Lenten Mission

February 26, 2023

This Monday evening our Lenten Mission begins in our family of parishes. Fr. Larry Richard gets over 800 requests to speak at parishes each year and we are so blessed to have him here this Lent. Are you setting aside the four evenings for the mission? I know this is hard. You may leave work at the end of the day tired and wanting to put your feet up or you may have had a long day watching little ones and can't imagine getting ready to go out. These are all valid reasons that may keep you home, but I am asking you to try and get that second wind and come to the mission. Make God first on your list this week, and join us as we start a new mission in our faith to enter the desert so that we can return to God with all of our hearts by fasting and praying during Lent and preparing for His passion.

Amen? Amen.

Fr. Larry

LENTEN MISSION SCHEDULE:

Monday, February 27: God's Love and the Importance of Prayer

Tuesday, February 28: Worship: A Walk Through the Mass (Taught in the Context of a Mass)

Wednesday, March 1: Confession: What Sins Do I Really Need to Confess?

Thursday, March 2: Adoration and Healing (Taught in the Context of Adoration with a Healing Service at the End)

Lent Wake Up Series

Our series continues this Saturday morning, March 4, in St. Mary's Robisch Hall—9 AM for coffee and donuts, and the presentation from 9:15 to 10:15 AM. Anne Battes will speak on "Am I a Disciple? Reflections on Jesus' Invitation." What is Jesus' call to live as his disciple? What is discipleship? What does it mean to respond to Jesus' invitation and live as a disciple? Why would I want to be a disciple? We will explore the meaning of discipleship through Scripture, the Church, and with the laity. Living as a disciple requires developing the habits of discipleship to choose a life in Christ. What could this mean for you, individually, with family, work, and in the larger community? Anne spent a lifetime in Catholic education as teacher, principal, deputy superintendent for Catholic School in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, president of Catholic Education Collaborative, and former publisher for RCL Benziger.

Crib Project 2023

We are collecting baby items through March 5. Check the St. Cecilia vestibule/narthex for additional information.

Your participation is most welcome and greatly appreciated!

The 40 Plus Fun Bunch will have a spaghetti dinner in the St Cecilia Commons on March 5, from 4-6 PM. Spaghetti, sauce both with and without meat will be provided as well as bread. Bring your favorite appetizer and if you have a special drink, bring that, too! So that they can better plan, please RSVP to stcfunbunch@gmail.com.

Introducing the Oratory

The Oratory of St. John Vianney at St. Anthony Church would like to share in the mission of St. John Vianney as patron saint of parish priests by praying especially for the 263 priests of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. Please join us in remembering these priests in your daily prayers and sacrifices, and perhaps send them a note of thanks and encouragement. This week we will pray for several very special priests: Fr. Anthony Marcelli, Fr. Ken Schartz, Fr. Jamie Weber (St. Mary Parish and St. Cecilia Parish), Fr. Tom Denneman (retired), and Fr. Jacob Willig (Miami University).

When you see a priest, you should say, "There is he who made me a child of God, and opened Heaven to me by holy Baptism; he who purified me after I had sinned; who gives nourishment to my soul." At the sight of a church tower, you may say, "What is there in that place?" "The Body of Our Lord." "Why is He there?" "Because a priest has been there, and has said holy Mass." – ST. JOHN VIANNEY

PASTOR'S RAMBLINGS | 4

1, 2, 3, 4 BABYPALOOZA! Peter and Julia Von Der Vellen had Katherine Chiara on February 1. Amy and Brian Sellers had Abigail Mary on February 3. Her siblings are Monica (14), Will (12), Ben (12), Anna (9), Luke (7), and Elizabeth (3). Sisan and Alberto Cuervo are excited to welcome their baby Lucia into their family! Lucia was born Saturday, January 14. Adam and Maria Frazier had Lucia Anne Marie back on December 31. She joins her big sister, Anastasia. 5 AMORE! The first night of our That's Amore pizza-making and speed-dating event was incredible! I want to thank Haley Wolfe and all of the young adults who helped make this happen. I hope this has helped our young people meet others in the faith that can help guide them and help them be accountable. If you haven't heard Deacon Nathan's homily from February 12, I'd like to encourage you to do so. Go to YouTube and look up St. Cecilia Church Oakley and you'll be able to hear it. 6 TRIVIA NIGHT. St. Cecilia School's Trivia Night was a huge hit! What a fun night! The food and drinks were great and the questions were really fun to answer and compete with each other. Thank you to everyone who participated and helped support our 8th graders as they travel to Washington, DC this spring. It was nice to have the 8th graders there serving and making the night a success! 7 TROOP OF ST. GEORGE. It was so nice to have the Troop of St. George participated at the Mass and then helped host the Doughnut Sunday this month. I'm grateful that Colin Kunath has taken on the leadership role and that all of the dads were there to support their sons. 8, 9 REST IN PEACE, Joyce Giesler. Joyce's Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated on Friday, February 10. Joyce was a long time parishioner. Please keep her family in your prayers. Rest in peace, Angela Murrer. Angela's Mass of Christian burial was celebrated on Thursday, February 9. Angela was a long-time parishioner and was a very generous supporter of St. Cecilia Church. Please keep her family in your prayers.

