OUR MISSION and OUR VISION

MISSION STATEMENT - Who We Are

The mission of the faith community of Mary, Mother of Divine Grace is to inspire spiritual growth by worshiping, teaching and living by example our love of Jesus, His Church and our neighbors.

VISION STATEMENT - Who We Strive to Be

The parish of Mary, Mother of Divine Grace will continually serve all people by being good stewards for future generations. We make Christ known by living and teaching our faith.

For additional information regarding our parish, please see page 11 or visit our website: marymotherofdivinegrace.org

In the first reading, Moses tells the people that God will give them what they ask, namely a prophet to tell them the Word of God. They were afraid to hear God's voice or see his face. They knew that it was dangerous to come face to face with the living God. So they asked for an intermediary, someone to bring God's word to them. But throughout the Scriptures they ignored the prophets when the message was not what they wanted to hear. And God replies that anyone who fails to listen to his word spoken through the prophets will suffer the consequences. Because Jesus has shown us the face of God's love and mercy, we need not be afraid of coming face to face with God. It is the Spirit of God dwelling within us that empowers us to do his will without fear, even in difficult or unpopular circumstances. My Scripture commentary is on page six.

I hope everyone survived the cold, snow, and the wintry/sleet mix on Monday and Tuesday that made travel dangerous. We didn't have any major problems this past week, though it was very cold in the DI church this past weekend. We've had it checked this week, and with the warm-up in the temperatures, it should not be a problem this weekend.

Last Sunday we had the Confirmation meeting for candidates, parents and sponsors. Thank you to Sr. Christine for preparing everyone for the Sacrament. We look forward to celebrating the Confirmation on March 22nd with Bishop Kane. Please keep the children and their families in your prayers.

This week we celebrate Catholic Schools Week, beginning with our Family Mass at 8:30am, featuring student readers and greeters, the Children's Choir and Handbells. There will be a special blessing of the teachers, staff and school board, followed by an Open House from 9:30-10:30am. This is an opportunity to highlight our children's work and visit with parents and teachers. All are welcome. There will be several special events throughout the week to celebrate Catholic schools. Please see the school website for details.

The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord will be celebrated this Friday, February 2. Jesus is presented in the Temple and claimed by Joseph as his son, thereby making him the heir to the House of David. Simeon and Anna come forth and proclaim the fulfillment of the prophecies, that this child is the long-awaited Messiah, the one who will deliver his people. More details of the Feast are on page nine.

The Feast of St. Blase will be celebrated this Saturday at the 8:30am Mass. There will be a communal Blessing of Throats at next weekend's Masses. More details are on page nine.

Have a great week.

Sincerely,
Fr. Neil

No More, Please

For a good number of years, I have asked and received unused and not-needed greeting cards.

The time has come that I can longer accept any cards. The prisons and jails that the cards were sent to have increased their security. Some people actually diluted drugs and poured the solution on a part of a card, let it dry and then mailed it. The person who received it tears off a portion and puts it in his mouth and experiences the effects of the drug. A few occurrences of such mail have made the IDOC (Illinois Department of Corrections) very suspicious and restrictive.

Hence all cards must be inspected individually, and the IDOC does not want to have to do that.

Therefore, I no longer have outlets for the cards you have donated these past years.

I thank all of you very much for your assistance in this ministry.

Fr. Tom

CONFESSIONS

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In the book of Deuteronomy, the Israelites are afraid that after Moses dies, if they hear the voice of God again, they will die. Moses tells them that the Lord will raise up another prophet for them. The Lord tells them that, if they do not listen to this prophet, they will have to answer to God for it. In the second reading, St. Paul tells the Corinthians that he wants them to be free of anxiety. He says that it is best to those who are unmarried remain in their present state so that they might more easily follow the Lord without distraction. In the gospel Jesus teaches in the synagogue, astonishing the people because he drives out unclean spirits and speaks with the authority of God.

Deuteronomy 18: 15-20

1 Corinthians 7: 32-35

Mark 1: 21-28

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~ SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

In the first reading, Moses tells the people that God will give them what they ask, namely a prophet to tell them the Word of God. They were afraid to hear God's voice or see his face. They knew that it was dangerous to come face to face with the living God. So they asked for an intermediary, someone to bring God's word to them. But throughout the Scriptures they ignored the prophets when the message was not what they wanted to hear. And God replies that anyone who fails to listen to his word spoken through the prophets will suffer the consequences.

Fortunately, we are blessed to have a prophet who speaks God's Word. In fact, the prophet is God's Word. The prophet promised to us is Jesus himself. In the gospel reading we hear Jesus teaching in the synagogue "with authority". The people were astonished at this because their regular teachers (the scribes and the Pharisees) always deferred to the higher authority of the Law and the Prophets. Jesus claimed that authority for himself, driving out demons as a sign of that authority. Even the demons acknowledged him as the Holy One of God. And so the Word of God is made known to us through Sacred Scripture.

The Bible is God's self-revelation to us for our salvation. Jesus performs miracles so that we may be open to the Word that gives spiritual healing and the promise of everlasting life. To act on his Word is to be healed spiritually so that we may share in his divine life. God gives us commandments so that we may be conformed to his image.

St. Paul's odd-sounding advice to the Corinthians is not a commentary on marriage but a call to keep our eyes focused on God. He wants us to be free of anxieties, not to impose a restraint upon us, so that we can clearly see the will of God and act upon it in our lives.

Because Jesus has shown us the face of God's love and mercy, we need not be afraid of coming face to face with God. It is the Spirit of God dwelling within us that empowers us to do his will without fear, even in difficult or unpopular circumstances. Refusal to listen to and obey the Word of God brings spiritual death. This is not a threat but a biblical reality. The opposite is also a biblical reality. When we hear and act on the Word of God, even when it is difficult or we are afraid, his Word leads us to Christ and gives us spiritual life.

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Wednesday:	St. John Bosco, Priest
Friday:	The Presentation of the Lord, World Day for Consecrated Life
Saturday:	St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr; St. Ansgar, Bishop
Sunday:	5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, celebrated on February 2nd, commemorates when Joseph and Mary brought Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem. In bringing Jesus to the Temple and naming him as his son, Joseph becomes his legal father, making Jesus truly the Son of David and heir to the Messianic Prophecy. The Presentation of the Lord is the Fourth Joyful Mystery of the Rosary, helping us to re-member the great events of salvation history in the Incarnation. The prophet Malachi, announcing the coming of the messenger to prepare the way of the Lord, says that the Messiah will be like a refiner's fire, purifying the children of Levi to restore the kingdom to the favor of the Lord. The writer of the letter to the Hebrews says that Jesus freely accepted his own death to free humanity from slavery to sin and death. In the Gospel the Holy Spirit sends Simeon into the Temple to take the baby Jesus in his arms, bless him and announce that he has seen the salvation of Israel. The prophetess Anna confirms the message saying that this child is the redemption of Jerusalem.

Malachi 3:1-4

Hebrews 2:14-18

Luke 2:22-40

THE FEAST OF ST. BLASE

St. Blaise was a fourth century bishop in Armenia, renowned for his personal holiness and dedication to the physical and spiritual health of his people. He was tortured and beheaded for refusing to sacrifice to pagan idols. Legend has it that he cured a young boy choking on a fish bone. Because of this miracle of intercession, St. Blaise became the patron saint for the healing of throats.

“Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil.”

His feast day is February 3rd.
