Mother's Day

Fr. Jamie

MAY | 11 | 2025

Today we celebrate all mothers, especially our Mother Mary, Queen of Heaven. We recognize her queenship by crowning her with flowers. We honor all mothers for their care, love and sacrifices. Mary serves as our spiritual mother and the model of motherhood and its deep love and sacrifice for one's children. A mother gives such selfless love and a nurturing presence. It's the first person a child thinks of when they are hurt or in need. I often talk about Mary's yes to God and we see this daily in mothers who make sacrifices each day for their children as they say, "yes" again and again. Happy Mother's Day!

"The love of a mother is the veil of a softer light between the heart and the heavenly Father." – St. Thérèse of Lisieux

May Crowning at Home and Flowers for Mary

This month it would be lovely to see flowers gathered at the foot of our Mary statues at their altars. Please feel free to bring a vase of flowers or a single flower to adorn her altar. You can also have a May Crowning in your home and crown your Mary statue with flowers and sing Marian hymns with friends and family.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

It is said that every vocation comes from God but through the heart of a mother. What a great day to celebrate World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Two ways to celebrate this is to take the time and either write a thank you note or let your priest know how much you appreciate his sacrifice to the vocation of the priesthood. You can drop off cards for Fr. Jamie, Fr. Ken and Fr. Alex at the rectory offices. Another way is to pray for those discerning or are being called to the priesthood. Take the time to thank and encourage our new Vocations Director as well as some of our past priests and vicars.

1-2 | Welcome Children of God, James Oliver, son of James and Elizabeth Longaberger and Tess Marie, daughter of Joseph and Katherine Bayer. 3 | Divine Mercy Sunday. We had a nice turnout for the Holy Hour at the Oratory. Fr. Alex gave a short talk on devotion to Divine Mercy, and led everyone in praying the Chaplet and the Litany of Divine Mercy before Benediction. 4-5 | First Holy Communion. We had two First Communion Masses at St. Cecilia the weekend of April 26-27. On Saturday we had our St. Cecilia School First Communion and on Sunday it was the children from Family of Faith. Both Masses were lovely and I am so grateful to the parents and teachers that helped form the children and prepared them for their First Mass. Please keep the children in your prayers. 6-7 | New Deacons! This year's Diaconate Mass was on April 26 at the Cathedral Basilica downtown. The following day, April 27, these men their first Masses at St. Cecilia and St. Mary: Deacon David Homoele became a transitional deacon and served his Mass as such at St. Cecilia with his first homily for the First Communicants. Deacon Chris Bergman (second from left below) became a permanent deacon and served his first Mass at St. Mary. They both did a wonderful job. A big thank you to Melissa Ford, Carrie Brigger and Monica Gaddis who helped set up and throw beautiful receptions at each of the churches. A beautiful weekend for all.

Prayer for Imploring Holy Popes

Kyrie Eleison! Christe Eleison! Kyrie Eleison! Lord Jesus Christ, You are the Good Shepherd! With your almighty hand you guide Your pilgrim Church through the storms of each age.

Adorn the Holy See with holy popes who neither fear the powerful of this world nor compromise with the spirit of the age, but preserve, strengthen, and defend the Catholic Faith unto the shedding of their blood, and observe, protect, and hand on the venerable liturgy of the Roman Church.

O Lord, return to us through holy popes who, inflamed with the zeal of the Apostles, proclaim to the whole world: "Salvation is found in no other than in Jesus Christ. For there is no other name under heaven given to men by which they should be saved."

Through an era of holy popes, may the Holy See—which is home to all who promote the Catholic and Apostolic Faith—always shine as the cathedra of truth for the whole world. Hear us, O Lord, and through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Mother of the Church, grant us holy Popes, grant us many holy Popes! Have mercy on us and hear us! Amen.

