The Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

May 29, 2022

One of the twelve promises of the Sacred Heart that Jesus made to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque was to give her the vision promising to her: "I will bless every house in which an image of my heart shall be exposed and honored." Your family can recite the prayer for enthronement and then place an image of the Sacred Heart in a visible place in your home.

Here are all 12 promises as given to St. Margaret Mary for those devoted to the Sacred Heart:

1. I will give them all the graces necessary in their state of life.
2. I will establish peace in their homes.
3. I will comfort them in all their afflictions.
4. I will be their secure refuge during life, and above all, in death.
5. I will bestow abundant blessings upon all their undertakings.
6. Sinners will find in my Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Lukewarm souls shall become fervent.
8. Fervent souls shall quickly mount to high perfection.
9. I will bless every place in which an image of my Heart is exposed and honored.
10. I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.
11. Those who shall promote this devotion shall have their names written in my Heart.
12. The all-powerful love of My Heart will grant to all those who shall receive Communion on the First Friday of nine consecutive months the grace of final repentance; they shall not die under my displeasure, nor without receiving their Sacraments; My heart shall be their assured refuge at that last hour.

Fr. Jesse

Memorial Day Mass Schedule. Please note that we will have one mass on Memorial Day — 9AM at St. Cecilia.

Also, Masses in the region are cancelled on Tuesday, May 31. Due to the installation of Fr. Earl Fernandes as Bishop of the Diocese of Columbus — all of the priests of the region will be attending.

Celebrate the Church's Birthday. Wear Red for Pentecost!

The feast of Pentecost, which will be celebrated June 4-5, is often called the birthday of the Church. Why? Because it was on this day, after the Holy Spirit had descended on the apostles as tongues of fire, that the apostles began preaching Jesus' message to others. To help celebrate this special feast, you are invited to wear red to next weekend's masses. The red symbolizes the tongues of fire, or the love of the Holy Spirit, that came to the apostles on that special Pentecost nearly two thousand years ago. Following the 10 am Mass we will gather outside church for refreshments.

Training for new Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion will be held Monday, June 6, starting at 6 PM in the church. If you are interested in serving in this ministry at St. Cecilia weekend Masses, please attend this session. Contact Dave Rosselot, drosselot@outlook.com for additional details if needed.

1 WELCOME TO THE CHURCH FAMILY. On May 14, at the 4PM Mass, a parishioner of St. Cecilia was fully initiated into the Church. Philip Glotfelty, 14, was baptized, confirmed, and received the Holy Eucharist. Congratulations, Philip.

2, 3 WELCOME, CHILD OF GOD. On behalf of the regional parishes, I want to welcome Rose Caroline, daughter of Charles and Rebecca Hobing, and Charles Richard, son of Jared and Hayley Howe. Both were baptized on May 15.

4 DIVINE MERCY. On Sunday, May 15, Daniel deSilva spoke on the original image of Divine Mercy. Daniel gave an excellent presentation. While there are many variations of the Divine Mercy image, Daniel is promoting the original painting that was inspired by St. Faustina's vision of Christ. The work was completed by the artist in 1935. Daniel not only presented the talk, but also presented the region with an exact duplicate of the painting, matching almost the original size. Special thanks go out to Fr. Anthony for doing all the legwork to arrange Daniel's visit.

5, 6 CONGRATULATIONS. On the May 14, Julian and Ella Misleh celebrated the Sacrament of Marriage. Julian's marriage to Ella brings to a conclusion the availability of the five boys raised by St. Cecilia parishioners Marta and Larry Misleh. All are now spoken for. I have been blessed to have celebrated four out of five of the weddings here at St. Cecilia. All the boys served for me at the altar. I was happy to share in the family's special day.

7 FIRST ANNIVERSARY. May 15 marked the first year anniversary of Fr. Anthony Marcelli. We have been blessed for him to be assigned to our region. Congratulations, Fr. Anthony!

8 TRECE DE MAYO. I am very grateful that St. Cecilia School throws an annual Hispanic festival. It is a fantastic time every year. I thought this year's was one of the best ever. I loved seeing all the Hispanic families of the school, as well as the parishioners and friends from the neighborhood, party together. Special thanks to all the school families for making the event such a huge success.

