This Sunday we begin the season of Advent. The coming of the Lord is drawing near. His birth is such a joyful and gracious time of the year for Catholics. These next few weeks we have time to share this joy and the growing excitement as we prepare to celebrate the birth of our Savior. This year we will be gifting the book, The Forgotten Way by Matthew Kelly to our parishioners. There will also be a study on the book beginning on January 5 (see page 6 for the details.) Let this book bring you out of the hustle and bustle of the season and instead bring our hearts and minds toward the greatest gift of all, the arrival of the Christ on earth.

Please join us in our efforts to help others. We will be collecting new men's underwear and socks as well as hygiene items (soaps, toothbrushes, hair ties, etc.) There is also a need for XL+ hoodies and coats, winter hats, gloves, sweatshirts and sweatpants. Contact

Mary Landrum for more information or to donate at mlandrum@eastsideregion.org. We will be collecting these items through December 10. May the true spirit of Christmas shine through us all.

First Reconciliation Parents

Just a reminder that if your child will be receiving his or her First Reconciliation on Monday, December 1, you should arrive at St. Mary Church at 6:30 PM, so that your child can sign in and be seated.

Black Catholic History Month

Two children's books that are wonderful reads for the month of November:

Martin de Porres: The Rose in the Desert

This vibrantly illustrated book introduces children to the life of St. Martin de Porres, a remarkable and courageous saint who is the patron of mixed-race people, barbers, innkeepers, public health workers, and those seeking and working for racial harmony.

Thea Bowman: Faithful And Free (middle school kids)

With every passing year since her death in 1990, more people are recognizing Sister Thea Bowman as one of the most inspiring figures in American Catholic history. This granddaughter of slaves converted to Catholicism on her own at the age of nine. As a Franciscan sister, she lived a wide-ranging ministry of joy, music, and justice.

Candlelight Mass

Thursday, December 11 | St. Cecilia Church

Confessions begin at 6:30 PM.

Mass is at 7 PM with a social immediately after.

Final Fall Cleanup Day at the Oratory

The Oratory Building & Grounds Committee will be conducting the final fall clean-up day on Saturday, December 6, from 9 AM to 3 PM. Volunteers are needed to rake leaves, trim beds, and clean up the grounds for winter. Bring your rakes and gloves.

Women's Monthly Potluck

Advent cookie exchange! At 6:30 PM in the STC Commons on December 14. Instead of food, please bring cookies and printed recipes to share with everyone! It might be helpful to bring a container to bring some delicious cookies home. Bring your friends, and we'll see you there!

Retirement Fund for Religious

In good times and bad, senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have dedicated themselves to service and acts of mercy. Today, they pray for an aching world. Yet years of serving for little or no pay have left their religious communities without enough retirement savings. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide medications, nursing care, and other necessities. A collection will be taken the weekend of December 13-14. Please be generous.

Rosaries Needed for Prison Ministry

The Archdiocesan Prison Ministry gives rosaries to the inmates we serve, oftentimes paid for by the volunteer ministers. If you have any unused rosaries you would be willing to part with, we would be grateful to have them. We only ask that they be intact. Please contact Stephanie Ramsey at skb\_steph@yahoo.com or 513.331.0358 for more information.
