodies. For example, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops declared the following dates to be holy days of obligation in the United States:

- January 1: Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God
- Thursday of the Sixth Week of the Easter Season:
Ascension Thursday (Obligation is transferred from Thursday to Sunday in our archdiocese.)
- August 15: Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
- November 1: Solemnity of All Saints
- December 8: Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception
- December 25: Solemnity of the Birth of Jesus Christ

Attention men, fathers, and sons! The Cincinnati Catholic Men’s Conference is Saturday, June 15, at St. Maximillian Kolbe Parish. Get your ticket today for a faith-filled half-day where men from all over the tri-state will enjoy Catholic inspiration and spiritual growth. Speakers will include Super Bowl Champ Matt Birk, EWTN Cooking Priest Fr. Leo Patalinghug, and New York Mets coach Rich Donnelly. Get information on the conference and purchase tickets at www.CincinnatiMensConference.com.

Being Pro Life

Each month an important respect life topic is covered in an engaging interview with someone personally affected by a particular issue. You can find each Being Pro-Life column in The Catholic Telegraph, and can watch the video or listen to the podcast at www.catholiccincinnati.org/Being-Pro-Life. Past topics still available to watch address abortion, assisted suicide, undocumented immigrants, post-abortion ministry, human trafficking and racism.