EXCOMMUNICATION

A Clarification on the Truth

What is the purpose of excommunication, and how easy is it to be restored into communion with the Church after being excommunicated? How easy is it to be excommunicated? And is it always a formal process or can it happen in the exact moment that an offense is committed? What are some of the excommunicable offenses? These are only a few of the questions many Catholics and non-Catholics have surrounding this topic that is so often misunderstood. Join Fr. Zach Cecil for a conversation that will bring all these fears and false impressions into the light!

A Call to Vocations

God speaks in whispers and we live in a loud world. Hearing God's voice amidst the noise and busy-ness of our lives can be difficult. But He is always there to guide and help us, and He has given us other people and resources to help us, as well. If you think God may be calling you to religious life and you need someone to talk to, call Father Michael Willig at (513) 263-3390.

The Permanent Diaconate

Any man who may be discerning a possible vocation to serve the Church as a Permanent Deacon should contact Deacon Mark Machuga, Director of the Office of the Diaconate, to discuss the discernment process, prerequisites and the formation cycle. Marriage Solutions

If you are having trouble within your marriage, especially if you are considering separation, the Church is here to help you. There is no such thing as Catholic divorce, as marriage is a permanent, unbreakable institution. Even if you think you and your spouse are beyond all reconciliation, there is hope and there is help. Even if you are separated or civilly divorced, your marriage bond is not broken. Please reach out to Deacon Nathan (deaconnathan@stceciliacincinnati.org) for a confidential meeting. Our clergy will either try to help you here, or guide you toward someone who can.

However, there are times when two people have attempted marriage invalidly, have separated, and are in need of the Church's help in order to marry in the future. Catholics who are in this state do not need to refrain from the Sacraments unless they have already attempted marriage again or are in a relationship with a person other than their spouse. If you suspect your prior marriage may be invalid, we can help with the annulment process. Please reach out to Joe Fondacaro at 513-871-5757, ext. 222 for help. All inquiries regarding your current or past marriage are kept in the strictest confidence.

Glória in excelsis Deo.
The Novus Ordo Latin Mass is celebrated every Tuesday at 9AM at Saint Cecilia. Booklets are available at the doors to guide you through the Mass.

EPIC Trip to the Museum

Ready to start your summer with an off camps tour at the Cincinnati Art Museum in Eden Park? On Wednesday, June 11, we will gather in the lobby at 11 AM. We will have a docent-led tour of the Modern and Contemporary Ceramics collection. The gallery features a selection of ceramics collected over the last seven decades by regionally, nationally, and internationally recognized artists. The Terrace Café has been reserved for us to enjoy lunch featuring a variety of soups, salads and sandwiches inspired by works in the museum's collections. Plenty of free parking. No cost for the tour. Lunch is on your own. Limit 30 guests. The Café will take 15 guests at a time. We will divide into two groups. One will tour while the other enjoys lunch and then we will switch places. While you are in the area, on your own, continue the afternoon with the 2025 Butterfly show at the Krohn Conservatory or visit charming Mt. Adams. The City View Tavern on Oregon Street is an eclectic place with a great view. "The purpose of life is to live it, to taste it, to experience it to the utmost." RSVP to Mary Landrum at mlandrum@eastsideregion.org by June 2.

Singles Paint and Sip

This summer, we're changing it up a bit from our traditional speed dating event. We're opting for a more laid back version of what we usually host. Our Paint & Sip will be much more casual, and will give you an opportunity to chat with the other attendees in an organic way. We will start in the courtyard outside Robisch Hall at St. Mary on June 7 at 6 PM, with drinks and appetizers and a chance to mix and mingle with each other. Then, we'll head inside for the main event. You'll all be sitting at assigned tables while you're guided through a painting — feel free to bring a drink to sip on while you paint! Everything will be ready for you at your table, so all you'll have to do is roll up your sleeves and paint! It doesn't matter if you've got lots of painting experience, or if you've never painted before in your life. The instructor will be there to walk you through it. It will be a relaxed atmosphere that will give you plenty of chances to chat with others. Registration for this event is now open!
