Catholic Social Teaching Corner ~ Fifth Sunday of Lent

When the officials brought Jesus the woman caught in adultery he did not condemn her, but with compassion and forgiveness invited her to a new way of life. We too are beneficiaries of God's compassion and forgiveness. We too participate in God's life through our baptism. Are we in turn compelling signs of God's mercy and compassion? Are we sacraments of God's transforming love in the world? Do others see in us the hope and promise of God's Kingdom already active in our world?

Ethics and Integrity in Ministry: If you are in need of a refresher course or would like to become EIM compliant (which you must be in order to serve in a ministry in the parish: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Usher, RE teacher or aide, chairperson and worker of parish events, officer of Parish organizations, members of Pastoral and Finance Councils, employee of the Parish) please go online (www.austindiocese.org) and follow all of the directions on the Ethics & Integrity in Ministry page. If you have any trouble in the process, or have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact the parish office for help!

Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers

We will begin scheduling Eucharistic Ministers (EMs) to serve at all Masses (not homebound or nursing homes at this time). In order to have a complete list of all lectors and EMs, I am asking all lectors and EMs to fill out the form below and return ASAP.

Put in collection basket, return to Joanne at the office, or return to Deborah Hensel.

If you have not served in the past, but are willing/interested in serving, please check 'Interested in joining'. If you have any questions, please call or text Deborah Hensel at (512) 771-8074.
