HOSPITALITY & THE
ST. CECILIA FESTIVAL

Today in our Gospel reading we hear about true hospitality. Sometimes we worry too much about the messes others will see in our homes, but welcoming people in is the true gift. Real hospitality embraces the person visiting and makes them feel welcome. We can open our church in the same way. We can make those sitting around us feel welcome to worship Our Lord together. Many times I have seen friendships created by working together in church commissions or events. Inviting people into our groups even though we are not perfect and still have a little dust to clean, still gives them a chance to enjoy our church families. People will recognize true hospitality.

One way we can welcome newcomers is the St. Cecilia festival, our annual party for all of Oakley and the region is here. As your pastor, I can tell you that, like many of you, I look forward to this party every year. We spend so much time and energy to make this such a great event.

I want to thank Vince Woodall, Doug and Joy Cornish and all of the volunteers that headed the festival this year. I want to give a big thank-you to them and all of our volunteers.

Please come to the festival this year, and bring friends and family to share in this wonderful event. This is a wonderful party for our whole region, so please join us. Take the time to volunteer, introduce yourselves to your many brothers and sisters in Christ, and enjoy the weekend. We all need others to help us in our Christian journey, and the people from your parish can be there for you. Spending time together at the festival builds this great bond. Together we can put on this huge event. Together we can build up the kingdom of God.

Amen? Amen.

SUMMER WITH THE SAINTS

St. Pio of Pietrelcina

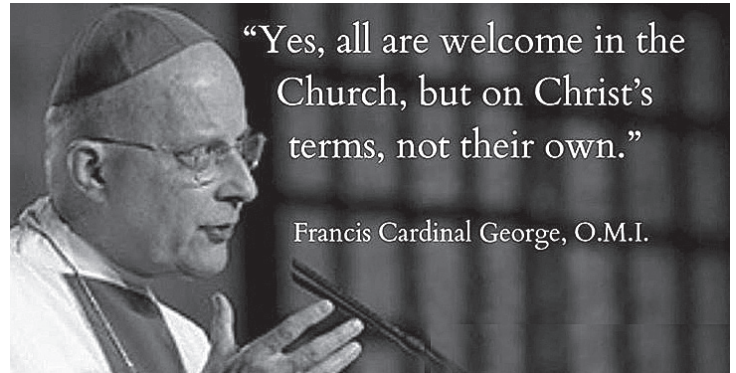

Born in 1887 in the small village of Pietrelcina in the south of Italy, Francesco Forgione joined the Order of Franciscan Capuchins at age fifteen and took the name Pio. Ordained seven years later, he was assigned to the monastery of San Giovanni Rotondo in his village.

On August 5, 1918, Padre Pio received the Stigmata, the wounds of Christ, on his body, which he carried for half a century. He was especially afflicted while celebrating Holy Mass each day. It appeared he suffered as Jesus did while He was on the Cross, losing much blood from his wounds. He would always offer up these sufferings for the salvation of the world.

For fifty years, Padre Pio, as he came to be known, was a much sought-after spiritual advisor, confessor, and intercessor whose life was devoted to the Eucharist and prayer. People came from all over the world to see him celebrate Mass and seek his help. Late in life, he was able to open a "House To Relieve Suffering," where both the physical and spiritual needs of people were met.

After his death in 1968, Padre Pio was beatified in 1999 by Pope St. John Paul II and canonized by him just three years later in 2002.

"Yes, all are welcome in the Church, but on Christ's terms, not their own."

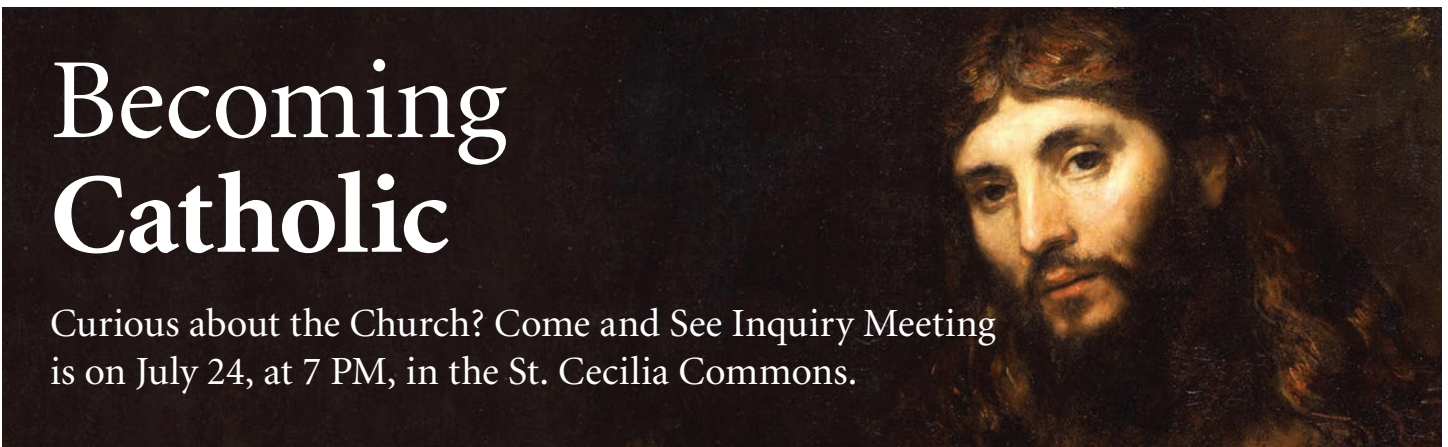

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.

Mass Intentions. If you have any particular intentions for which you would like to have a Mass offered, please contact your parish office. Intentions are often requested for those who have died, but may include any kind of need that your or someone you know is experiencing for which prayer is needed.

"Be on your guard; stand firm in the faith;
be courageous; be strong."
— 1 Corinthians 16:13

SAINT CECILIA Festival

"Nothing great is ever done without much enduring."— St. Catherine ... After many months of planning, the 2019 festival is finally here. This event is more than just a fundraiser; it is truly Oakley's block party. St. Cecilia's festival is the place where old friends meet, memories are recalled and new ones are made. Year after year this summer tradition is passed down to new generations. We thank you for being with us this weekend and for supporting this cherished event!

We also wish to thank all of the sponsors who are listed in this bulletin. Your continued generosity is greatly appreciated and allows St. Cecilia to continue to advance in our mission of building up God's Kingdom. Thank you to those who have donated items to make our Bid-N-Buy and flea market as successful as they can possibly be. Lastly, thank you to all of the volunteers who make the festival a reality! This show could not go on without those who plan, set up, chair a booth, work a shift, tear down and pray for this event! – The 2019 St. Cecilia Festival Planning Committee