9 SECOND FIRST COMMUNION. We had our second class of First Communicants on May 15. This celebration of First Holy Communion was especially blessed because Fr. Willig made a return visit for his nephew who was receiving First Holy Communion. It was also special because Deacon Nathan preached his daughter's First Communion Mass. Congratulations to all the First Communicants. May you be nurtured always in your life by the Word made flesh.

“If God’s point of view does not exist, there is no truth beyond our subjective perspectives.”

CATECHESIS (kat’i-ke’sis) n.

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS

Part 5: The Source and Summit

The liturgy is the public work of God on behalf of His people. All sacraments are liturgies but the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the Mass, stands out as the ultimate expression of Christ’s love.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was instituted by Him out of his love for us. He is the principal agent acting through the priest. In the Mass, He allows us, as baptized Catholics, to join in the ultimate sacrifice of His death on the cross for the glorification of our Father and in the process we become holy. His suffering and death on the cross in addition to His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity are all made present through the power of the Holy Spirit.

No other sacrament or prayer can do this. No other sacrament can produce the constant flow of grace, which animates and gives power to our Christian lives. That is why the Church calls the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the Mass, the source of our Christian life.

It is also the summit, the goal of our Christian life, the closest thing we have to Heaven here on Earth. The objective we must all work towards when we are not at a Mass is to make our society a little more like Heaven, to prepare the world for the Second Coming of our Lord and Savior.

As the mechanism through which Jesus produces a constant flow of grace, the Mass is the source or origin of our Christian life and as the ultimate goal of heaven on earth, it is the summit or fulfillment towards which all our Christian work is focused.

Know Your Saints: Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael

Angels—messengers from God—appear frequently in Scripture, but only Michael, Gabriel and Raphael are named.

Michael appears in Daniel’s vision as “the great prince” who defends Israel against its enemies; in the Book of Revelation, he leads God’s armies to final victory over the forces of evil. Devotion to Michael is the oldest angelic devotion, rising in the East in the fourth century. The Church in the West began to observe a feast honoring Michael and the angels in the fifth century.

Gabriel also makes an appearance in Daniel’s visions, announcing Michael’s role in God’s plan. His best-known appearance is an encounter with a young Jewish girl named Mary, who consents to bear the Messiah.

Raphael’s activity is confined to the Old Testament story of Tobit. There he appears to guide Tobit’s son Tobiah through a series of fantastic adventures which lead to a threefold happy ending: Tobiah’s marriage to Sarah, the healing of Tobit’s blindness and the restoration of the family fortune. The memorials of Gabriel (March 24) and Raphael (October 24) were added to the Roman calendar in 1921. The 1970 revision of the calendar joined their feasts to Michael’s.

Baptism Preparation Catechists Needed: English & Spanish Opportunities

Our region of parishes is seeking two new faith formation volunteers to serve as the catechist for our Baptism preparation classes. We are searching for one person to lead the monthly English class and another person to lead the monthly Spanish class.

The catechist would be responsible for leading a 2-hour class once a month on a Sunday afternoon. The audience are parents who are seeking to baptize their young child. The purpose of the class is to equip the parents with the knowledge of the reality of baptism and the responsibilities they have as parents regarding baptism and the faith.

The curriculum is already prepared and comes fully equipped with video presentations, handouts, discussion questions, etc. If you would like to volunteer for one of these positions, please email or call our Regional Director of Religious Education, Cody Egner, at cegner@eastsideregion.org or (513) 871-5757 ext 215.

Marriage Annulments

The Catholic Church dedicates much time and effort to prepare couples for marriage. Despite the couples' best efforts, marriage unions sometimes fail to reach fulfillment for both parties and may end in a civil divorce. The Catholic Church has mechanisms and processes in place to assist people in these situations, especially if they anticipate another marriage.

If you find yourself in this circumstance, we can help. To learn more about how to get assistance, please contact Joe Fondacaro in our pastoral region at 871-5757, ext. 222, or at jfondacaro@eastsideregion.org. Inquiries are kept in strict confidence.
