Next Saturday we celebrate one of our patron saints in the Eastside Catholic family, St. Cecilia, who is the patron saint of music, and in our family we have a lot to celebrate! All three of our churches have the most beautiful music at each Mass. There is not a weekend that I don't hear about how wonderful the music is and how the hymns really lift and glorify the Masses.

On Saturday, November 22 at 6:30 PM, we will have a Sacred Music concert honoring St. Cecilia. The St. Cecilia Choir will present Ode to St. Cecilia by Georg Frideric Handel, a composition that proclaims the glory of God through beauty and harmony. Admission is free. All are warmly invited to take in this uplifting musical program surrounded by the beauty of St. Cecilia church. I hope you will join us!

The National Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services

The collection for the AMS was first approved by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2012 and is taken every three years. The next scheduled collection for the AMS is this weekend, November 15-16. The Archdiocese for the Military Services does not receive financial assistance from the government. Without parishes, it cannot receive funds from weekly collections. Its mission is solely supported by the generosity of donors such as you.