“You cannot imagine at all how much you interest God; he is interested in you as if there were no one else on earth.” – JULIEN GREEN

A Lenten Study: Heaven, Hell, & Divine Mercy. A four-week custom class led by Fr. Anthony Marcelli on Thursdays from 7-8:30 PM, starting March 9 at St. Mary Parish (Robisch Hall). The cost is $20 per person.

Death is not the end, it's only the beginning: the beginning of a journey towards eternal bliss or eternal misery. Death, Judgment, Heaven, and Hell — the Four Last Things — have been a powerful source of meditation in the Catholic tradition, inspiring countless conversions and a rich spirituality among the faithful. To register, go to www.eastsidefaith.org, click on For Adults, then on Desiring Formation.

Join Dr. Ceil Dorgier for the Lenten Lunch with the Lord series at the Basilica Cathedral of St. Peter in Chains. It will be a meditation on the art that illustrates The Seven Sorrows of the Virgin Mary. It is free! Talks will begin right after the 11:30 Mass at the Cathedral Basilica, downstairs in Synod Hall, Wednesdays, March 15, 22, and 29.

Catechesis (kat'i-ke'sis) n.

The Chasuble

The chasuble is the vestment proper to he who celebrates the Holy Mass. In the past the liturgical books used the two Latin terms “casual” and “planeta” synonymously. While the term “planeta” was especially used in Rome and has remained in use in Italy, the term “casula” derives from the typical form of the vestment that at the beginning completely covered the sacred minister who wore it. The Latin “casula” is found in other languages in a modified form. Thus one finds “casulla” in Spanish, “chasuble” in French and English, and “Kasel” in German.

The prayer for the donning of the chasuble references the exhortation in the Letter to the Colossians (3:14) — “Above all these things [put on] charity, which is the bond of perfection” — and the Lord’s words in Matthew, 11:30: “O Lord, who has said, My yoke is sweet and My burden light, grant that I may so carry it as to merit Thy grace.”

During Lent, we will pray the Stations of the Cross every Friday at 9:30 AM and 7 PM at St. Cecilia and on Thursdays after the 5:30 PM Mass at St. Mary. During this special devotion, through meditation and prayer, we will walk with our Savior on his way of suffering from the time he was condemned to death until he died and was buried. Making this devotion part of your Lenten commitment to prayer will help you grow closer to Christ.

Know Your Saints

St. Adrian of Canterbury (d. 710)

Though St. Adrian turned down a papal request to become Archbishop of Canterbury, England, Pope St. Vitalian accepted the rejection on the condition that Adrian serve as the Holy Father’s assistant and adviser. Adrian accepted, but ended up spending most of his life and doing most of his work in Canterbury.

Born in Africa, Adrian was serving as an abbot in Italy when the new Archbishop of Canterbury appointed him abbot of the monastery of Sts. Peter and Paul in Canterbury. Thanks to his leadership skills, the facility became one of the most important centers of learning. The school attracted many outstanding scholars from far and wide and produced numerous future bishops and archbishops. Students reportedly learned Greek and Latin and spoke Latin as well as their own native languages.

Adrian taught at the school for 40 years. He died there, probably in the year 710, and was buried in the monastery. Several hundred years later, when reconstruction was being done, Adrian’s body was discovered in an incorrupt state. As word spread, people flocked to his tomb, which became famous for miracles. Rumor had it that young schoolboys in trouble with their masters made regular visits there.

PRESENTS

NIGHT WATCH

MARCH 3RD-4TH, 2023

7 PM-11 AM

ST. CECILIA CATHOLIC CHURCH

Now more than ever the world needs men of faith. Men who will lead their families and communities closer to God through their example. Men who will step forward and do the hard things needed to strengthen Christ's kingdom on earth. However, this is not something men can do alone; we must join together and support each other in the battle waged against the forces of Satan. Take up Christ's banner with the men of the Eastside Family of Parishes! Come together with us as we steel ourselves for the fight through all night Adoration. As a common cavalry for Christ, we will pray, hear talks on the role of men in the church and share a communal breakfast with representatives from men's ministries from across the Archdiocese.

Why Antiphons?

Since the beginning of Advent and the use of The Pew Missal as our worship aid, we are now incorporating the Entrance and Communion Antiphons into the liturgy.

The parts of Mass that we sing fall into two main categories: the Ordinary and the Propers. The Ordinary consists of the parts of the Mass with unchanging words: the Kyrie, Gloria, Creed, Holy Holy, Memorial Acclamation, and Lamb of God. Each part of the Ordinary is our direct response as the people of God to some action or prayer in the liturgy.

The Propers are the parts of the Mass with words that change depending on the day. They consist of scripture passages given to us on which to meditate. There are Propers assigned to the Entrance, Responsorial Psalm, Gospel Acclamation, Offertory and Communion. It's important to note that the antiphons are scripture. In the Mass, the incarnate Word of God comes in our midst. It's fitting that our meditation should be that same Word.

We are incorporating antiphons into the Entrance and Communion times, in addition to the Responsorial Psalm and Gospel Acclamation as a way of moving towards singing Propers. After Vatican II, none of the antiphons that the Church provided had English versions, so vernacular hymns were used to fill the void, developing into the FOUR-HYMN MASS. By including the sung Propers we are finally beginning to sing the Mass as was prescribed by Vatican II.

You are encouraged to sing the antiphons. At the beginning of Mass, the lector announces the page number where the Mass of the day begins. Join in singing the Entrance antiphon. During the communion procession, join in singing the repeated antiphon as a part of your meditation.
