Finally, all of you, be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another,
compassionate, humble.

Tengan todo unos mismos
sentimientos, sean compasivos, ámense como hermanos, sean misericordiosos y humildes.
1 Peter 3:8

And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful.

Que la paz de Cristo reine en sus corazones: esa paz a la que han sido llamados, porque
formamos un solo Cuerpo

Welcome New Members!! Wherever you are on your faith journey, we welcome you to join our parish community. To be considered an active, participating member of the Parish, and thus eligible for sacraments, sponsor eligibility, and our religious education program, we take into account a family or individual ministry involvement, and Mass attendance. Collection envelopes or online giving receipts are the only way we can determine your attendance. You may register by contacting the Parish Office.

Bienvenidos nuevos miembros! Donde quiera que esté en su camino de fe, le invitamos a unirse a nuestra comunidad parroquial. Para ser considerado un miembro activo y participante de la parroquia y, por lo tanto, ser elegible para los sacramentos, poder ser padrino y participar en nuestro programa de educación religiosa, en esta parroquia tomamos en cuenta la participación del ministerio familiar o individual y la asistencia a misa. Los sobres de colección o los recibos de donaciones en línea son la única forma en que podemos determinar su asistencia. Puede registrarse llamando a la oficina parroquial.

Communion & Mortal Sin

Question:

I have a friend who receives communion, but who I know for a fact is in a state of mortal sin. Should I tell our priest? Is it my responsibility to say something?

Answer:

While we may always want to do what is best for our friends and family members, we have a responsibility to respect their privacy and their conscience. In its reflections on the Eighth Commandment ("You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor"), the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "Respect for the reputation of persons forbids every attitude and word likely to cause them unjust injury. [One] becomes guilty: -of rash judgment who, even tacitly, assumes as true, without sufficient foundation, the moral fault of a neighbor; - of detraction who, without objectively valid reason, discloses another's faults and failings to persons who do not know them; of calumny who, by remarks contrary to the truth, harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgments concerning them" (no. 2477).

We will never truly know what is in a person's mind, heart, and soul; only God knows those things. We should, of course, take our concerns to God and entrust the person about whom we are concerned to God's grace and mercy. If we have concerns about the spiritual wellbeing of someone with whom we are close, we should go to the person themselves and talk about our fears and concerns. Unless it is a case of abuse or endangerment (which we have a moral and even legal responsibility to report to the appropriate authorities), we ultimately do not have the freedom to share another's persons faults or sins, however good we think our intentions might be.

La Comunión y el pecado mortal

Pregunta:

Tengo amigo que recibe la Comunión, pero yo sé por cierto está en pecado mortal. ¿Digo yo al sacerdote esta información? ¿Es la responsabilidad mía decir algo?

Respuesta:

Aunque queremos hacer lo que es mejor para nuestros amigos y familiares, tenemos una responsabilidad al respetar su privacidad y conciencia. Reflexionando sobre el octavo mandamiento ("No darás testimonio falso contra tu prójimo"), el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica expone, "El respeto de la reputación de las personas prohíbe toda actitud y toda palabra susceptibles de causarles un daño injusto. Uno se hace culpable: - de juicio temerario el que, incluso tácitamente, admite como verdadero, sin tener para ello fundamento suficiente, un defecto moral en el prójimo; - de maledicencia el que, sin razón objetivamente válida, manifiesta los defectos y las faltas de otros a personas que los ignoran; - de calumnia el que, mediante palabras contrarias a la verdad, daña la reputación de otros y da ocasión a juicios falsos respecto a ellos" (numero 2477).

No sabemos nunca lo que hay en la mente, el corazón, y el alma de otra persona; solamente Dios sabe esas cosas. Claro, debemos llevar nuestras preocupaciones a Dios y encomendar a la persona de quien estamos preocupados a la gracia y misericordia de Dios. Si tenemos preocupaciones sobre el bienestar espiritual de una persona con quien estamos íntimos, debemos hablar directamente con él o ella sobre nuestras preocupaciones. A menos que se trate de un caso de abuso o peligro (que tenemos la responsabilidad moral e incluso legal de informar a las autoridades apropiadas), últimamente no tenemos la libertad de compartir las faltas o los pecados de otra persona, por buenas que creamos que nuestras intenciones puedan ser.
